The Class B Notes, the Class J Notes and the Class R Note (all as defined below) will not be admitted to trading.

Capitalised terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings given to them under this Prospectus, notably in the Schedule (Definitions) to the Terms and Conditions of the Notes (see “Terms and Conditions of the Notes”).

The €123,000,000.00 Class A Asset-Backed Floating Rate Notes due 2037 (the “Class A Notes” or the “Senior Notes”), the €19,500,000.00 Class B Asset-Backed Floating Rate Notes due 2037 (the “Class B Notes” or the “Mezzanine Notes” and together with the Class A Notes, the “Rated Notes”), the €29,548,000.00 Class J Asset-Backed Variable Return Notes due 2037 (the “Class J Notes” or the “Junior Notes” and together with the Rated Notes, the “Notes”) and the €4,275,000.00 Class R Note due 2037 (the “Class R Note”) were issued by Hefesto, STC, S.A. (“CEMG” or the “Originator”) on 2 November 2017 (the “Closing Date” or the “Issue Date”).

Interest on the Notes and on the Class R Note is payable in respect of each Interest Period at an annual rate equal to the sum of the European Interbank Offered Rate (“EURIBOR”) for six-month euro deposits (except that, in respect of the Notes but not in respect of the Class R Note, in relation to the Interest Determination

The holders of the Class J Notes will additionally be entitled to the Class J Return Amount to the extent of available funds.

Amounts payable under the Class A Notes, Class B Notes, Class J Notes and Class R Note are calculated by reference to EURIBOR which is provided by the European Money Markets Institute (“EMMI”). As at the date of this Prospectus, EMMI does not appear on the register of administrators and benchmarks established and maintained by the European Securities and Markets Authority (“ESMA”) pursuant to Article 36 of the Benchmark Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/1011) (the “Benchmark Regulation”).

As far as the Issuer is aware, the transitional provisions in Article 51, including its pars. (1) and (3), of the Benchmark Regulation apply such that EMMI is not currently required to obtain authorisation or registration.

The Notes and the Class R Note will not provide for additional payments by way of gross-up in the case that interest payable under the Notes, the Class R Note or the Class J Return Amount payable under the Class J Notes is or becomes subject to income taxes (including withholding taxes) or other taxes. See “Principal Features of the Notes – Taxes”.

Unless the Notes and the Class R Note have previously been redeemed in full as described in Condition 9 (Final Redemption, Mandatory Redemption in Part and Optional Redemption), the Notes and the Class R Note will be redeemed by the Issuer on the Final Legal Maturity Date at their Principal Amount Outstanding.

If any of the Notes in a Class cannot be redeemed in full on the Final Legal Maturity Date as a result of the Issuer having insufficient amounts of Available Distribution Amount on the Final Legal Maturity Date for such purpose, the amount of any principal then unpaid in respect of such Notes shall be cancelled (see “Principal Features of the Notes”).

Payments of principal on the Notes and the Class R Note on any Interest Payment Date will be made sequentially by redeeming all principal due on the Class R Note, thereafter by redeeming all principal due on the Class A Notes, and thereafter by redeeming all principal due on the Class B Notes, with payments of principal on the Class J Notes being made thereafter and to the extent and in the conditions foreseen in the relevant Payment Priorities.

The Notes will be subject to optional redemption (in whole but not in part) at their Principal Amount Outstanding (together with accrued interest) in accordance with article 45(2) of the Securitisation Law, at the option of the Issuer on any Interest Payment Date following the occurrence of certain events, as detailed in Condition 9 (Final Redemption, Mandatory Redemption in Part and Optional Redemption).

The main source of funds for the payment of principal, interest and other amounts due under the Notes and the Class R Note will be the right of the Issuer to receive payments in respect of receivables originated in Portugal by CEMG, consisting essentially of defaulted and non-performing term loans (i.e. loans where one or more interest or principal payments was not made when due, in accordance with the Portuguese law, which is the applicable contract law), including consumer loans, consumer revolving credit facilities (open loans) or credit card facilities, residential secured loans, overdrafts, corporate secured loans and unsecured loans, granted by the Originator to Borrowers, a part of which is secured and serviced by Whitestar Asset Solutions, S.A. and the other part of which is unsecured and serviced by HG PT, Unipessoal, Lda. (each a “Servicer” and together the “Servicers”).

The Notes and the Class R Note are limited recourse obligations and are obligations solely of the Issuer and are not the obligations of, or guaranteed by, and will not be the responsibility of the Originator, the Lead Manager or any other entity.

This Prospectus has been approved by the Portuguese Securities Market Commission (Comissão do Mercado de Valores Mobiliários or the “CMVM”) as competent authority under Directive 2003/71/EC (as amended; “Prospectus Directive”) as a prospectus in relation to the admission to trading of the Class A Notes described herein. The CMVM only approves this Prospectus as meeting the requirements imposed under Portuguese and EU law pursuant to the Prospectus Directive. The approval of this Prospectus by the CMVM as competent authority for the purposes of Prospectus Directive does not imply any guarantee as to the information contained herein, the financial situation of the Issuer or as to the opportunity of the issue or sale or the quality of the Notes or the Class R Note.

The Notes and the Class R Note have been subscribed on 2 November 2017 by CEMG. The Class B Notes and the Class J Notes have been sold by CEMG to institutional investors on 3 November 2017.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION RELATING TO THE USE OF THIS PROSPECTUS AND SALES OR OFFERS OF SECURITIES GENERALLY

This Prospectus does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any Notes or Class R Note in any jurisdiction to any person to whom it is unlawful to make the offer or solicitation in such jurisdiction. The distribution of this Prospectus and the offer or sale of Notes or Class R Note may be restricted by law in certain jurisdictions. The Issuer, the Lead Manager, the Originator and the Common Representative do not represent that this Prospectus may be lawfully distributed, or that any Notes or Class R Note may be lawfully offered, in compliance with any applicable registration or other requirements in any such jurisdiction, or pursuant to an exemption available thereunder, or assume any responsibility for facilitating any such distribution or offering. In particular, unless specifically indicated to the contrary, no action has been taken by the Issuer, the Lead Manager, the Originator or the Common Representative which would permit a public offer of any Notes in any country or jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required or distribution of this Prospectus in any country or jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. Accordingly, no Notes or Class R Note may be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, and neither this Prospectus nor any advertisement or other offering material may be distributed or published in any jurisdiction, except under circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations. Persons into whose possession this Prospectus or any Notes or the Class R Note may come must inform themselves about, and observe any such restrictions on the distribution of this Prospectus and the offering and sale of Notes and the Class R Note.

The Notes and the Class R Note referred to in this Prospectus have not been registered under the US Securities Act 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and may not be offered or sold in the United States or to U.S. persons (other than distributors and as described in the section entitled “Distribution and Sale”) unless the Notes and the Class R Note are registered under the Securities Act, or an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act is available. Neither the United States Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of the Notes or the Class R Note or determined if this Prospectus is accurate or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense in the United States. Accordingly, the Notes and the Class R Note have not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act and have been or are being offered and sold only outside the United States, in offshore transactions in compliance with Regulation S. The Notes and the Class R Note are subject to certain restrictions on transfer in the United States, the European Economic Area and otherwise, as described in “Distribution and Sale”.

MiFID II PRODUCT GOVERNANCE/PROFESSIONAL INVESTORS AND ECPs ONLY TARGET MARKET

Solely for the purposes of the manufacturer’s product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Notes has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Notes is eligible counterparties and professional clients only, each as defined in Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, “MiFID II”); and (ii) all channels for distribution of the Notes to eligible counterparties and professional clients are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a “distributor”) should take into consideration the manufacturer’s target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the manufacturer’s target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

PROHIBITION OF SALES TO RETAIL INVESTORS

The Notes and the Class R Note are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (the “EEA”). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive 2002/92/EC, as amended (the “IMD”), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Directive 2003/71/EC, as amended (the “Prospectus Directive”). Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No. 1286/2014 (the “PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the Notes and the Class R Note or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes and the Class R Note or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPS Regulation. The Class A Notes are intended to be admitted to trading on a regulated market, which regulated market may be accessed by institutional and retail investors, although the Class A Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the EEA.

Application has been made to Euronext Lisbon – Sociedade Gestora de Mercados Regulamentados, S.A. (“Euronext”) for the Class A Notes to be admitted to trading on Euronext Lisbon, a regulated market managed by Euronext. No application will be made to list the Class A Notes on any other stock exchange. The Class B Notes, the Class J Notes and the Class R Note will not be listed., This Prospectus will be made available on CMVM’s website (www.cmvm.pt). Notwithstanding the inclusion of information relating to the Class B Notes, the Class J Notes and the Class R Note, this Prospectus pertains solely to the application made in respect of the Class A Notes. Therefore, this Prospectus constitutes a prospectus issued in compliance with the Prospectus Directive and the relevant implementing measures in Portugal, with the purpose of providing information with regard to the Class A Notes only and not with regard to the Class B Notes, Class J Notes or the Class R Note.

The language of the Prospectus is English, although certain legislative references and technical terms have been cited in their original language in order that the correct technical meaning may be ascribed to them under applicable law.

Particulars of the dates of, parties to and general nature of each document to which the Issuer is a party are set out in various sections of this Prospectus.

The Rated Notes have been rated by DBRS Ratings Limited (“DBRS”) and Moody’s Investors Service Ltd. (“Moody’s”) and together, the “Rating Agencies”, while the Class J Notes and the Class R Note are unrated. The Rated Notes have received the ratings set out below:

In general, European regulated investors are restricted from using a rating for regulatory purposes if such rating is not issued by a credit rating agency established in the European Union and registered under the Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 September 2009 on credit rating agencies, as amended by Regulation (EC) No. 462/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 May 2013 (“CRA Regulation”) (and such registration has not been withdrawn or suspended), subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances while the registration application is pending. DBRS and Moody’s are established in the European Union and registered under the CRA Regulation. EU RISK RETENTION: CEMG, as an originator for the purposes of the CRR, the AIFM Regulation and the Solvency II Implementing Rules (each as defined below), will retain a material net economic interest, on an ongoing basis, until the Principal Amount Outstanding of the Notes and the Class R Note is reduced to zero, of not less than 5 (five) per cent. in the securitisation in accordance with the text of each of article 405 of Regulation (EU) No. 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms and amending Regulation (EU) No. 648/2012 (the “CRR”), article 51 of Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) No. 231/2013 of 19 December 2012 supplementing Directive 2011/61/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council with regard to exemptions, general operating conditions, depositaries, leverage, transparency and supervision, referred to as the Alternative Investment Fund Manager Regulation (the “AIFM Regulation”) and article 254 of Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) No. 2015/35 of 10 October 2014 supplementing Directive 2009/138/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council on the taking-up and pursuit of the business of Insurance and Reinsurance (the “Solvency II Implementing Rules”) (which, in each case, does not take into account any corresponding national measures) (the “Retention Obligation”). As at the Closing Date, such interest comprised certain randomly selected exposures equivalent to no less than 5 per cent. of the nominal amount of the securitised exposures, where such exposures would otherwise have been securitised in the securitisation, as required by the text of each of paragraph (c) of article 405(1) of the CRR, paragraph (c) of article 51(1) of the AIFM Regulation and paragraph (c) of article 254(2) of the Solvency II Implementing Rules. The Originator undertook not to hedge, sell or in any other way mitigate its credit risk in relation to such retained exposures. The retained exposures may be reduced over time by, amongst other things, amortisation and allocation of losses or defaults on the underlying Receivables. Any change to the manner in which such interest is held will be notified to the Noteholders. The Investor Report will also provide semi-annual confirmations as to the Originator’s continued holding retained exposures equal in total to at least 5 (five) per cent. of the securitised exposures. The Originator further undertook, in the Receivables Sale

Agreement, that it will ensure that Noteholders and the Class R Noteholder have readily available access to all information as would be necessary to conduct comprehensive and well-informed stress tests and to fulfil their monitoring and due diligence duties under articles 405 to 410 of the CRR, which does not form part of this Prospectus following the Issue Date.

RISK FACTORS

Prior to making an investment decision, prospective purchasers of the Notes should consider carefully, in light of the circumstances and their investment objectives, the information contained in this entire Prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference and reach their own views prior to making any investment decision. Prospective purchasers should nevertheless consider, among other things, the risk factors set out below.

The Issuer believes that the following risk factors may affect its ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes. All of these factors are contingencies which may or may not occur and the Issuer is not in a position to express a view on the likelihood of any such contingency occurring. Factors which the Issuer believes may be material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with Notes issued under this Prospectus are also described below.

The Issuer believes that the factors described below represent the principal risks inherent in investing in the Notes, but the Issuer may be unable to pay interest, principal or other amounts on or in connection with any Notes for other reasons and the Issuer does not represent that the statements below regarding the risks of holding any Notes are exhaustive. Additional risks not currently known or which are currently deemed immaterial may also have a material adverse effect on the Receivables, the Notes, business, financial condition or results of operations of the Issuer or result in other events that could lead to a decline in the trading price and/or value of the Notes. Except as otherwise provided below, the risk factors below relate generally to all the Notes, including the Class A Notes, which is the only Class of Notes in respect of which this Prospectus has been approved for the admission to trading of such Class of Notes on a regulated market.

RISKS RELATING TO THE NOTES

Absence of a Secondary Market

There is currently no market for the Notes and there can be no assurance that a secondary market for the Notes will develop or, if it does develop, that it will provide the Noteholders with liquidity of investment or that it will continue for the entire life of the Notes. Consequently, any purchaser of the Notes must be prepared to hold the Notes until final redemption thereof. The market price of the Notes could be subject to fluctuation in response to, among other things, variations in the value of the relevant mortgage backed credits, the market for similar securities, prevailing interest rates, changes in regulation and general market and economic conditions.

Noteholders should also be aware of the prevailing and widely reported global credit market conditions and the general lack of liquidity in the secondary market for instruments similar to the Notes. Since the referendum occurred on 23 June 2016, where the United Kingdom voted to leave the European Union (“UK Referendum”), there has been increased volatility and disruption of the capital, currency and credit markets, including the market for securities similar to the Notes.

Potential investors should be aware that these prevailing market conditions affecting securities similar to the Notes could lead to reductions in the market value and/or a severe lack of liquidity in the secondary market for instruments similar to the Notes. Such falls in market value and/or lack of liquidity may result in investors suffering losses on the Notes in secondary resales even if there is no decline in the performance of the securitised portfolio.

The Issuer cannot predict when these circumstances will change and whether, if and when they do change, there would be an increase in the market value and/or there will be a more liquid market for the Notes and instruments similar to the Notes at that time.

Restrictions on Transfer under US law

The Notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the US Securities Act 1933, as amended (“Securities Act”) or with any securities regulatory authority of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States. The offering of the Notes will be made pursuant to exemptions from the registration provisions under Regulation S under the Securities Act (“Regulation S”) and from state securities laws. No person is obliged or intends to register the Notes under the Securities Act or any state securities laws. Accordingly, offers and sales of the Notes are subject to the restrictions described under the section “Distribution and Sale”. Investors should take their own advice as to any restrictions on transfer that may apply under US law in light of their investment intentions.

Liability under the Notes is solely of the Issuer

The Notes will be direct limited recourse obligations solely of the Issuer and do not establish any liability or other obligation of any other entity. The Notes are not the obligations of, nor are they guaranteed by, any other person mentioned in this Prospectus including but not limited to the Noteholders, the Common Representative, the Principal Paying Agent, the Portuguese Paying Agent, the Transaction Manager, the Accounts Bank, the Servicers, the Asset Manager, the Monitoring Agent, the Cap Counterparty, the Shareholder and EMIR Reporting Agent (together the “Transaction Creditors”), the Originator or the Lead Manager.

No holder of any Notes will be entitled to proceed directly or indirectly against any of the Transaction Parties (other than indirectly against the Issuer via the Common Representative) under the Notes. No Transaction Party (other than the Issuer in respect of all of the Notes) or any other person has assumed any obligation in case the Issuer fails to make a payment due under any of the Notes.

Limited Recourse Nature of the Notes

The Notes will be direct limited recourse obligations solely of the Issuer in respect of the Transaction Assets and the ability of the Issuer to meet its obligations in respect of the payment of principal, interest and other amounts due in respect of the Notes will be dependent upon, among other things, the receipt by the Issuer of the Collections made on its behalf by the Servicers or the Asset Manager, as applicable, from the Receivables Portfolio and any other amounts received by the Issuer pursuant to the provisions of the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party. Other than the foregoing, the Issuer will not have any other funds available to it to make payments under the Notes and/or any other payment obligation ranking in priority to, or pari passu with, the Notes under the applicable Payments Priorities. Consequently, there is no assurance that, over the life of the Notes or on the redemption date of the Notes (whether on maturity, upon acceleration following the delivery of an Enforcement Notice or upon the early redemption in part or in whole as permitted under the Conditions, or upon redemption by acceleration of maturity following the service of an Enforcement Notice or otherwise), there will be sufficient funds to enable the Issuer to repay the Notes in full.

Therefore, the Noteholders will have a claim under the Notes against the Issuer only to the extent of the cash flows generated by the Receivables and any other amounts paid to the Issuer pursuant to the Transaction Documents, subject to the payment of amounts ranking in priority to payment of amounts due in respect of the Notes.

If there are insufficient funds available to the Issuer to pay in full, after payment of all other claims ranking in priority in accordance with the applicable Payments Priorities, all principal, interest and other amounts due in respect of the Notes at the Final Legal Maturity Date or upon acceleration following the delivery of an Enforcement Notice or upon the early redemption in part or in whole as permitted under the Conditions, then any such insufficiency will be borne by the Noteholders, subject to the applicable Payments Priorities, and the Noteholders will have no further claim against the Issuer in respect of any such unpaid amounts and such unpaid amounts shall be deemed discharged in full. The Issuer will not be obliged to pay any amounts representing a shortfall and any claims in respect of such shortfall shall be extinguished. No recourse may be had for any amount due in respect of any Notes, or any other obligations of the Issuer against any officer, member, director, employee, security holder or incorporator of the Issuer or their respective successors or assigns.

None of the Transaction Parties, the Originator or any other person has assumed any obligation in case the Issuer fails to make a payment due under any of the Notes.

Limited Resources of the Issuer

The Notes will not be obligations or responsibilities of any of the parties to the Transaction Documents other than the Issuer and shall be limited to the Receivables sold to the Issuer, segregated under the terms of the Securitisation Law and corresponding to this transaction (as identified by the corresponding asset code 201711HFTCMGNXXS0098 awarded by the CMVM pursuant to article 62 of the Securitisation Law) and the other Transaction Assets available to the Issuer.

The obligations of the Issuer under the Notes are without recourse to any other assets of the Issuer pertaining to other issuances of securitisation notes by the Issuer or to the Issuer's own funds or to the Issuer's directors, officers, employees, managers or shareholders. None of such persons or entities has assumed or will accept any liability whatsoever in respect of any failure by the Issuer to make any payment of any amount due on or in respect of the Notes.

The Issuer will not have any assets available for the purpose of meeting its payment obligations under the Notes other than the Receivables, Collections thereunder, amounts arising under disposals of Properties by the Asset Manager transferred to the Asset Management Account by the Asset Manager, its rights pursuant to the Transaction Documents and the amounts standing to the credit of certain of the Transaction Accounts. The Issuer's ability to meet its obligations in respect of the Notes, its operating expenses and its administrative expenses is wholly dependent upon:

- (a) collections and recoveries made from the Receivables and the Properties by the Servicers and the Asset Manager;
- (b) arrangements made pursuant to the Transaction Accounts; and
- (c) the performance by all of the parties to the Transaction Documents (other than the Issuer) of their respective obligations under the Transaction Documents.

The Issuer will not have any other funds available to meet its obligations under the Notes or any other payments ranking in priority to, or pari passu with, the Notes. There is no assurance that there will be sufficient funds to enable the Issuer to pay interest on any Class of Notes (or the Class J Return Amount) or, on the redemption date of any Class of Notes (whether on the Final Legal Maturity Date, upon acceleration following the delivery of an Enforcement Notice or upon early redemption in part or in whole as permitted under the Conditions) that there will be sufficient funds to enable the Issuer to repay principal in respect of such Class of Notes in whole or in part.

Notes are Subject to Optional Redemption

The Notes are subject to optional redemption in whole by the Issuer, in accordance with article 45 of the Securitisation Law, notably article 45(2)(a) (regarding non-performing assigned credits), in certain events, as specified in Condition 9.2 (Optional Redemption in Whole for Taxation Reasons), Condition 9.3 (Junior Noteholder Put Option), and Condition 9.4 (Redemption in Whole at the Option of the Issuer (10% clean-up call)). Such optional redemption feature of Notes may limit their market value. During any period when the Issuer may elect to redeem the Notes, the market value of those Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This also may be true prior to the occurrence of the events allowing the Issuer to exercise such optional redemption. An investor may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

Ranking and Status of the Rated Notes

In accordance with the Pre-Enforcement Payment Priorities, prior to (i) the delivery of an Enforcement Notice, (ii) a redemption in whole of the Notes for taxation reasons pursuant to Condition 9.2 (Optional Redemption in whole for Taxation Reasons), or (iii) an optional redemption pursuant to Condition 9.3 (Junior Noteholder Put Option), all payments of interest due on the Class R Note will rank in priority to payments of interest due on the Rated Notes and on the Class J Notes, and all payments of interest due on the Class A Notes will rank in priority to payments of interest due on the Class B Notes and on the Class J Notes, and all payments of interest due on the Class B Notes will rank in priority to payments of interest due on the Class J Notes.

In accordance with the Pre-Enforcement Payment Priorities, prior to (i) the delivery of an Enforcement Notice, (ii) a redemption in whole of the Notes for taxation reasons pursuant to Condition 9.2 (Optional Redemption in whole for Taxation Reasons), or (iii) an optional redemption pursuant to Condition 9.3 (Junior Noteholder Put Option), all payments of principal due on the Class R Note will rank in priority to payments of principal due on the Rated Notes and on the Class J Notes, and all payments of principal due on the Class A Notes will rank in priority to payments of principal due on the Class B Notes and on the Class J Notes and all payments of principal due on the Class B Notes will rank in priority to payments of principal due on the Class J Notes.

In accordance with the Post-Enforcement Payment Priorities, after (i) the delivery of an Enforcement Notice, (ii) a redemption in whole of the Notes for taxation reasons pursuant to Condition 9.2 (Optional Redemption in whole for Taxation Reasons), or (iii) an optional redemption pursuant to Condition 9.3 (Junior Noteholder Put Option), any payments of interest due under the Class R Note will rank in priority to all payments due under the Rated Notes and the Class J Notes, payments of principal under the Class R Notes will rank in priority to all payments due under the Rated Notes and the Class J Notes (other than interest payments under the Class A Notes) and any payments of interest due on the Class A Notes will rank in priority to any payments of principal due under the Class R Note and to all payments due under the Class B Notes and the Class J Notes, and any payments due on the Class B Notes will rank in priority to payments due on the Class J Notes.

The Notes are not protected by the Deposit Guarantee Fund

Unlike a bank deposit, the Notes are not protected by the Deposit Guarantee Fund (Fundo de Garantia de Depósitos or “FGD”) or any other government savings or deposit protection scheme. The Issuer is not a participating entity in the FGD. As a result, the FGD will not pay compensation to an investor in the Notes upon any payment failure of the Issuer. If the Issuer goes out of business or becomes insolvent, Noteholders may lose all or part of their investment in the Notes.

Estimated Weighted Average Lives of the Notes

The yield to maturity of the Notes will depend on, among other things, the amount and timing of payments of principal and interest (including sale proceeds arising on the enforcement of the Receivables and the disposal of any mortgaged Properties and repurchases due to breaches of representations and warranties) on the Receivables.

Upon payments being made or other amounts collected in respect of the Receivables earlier than expected for non-performing receivables of this nature the principal repayment of the Notes may be earlier than expected and, therefore, the yield on the Notes may be adversely affected. The timing and the amount in which collections will actually be received cannot be predicted and is influenced by a wide variety of economic and other factors, including the financial and other circumstances of the Borrowers and the dynamics of the property market. As a result of these factors no assurance can be given as to the level at which the Notes will be performing during their life.

Interest rate risk

There could be a rate mismatch between interest accruing on the Rated Notes and on the Receivables Portfolio due to the fact that interest on the Receivables is calculated at a different rate from the Rated Notes.

As a result of such mismatch, an increase in the level of Six Month EURIBOR payable on the Rated Notes could adversely impact the ability of the Issuer to make payments on the Rated Notes. To reduce the effect of such interest rate mismatch, the Issuer has entered into the Cap Transaction whereby the Cap Counterparty is obliged to make payments to the Issuer if Six Month EURIBOR exceeds the rate specified in the Cap Transaction.

The notional amount with respect to the Cap Transaction will be the notional amount set forth therein for the relevant Interest Period. Noteholders should be aware that entry by the Issuer into the Cap Transaction and the Cap Transaction does not completely eliminate the interest rate risk related to the Rated Notes described above.

See for further details “Overview of Certain Transaction Documents - The Cap Transaction”.

Monies deposited in the Transaction Accounts may be subject to payment of negative interest rates by the Issuer

The Issuer will have monies deposited in the Transaction Accounts and the Issuer may be required to pay negative interest to the Accounts Bank from time to time instead of collecting positive interest from the Accounts Bank from time to time, as there are no assurances that a zero floor on interest applying to monies deposited in such accounts will apply. In result of the foregoing, or if for any other reason the Accounts Bank is not required or able to return to the Issuer the full amounts deposited in the Transaction Accounts, when due, the Issuer may not be able to meet all its payment obligations.

Changes or uncertainty in respect of EURIBOR and/or other interest rate benchmarks may affect the value or payment of interest under the notes

Various interest rate benchmarks (including the Euro Interbank Offered Rate (“EURIBOR”)) are the subject of recent national and international regulatory guidance and proposals for reform. Some of these reforms are already effective whilst others are still to be implemented including the EU Benchmark Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/1011) (the “Benchmark Regulation”).

In March 2017, the European Money Markets Institute (formerly Euribor-EBF) (the “EMMI”) published a position paper referring to certain proposed reforms to EURIBOR, which reforms aim to clarify the EURIBOR specification, to develop a transaction based methodology for EURIBOR and to align the relevant methodology with the Benchmark Regulation, the IOSCO Principles for Financial Benchmarks and other regulatory recommendations. The EMMI has since indicated that there has been a “change in market activity as a result of the current regulatory requirements and a negative interest rate environment” and “under the current market conditions it will not be feasible to evolve the current EURIBOR methodology to a fully transaction-based methodology following a seamless transition path”. It is the current intention of the EMMI to develop a hybrid methodology for EURIBOR.

These reforms and other pressures may cause one or more interest rate benchmarks to disappear entirely, to perform differently than in the past (as a result of a change in methodology or otherwise), create disincentives for market participants to continue to administer or participate in certain benchmarks or have other consequences which cannot be predicted.

Based on the foregoing, prospective investors should in particular be aware that:

- (a) any of these reforms or pressures described above or any other changes to a relevant interest rate benchmark (including EURIBOR) could affect the level of the published rate, including to cause it to be lower and/or more volatile than it would otherwise be;
- (b) if EURIBOR or any other relevant interest rate benchmark is discontinued or is otherwise unavailable, then the rate of interest on the Notes will be determined for a period by relevant the fall-back provisions, although such provisions, being dependent in part upon the provision by reference banks of offered quotations for leading banks (in the Euro-zone interbank market in the case of EURIBOR), may not operate as intended (depending on market circumstances and the availability of rates information at the relevant time); and
- (c) if EURIBOR or any other relevant interest rate benchmark is discontinued, there can be no assurance that the applicable fall-back provisions under the Cap Transaction would operate to allow the transactions under the Cap Transaction to effectively mitigate interest rate risk in respect of the Notes.

In addition, it should be noted that broadly divergent interest rate calculation methodologies may develop and apply as between the Notes and/or the Cap Transaction due to applicable fall-back provisions or other matters and the effects of this are uncertain but could include a reduction in the amounts available to the issuer to meet its payment obligations in respect of the Notes.

Moreover, any of the above matters or any other significant change to the setting or existence of EURIBOR or any other relevant interest rate benchmark could affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its obligations under the Notes and/or could have a material adverse effect on the value or liquidity of, and the amount payable under, the Notes. Changes in the manner of administration of EURIBOR or any other relevant interest rate benchmark could result in adjustment to the Conditions, early redemption, discretionary valuation by the calculation agent, delisting or other consequences in relation to the Notes. No assurance may be provided that relevant changes will not occur with respect to EURIBOR or any other relevant interest rate benchmark and/or that such benchmarks will continue to exist. Investors should consider these matters when making their investment decision with respect to the notes.

Pursuant to article 20 of the Benchmark Regulation and to Regulation (EU) 2016/1368, EURIBOR has been considered a critical benchmark, and it is therefore subject to mandatory administration, in accordance with article 21 of the Benchmark Regulation. Accordingly, the administrator of EURIBOR shall become part of the register of benchmark administrators referred to in article 36 of the Benchmark Regulation. However, as at the date of this Prospectus, the administrators of EURIBOR are not included in ESMA's register of administrators under Article 36 of the Benchmark Regulation. As far as the Issuer is aware, the transitional provisions in Article 51 including its paragraphs 1 and 3, of the Benchmark Regulation apply, such that the administrators of EURIBOR are not currently required to obtain authorisation/registration (or, if located outside the European Union, recognition, endorsement or equivalence).

Interest payable on the Notes may rank below other payments under Payment Priorities

Payments to Noteholders of each Class are made in accordance with the relevant Payment Priorities, in particular the Pre-Enforcement Payment Priorities or the Post-Enforcement Payment Priorities, as applicable on the relevant Interest Payment Date (see "Overview of the Transaction" – "Pre-Enforcement Payment Priorities" and "Overview of the Transaction" – "Post-Enforcement Payment Priorities").

For instance, on any Interest Payment Date, payments of interest to be made to the Class A Noteholders will always rank below Issuer's Tax liability payments, Common Representative's Fees and Liabilities, other Issuer Expenses, and interest due and payable under the Class R Note.

Furthermore, if, on any Interest Payment Date, there are insufficient funds to pay interest in respect of any Class of Notes (other than the Most Senior Class of Notes or the Class R Note), the interest in respect of such Class of Notes will not then be regarded as due but will instead be deferred until the next Interest Payment

Date or such date as interest in respect of such Class of Notes becomes due and repayable (the “Deferred Interest Amount Arrears”). Any Deferred Interest Amount Arrears shall bear interest from (and including) such Interest Payment Date upon which such Deferred Interest Amount Arrears is deferred to (and excluding) the date upon which the obligations of the Issuer to pay the Deferred Interest Amount Arrears is discharged. In any case, and while outstanding, the Class A Notes will always be the Most Senior Class of Notes (which does not include the Class R Note, which ranks with priority in relation to any Class of the Notes; see “Risk Factors – Ranking and Status of the Rates Notes”), and no Deferred Interest Amount Arrears mechanism will apply to them.

If the funds available are not sufficient, the Issuer may not be able, after making the payments to be made in priority thereto, to pay, in full or at all, interest due on the Notes.

Ratings are Not Recommendations and Ratings may be Lowered, Withdrawn or Qualified

There is no obligation on the part of any of the Transaction Parties under the Notes or the Transaction Documents to maintain any rating for itself or the Rated Notes. None of the Transaction Parties or any other person has assumed any obligation in case the Issuer fails to meet payments due under the Notes. A securities rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision, suspension or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating organisation. Each securities rating should be evaluated independently of any other securities rating. In the event that the ratings initially assigned to the Rated Notes are subsequently lowered, withdrawn or qualified for any reason, no person will be obliged to provide any credit facilities or credit enhancement to the Issuer for the original ratings to be restored. Any such lowering, withdrawal or qualification of a rating may have an adverse effect on the liquidity and market price of the Notes.

The Rating Agencies’ ratings address the credit risks associated with the transaction. The Rating addresses the expected loss posed to investors by the legal final maturity of the Notes.

In Moody’s opinion, the structure allows for timely payment of interest and ultimate payment of principal with respect to the Rated Notes by the Final Legal Maturity Date. Moody’s ratings address only the credit risks associated with the transaction. Other non-credit risks have not been addressed but may have a significant effect on yield to investors.

DBRS Ratings address the risk of default, being the risk that Issuer will fail to satisfy its financial obligations according to the terms under which the Rated Notes are issued. Other non-credit risks have not been addressed but may have a significant effect on yield to investors.

The Issuer notes that the Class A Notes have been assigned a rating of “BBB(sf)” by DBRS and a rating of “Baa3(sf)” by Moody’s, and the Class B Notes have been assigned a rating of “B(low)(sf)” by DBRS and a rating of “Caa3(sf)” by Moody’s. The rating of “A1” is the highest rating that Moody’s assigns to notes issued by Portuguese issuers due to the applicable country ceiling related to the rating of the Portuguese Republic.

The ratings take into consideration the characteristics of the Receivables and the structural, legal and tax aspects associated with the Rated Notes. However, the ratings assigned to the Rated Notes do not represent any assessment of the likelihood or rate of principal prepayments. The ratings do not address the possibility that the holders of the Rated Notes might suffer a lower than expected yield due to earlier collections being obtained under the Receivables.

The Issuer has not requested a rating of the Rated Notes by any rating agency other than the Rating Agencies; there can be no assurance, however, as to whether any other rating agency will rate the Rated Notes or, if it does, what rating would be assigned by such other rating agency. The rating assigned by such other rating agency to the Rated Notes could be lower than the respective ratings assigned by the Rating Agencies.

The Class J Notes and the Class R Note are unrated.

Noteholders have to rely on the procedures of Interbolsa or other clearing systems through which the Notes may be held on a secondary level by Noteholders

The Notes have been issued in book-entry form and are held through Interbolsa (or on a secondary level through other clearing systems such as Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable). Accordingly, each person owning a Note must rely on the relevant procedures of Interbolsa (or other clearing systems through which the Notes may be held on a secondary level by Noteholders, such as Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable) and, if such person is not a participant in such entities, on the procedures of the participant through which such person owns its interest, to exercise any right of a Noteholder. There can be no assurance that the procedures to be implemented by Interbolsa (or other clearing systems through which the Notes may be held on a secondary level by Noteholders, such as Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable) under such circumstances will be adequate to ensure the timely exercise of remedies under the Transaction Documents.

In addition, payments of principal and interest on, and other amounts due in respect of, the Notes will be made by the Portuguese Paying Agent. Upon availability of payment amounts by the Portuguese Paying Agent (or upon receipt of any such amounts by other clearing systems through which the Notes may be held on a secondary level by Noteholders, such as Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable), Interbolsa (or such other clearing systems) will promptly credit participants' accounts with payment in amounts proportionate to their respective ownership of Notes as shown on their records. None of the Issuer, the Common Representative, the Principal Paying Agent or the Portuguese Paying Agent or any of their agents will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to, or payments made on account of, the Notes or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such Notes.

Although Interbolsa (or other clearing systems through which the Notes may be held on a secondary level by Noteholders, such as Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable) has certain procedures in respect of the Notes, they are under no obligation to perform or continue to perform such procedures to the extent not required by law, and such procedures may be discontinued at any time. None of the Issuer, the Common Representative, the Principal Paying Agent or the Portuguese Paying Agent or any of their agents will have any responsibility for the performance by Interbolsa (or other clearing systems through which the Notes may be held on a secondary level by Noteholders, such as Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable) or their respective participants or account holders of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their operations.

RISKS RELATING TO THE ISSUER

Liquidity Risk for the Issuer and the Notes

The Issuer will be subject to the risk of delays (as compared to expected timings for receivables of this nature and any underlying assets securing such receivables) in the receipt of collections under the Receivables, including arising under disposal of Properties originally securing such Receivables (when applicable). Even though the Issuer has the ability to (and will do so if and when directed by the Monitoring Agent) invest sums standing to the credit of the Payment Account in Authorised Investments, and to use the amounts standing to the credit of the Cash Reserve Account to make interest payments on the Class A Notes (although, it should be noted that amounts available to the Issuer under the Cash Reserve Account are limited to a maximum amount), there can be no assurance that the levels or timeliness of payments of Collections (including those that may arise out of the disposal of Properties by the Asset Manager) and other recoveries received from the Receivables will be adequate to ensure fulfilment of the Issuer's obligations in respect of the Notes on each Interest Payment Date or on the Final Legal Maturity Date.

There is also a risk of mismatch between interest due on the Receivables and other recoveries received from the Receivables being determined on different bases than that on which the Interest Amount rate payable on the Notes is determined.

Additionally, the rate of return on any cash held by or on behalf of the Issuer may be lower than the rate of interest payable on the Notes.

Even though the Issuer has entered into the Cap Transaction to hedge interest rate exposure in relation to the Rated Notes, such hedging will not completely eliminate the interest rate risk related to the Rated Notes, and an increase in the level of the six-month EURIBOR could also adversely impact the ability of the Issuer to make payments on the Notes.

Segregation of Transaction Assets and the Issuer Obligations

The Notes and the obligations owing to the Transaction Creditors will have the benefit of the segregation principle provided in article 62 of the Securitisation Law. Accordingly, the Issuer Obligations are limited in recourse, in accordance with the Securitisation Law, solely to the assets owned by the Issuer which collateralise the Notes, specifically the Transaction Assets.

Both before and after an Event of Default (which includes an Insolvency Event in relation to the Issuer), the Transaction Assets will be available for satisfying the obligations of the Issuer to the Noteholders in respect of the Notes and to the Transaction Creditors pursuant to the Transaction Documents.

The Transaction Assets and all amounts deriving therefrom may not be used by any creditors of the Issuer other than the Noteholders and the Transaction Creditors and may only be used by the Noteholders and the Transaction Creditors in accordance with the terms of the Transaction Documents including the relevant Payment Priorities (see “Overview of the Transaction” – “Pre-Enforcement Payment Priorities” and “Post-Enforcement Payment Priorities”). In the event that the Issuer’s obligations are enforced, no amount will be paid in respect of any Class of Notes, until all amounts owing in respect of any Class of Notes ranking in priority to such Notes (if any) and any other amounts ranking in priority to payments in respect of such Notes have been paid in full. Therefore, any payments in respect of Class A Notes are subject to the priority of payments in respect of, inter alia, the Class R Note (see “Risk Factors – Ranking and Status of the Rated Notes”).

Equivalent provisions, as required by the Securitisation Law, will apply in relation to any other series of notes issued by the Issuer.

Ranking of Claims of Transaction Creditors and Noteholders

Both before and after an Event of Default (which includes the occurrence of an Insolvency Event in relation to the Issuer), amounts deriving from the Transaction Assets will be available for the purposes of satisfying the Issuer Obligations to the Transaction Creditors and Noteholders in priority to the Issuer’s obligations to any other creditor.

In addition, pursuant to the Common Representative Appointment Agreement, the Paying Agency and Transaction Management Agreement and the Conditions, the claims of certain Transaction Creditors will rank senior to the claims of the Noteholders in accordance with the relevant Payment Priorities (see “Overview of the Transaction” – “Pre-Enforcement Payment Priorities” and “Post-Enforcement Payment Priorities”).

Both before and after an Event of Default (which includes the occurrence of an Insolvency Event in relation to the Issuer) and the delivery of an Enforcement Notice, amounts deriving from the assets of the Issuer other than the Transaction Assets will not be available for purposes of satisfying the Issuer’s Obligations to the Noteholders and the other Transaction Creditors as they are legally segregated from the Transaction Assets.

Centre of main interests is expected to be Portugal, but if not, then Portuguese insolvency proceedings do not apply to the Issuer

The Issuer has its registered office in Portugal. As a result, there is a rebuttable presumption that its centre of main interests (“COMI”) is in Portugal and consequently that any main insolvency proceedings applicable to it would be governed by Portuguese law. In the decision by the European Court of Justice (“ECJ”) in relation to Eurofood IFSC Limited, the ECJ restated the presumption in Council Regulation (EC) No. 1346/2000, of 29 May 2000, on Insolvency Proceedings, that the place of a company’s registered office is presumed to be the company’s COMI and stated that the presumption can only be rebutted if “factors which are both objective and ascertainable by third parties enable it to be established that an actual situation exists which is different from that which locating it at the registered office is deemed to reflect”. As the Issuer has its registered office in Portugal, has mainly Portuguese-resident directors, is registered for tax in Portugal, the Issuer does not believe that factors exist that would rebut this presumption, although this would ultimately be a matter for the relevant court to decide, based on the circumstances existing at the time when it was asked to make that decision. If the Issuer’s COMI is not located in Portugal, and is held to be in a different jurisdiction within the European Union, Portuguese insolvency proceedings would not be applicable to the Issuer.

RISKS RELATING TO THE TRANSACTION PARTIES AND THE TRANSACTION

Credit Risk of the Transaction Parties

The ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations in respect of the Notes depends partially on the full and timely payments by the parties to the Transaction Documents of the amounts due to be paid thereby including, in particular, amounts arising under disposals of Properties by the Asset Manager transferred to the Asset Management Account by the Asset Manager and on the non-existence of unforeseen extraordinary expenses to be borne by the Issuer which are not already accounted for by the Rating Agencies in relation to the Transaction Documents. If any of the parties to the Transaction Documents fails to meet its payment obligations or if the Issuer has to bear the referred unforeseen extraordinary expenses, there is no assurance that the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations under the Notes will not be adversely affected or that the rating initially assigned to the Rated Notes is subsequently lowered, withdrawn or qualified.

No Fiduciary Role

None of the Issuer, the Lead Manager or any of the other parties to the Transaction Documents or any of their respective affiliates is acting as an investment advisor and none of them (other than the Common Representative) assumes any fiduciary obligation to any purchaser of the Notes.

None of the Issuer, the Lead Manager or any of the other parties to the Transaction Documents or any of their respective affiliates assumes any responsibility for conducting or failing to conduct any investigation into the business, financial condition, prospects, credit-worthiness, status and/or affairs of any other Transaction Party nor makes any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to any of these matters.

Limited rights of the Common Representative under the Transaction Documents

The Common Representative has entered into the Common Representative Appointment Agreement in order to exercise, following the occurrence of an Event of Default, certain rights on behalf of the Issuer and the Transaction Creditors (other than itself) in accordance with the terms of the Transaction Documents for the benefit of the Noteholders and the Transaction Creditors and to give certain directions and make certain requests in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions of the Transaction Documents and the Securitisation Law.

The Common Representative will not be granted the benefit of any contractual rights or any representations, warranties or covenants by the Originator or the Servicer or the Asset Manager under the Receivables Sale Agreement or the Receivables Servicing Agreement or the Asset Management Agreement but will acquire the benefit of such rights from the Issuer through the Co-ordination Agreement. Accordingly, although the Common Representative may give certain directions and make certain requests to the Originator and the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer under the terms of the Receivables Sale Agreement and the Receivables Servicing Agreement and the Asset Management Agreement, the exercise of any action by the Originator and the Servicer, in response to any such directions and requests, will be made, respectively, to and with the Issuer only and not with the Common Representative. Therefore, if an Event of Default has occurred (which includes the occurrence of an Insolvency Event in relation to the Issuer), the Common Representative may not be able to circumvent the involvement of the Issuer in this transaction by, for example, pursuing actions directly against the Originator or the Servicer or the Asset Manager under the Receivables Sale Agreement or the Receivables Servicing Agreements or the Asset Management Agreement. Although the Notes have the benefit of the segregation provided for by the Securitisation Law, the above may impair the ability of the Noteholders and the Transaction Creditors to be repaid amounts due to them in respect of the Notes and under the Transaction Documents.

The Common Representative is not obliged to act in certain circumstances

The Common Representative may, at any time, at its absolute discretion and without notice, take such proceedings, actions or steps against the Issuer or any other party to any of the Transaction Documents after the occurrence of an Event of Default as the Common Representative may think fit to enforce its rights in respect of the Notes and under the other Transaction Documents, as well as at any time, at its absolute discretion and without notice, deliver an Enforcement Notice to the Issuer.

However, the Common Representative shall not be bound to take any such proceedings, actions or steps (including, but not limited to, the giving of an Enforcement Notice in accordance with Condition 12 (Events of Default and Enforcement)) unless it shall have been directed to do so (i) by a Resolution of the holders of the Most Senior Class of Notes outstanding or (ii) in writing by the holders of at least 25% (twenty five per cent.) of the Principal Amount Outstanding of the Most Senior Class of Notes outstanding and, provided that, in each case, it shall have been indemnified and/or secured and/or pre-funded to its satisfaction against all liabilities to which it may thereby become liable or to which it may incur by so doing.

In certain events, the applicable order of priority of payments will be set out under a post-enforcement waterfall

The terms of the Notes provide that, after (i) the delivery of an Enforcement Notice, (ii) a redemption in whole of the Notes for taxation reasons pursuant to Condition 9.2 (Optional Redemption in whole for Taxation Reasons), or (iii) an optional redemption pursuant to Condition 9.3 (Junior Noteholder Put Option), payments will rank in order of priority set out under the heading “Overview of Transaction – Post-Enforcement Payment Priorities”. In the event that the Issuer’s obligations are enforced, no amount will be paid in respect of any Class of Notes until all amounts owing in respect of any Class of Notes ranking in priority to such Notes (if any) and any other amounts ranking in priority to payments in respect of such Notes have been paid in full.

Termination of the Cap Transaction may expose the Issuer to interest rate fluctuations or require additional costs in replacing the Cap Agreement

The benefits of the Cap Transaction may not be achieved in the event of the early termination of the Cap Transaction, including termination upon the failure of the Cap Counterparty to perform its obligations thereunder.

The Cap Transaction contains certain limited termination events and events of default which will entitle either party to terminate the Cap Transaction (see for further details “Overview of Certain Transaction Documents – The Cap Transaction”). In case of an early termination of the Cap Transaction, unless one or more comparable interest rate caps are entered into, the Issuer may have insufficient funds to make payments under the Notes and this may result in a downgrading of the rating of the Rated Notes.

Any collateral transferred to the Issuer by the Cap Counterparty pursuant to the Cap Transaction and any amount payable by the Issuer to the replacement cap counterparty or by the replacement cap counterparty to the Issuer (as the case may be) in order to enter into a replacement cap agreement to replace or novate the Cap Transaction (the “Replacement Cap Premium”) received by the Issuer from a replacement cap counterparty will not generally be available to the Issuer to make payments to the Noteholders and the Transaction Creditors and shall only be paid or transferred (as applicable) in accordance with the Cap Collateral Account Priority of Payments.

In the event of the insolvency of the Cap Counterparty, the Issuer will be treated as a general and unsecured creditor in respect of any claim it has for a termination amount due to it under the Cap Transaction. Consequently, the Issuer will be subject to the credit risk of the Cap Counterparty in addition to the risk of the debtors of the Receivables.

The Cap Counterparty (or its guarantor or credit support provider) is required to have certain ratings. Although contractual remedies are provided in the event of a downgrading of the Cap Counterparty, any replacement arrangement with a third party may not be as favourable as the current Cap Transaction and the Noteholders may therefore be adversely affected.

If the Cap Transaction is terminated, the Issuer will be exposed to changes in associated interest rates, and the Issuer as a result may have insufficient funds to make payments due on the Notes.

See for further details “Overview of Certain Transaction Documents - The Cap Transaction”.

Non-performing nature of the Receivables

As substantially all of the Receivables are currently non-performing loans and may be subject to insolvency or recovery proceedings, Collections arising from the Receivables may have to be pursued in the Portuguese courts under such proceedings which may involve significant delay, expenses and negotiations with the Borrowers, each of which may result in lower than anticipated recoveries. To the extent that there are lower than anticipated recoveries, the ability of the Issuer to pay the Notes in full may be adversely affected.

The recovery of overdue amounts in respect of the Receivables will be affected by the length of enforcement proceedings in respect of the Receivables, which in Portugal can take a considerable amount of time depending on the type of action required and where such action is taken. The length of the judicial proceedings together with the relevant increased legal and judicial costs negatively affect the amount of cash flow available to meet payment obligations under the Notes.

Recoveries under the Receivables are uncertain and contingent on various factors that are not controlled by the Issuer

Among the specific factors that may result in the amounts and timing of actual Collections differing from the expected recovery amounts is the unpredictability of the amount of and timing of recoveries on the Receivables, as mentioned. Since the Receivables are non-performing, the Borrowers are not making regular payments or any payments at all but the Receivables are immediately due for repayment in full because of their legal maturity or because they have been legally terminated after the occurrence of a default or event of default under the terms of the loan contract or agreement, including any agreement or document related to such contract or agreement, entered into by and between the Seller and a Borrower by which the Seller has granted the Borrower a Receivable, as amended or supplemented from time to time (each, a “Receivables Agreement”).

The amount of and timing of Collections is in part a function of the ability to negotiate restructurings or discounted pay-offs with the Borrowers or, in the case of Borrowers who are unwilling or unable to enter into and perform such transactions, the ability to enforce the underlying security (or to enforce on other available assets of the Borrowers), the timing of foreclosure proceedings in Portuguese courts and the market circumstances under which any Properties (or other Borrower assets) are sold in the context of such proceedings or, upon its acquisition by the Asset Manager, in the context of market sales of the Properties. Such actions will involve significant periods of time and expense that are difficult to predict and quantify and, particularly in respect of the Properties market sales, there is no assurance on whether such sale will be completed and under which amount. Resolution costs and the administrative and operating expenses related to servicing the Receivables will depend in part on the actual resolution strategy adopted by the relevant Servicer and any enforcement through court proceedings or forced administration will increase the related resolution costs.

In addition to existing mortgages (in the case of the Secured Receivables), there may be other prior-ranking interests such as the rights of tenants or other third-party rights, including retention rights, which may have an adverse effect on the value of the Properties or which may affect the amount for which the Properties can be sold. It is also likely that there will be certain Receivables with respect to which there will be limited, if any, Collections.

The Unsecured Receivables are not secured by mortgages and therefore the corresponding Collections may be lower when compared to the Secured Receivables and may be equal to zero in many, most or all the cases, as they may vary according to the assets of the Borrowers that are available for enforcement (or, in case of insolvency, the insolvency estate of the Borrower), the existence of security over the Borrower's assets in favour of third parties and the ranking of other creditors of the Borrower.

The Receivables Portfolio includes the receivables arising under an unsecured loan agreement granted by the Originator to Évora Asset Management Holdings DAC (see for further details "Overview of the Transaction" and "Characteristics of the Receivables Portfolio"), for the purpose of funding the purchase of the shares of the Asset Manager. The maturity of the Loan Agreement corresponds to the Final Discharge Date and therefore Collections in relation to this specific Receivable will only occur at the Final Discharge Date. Any failure or delay of Évora Asset Management Holdings DAC to repay the Loan Agreement and pay any interest due thereunder could ultimately adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its obligations to make payments due on the Notes in the Final Discharge Date.

For all the reasons described herein, a significant deterioration or delay of the expected cash flow to arise under the respective Receivables may occur, which in turn might adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to make payments on the Notes.

Special Recovery Proceeding and Insolvency Proceeding may impact the amount and timing of Collections

A debtor (an enterprise – empresa) that is in a difficult economic situation or in a situation of imminent insolvency, but proves it is economically viable (in essence, such debtor is in a distressed financial situation but an insolvency has not been declared by a court) is entitled to initiate a special recovery proceeding. This proceeding is a stand-alone urgent judicial proceedings outside of the scope of insolvency proceedings, based on out of court negotiations that shall be confirmed by a court. Said proceedings aims to promote a rehabilitation of debtors facing financial difficulties by providing a moratorium on any creditor action while a recovery plan is being agreed ("Processo Especial de Revitalização" or "PER") and is contained in the Portuguese code for the insolvency and recovery of Companies (Código de Insolvência e Recuperação de Empresas or "CIRE"). A debtor that has already been declared insolvent is not entitled to the special recovery procedure.

The special recovery proceedings commences with a joint declaration of the debtor and one or more creditors, who are not specially related to the debtor and who make up, at least, 10% of the non-subordinated claims and with a proposal of a recovery plan accompanied, at least, with the description of the debtor's financial situation (addressed to the court that is competent to open insolvency proceedings in respect of the debtor). Once the formal requirements for opening the proceedings are verified the court will automatically open the proceedings. Once the special recovery proceedings are commenced, a judicial administrator (who will supervise and control the management of the debtor's estate during the negotiations between the debtor and the creditors) will be appointed by the court and will take part in the negotiations with the debtor and the relevant credits that join the proceeding pertaining to the recovery plan. Once that appointment is made, the debtor must notify, through registered letter, all its creditors that did not partake in the initiation of the proceedings.

From thereon, at any time during the negotiations, any creditor may join this proceeding by informing the judicial administrator of their intention to participate in the negotiations. If a creditor intends to participate in the negotiations it must communicate that intention to the debtor within the timeframe of the negotiations through registered letter. In respect of secured creditors, although the plan is also binding for these creditors, the priority of their security can only be affected with their specific consent.

Any creditor that intends to join these proceedings must submit to the judicial administrator a written claim referred to as “proof of debt”. The judicial administrator will then review the claims and a list of all accepted claims will be published. From the publication of said list, the special recovery proceeding is expected to last for a two-month period (which can be extended by a month provided the judicial administrator and the debtor agree to the extension).

Approval of the recovery plan requires the vote of more than two-thirds of all of the debtor’s creditors (by value) and more than half of those votes must correspond to non-subordinated claims (by value) (creditors who abstain from voting are not counted). The quorum is calculated based on the list of claims reviewed and published by the judicial administrator. Once approved, the plan must be validated by the court and then it will be binding to all creditors of the debtor. Once the plan is validated by the court, the special recovery proceeding ends and the recovery plan must be implemented by the debtor.

While negotiations are taking place in relation to the recovery plan, no legal action claiming the payment of a debt can be commenced and similar pending actions will be suspended. If the recovery plan is validated by the judge, those actions will be considered terminated or continued (according to the provisions of the plan), and the payment of claims existing prior to the proceedings will be made according to the plan.

If the recovery plan is not approved by the required majorities mentioned above, or if no agreement is reached before it is put to the creditors’ vote, the special recovery proceedings will be closed. In case the debtor is not insolvent, the closing of the proceeding leads to the extinction of all its effects and the debtor may proceed with its activity, but it will not be entitled to the special recovery proceeding for a two-year period starting from the date that the first proceeding was closed. In case the debtor is insolvent, the closing of the proceeding leads to the declaration of insolvency of the debtor and to the opening of insolvency proceedings.

There is only one type of insolvency proceedings (processo de insolvência) available, under which a debtor can be either (i) liquidated (either in accordance with a statutory/legal regime or through an insolvency plan) or (ii) rescued pursuant to an insolvency plan. The main purpose of these insolvency proceedings is the reimbursement of its creditors and such proceedings can lead either to statutory liquidation proceedings or to the approval of an insolvency plan.

All legal enforcement actions commenced by creditors of the debtor that may affect the assets included in the insolvent estate are suspended when the insolvency proceedings are opened and no further enforcement proceedings or action to enforce security may be commenced against the debtor. Other actions that may directly or indirectly regard the insolvency estate may be annexed to the insolvency proceedings.

Once an insolvency plan has been approved, it will not be possible for any party to enforce its security (unless such enforcement is contemplated by the insolvency plan).

The declaration of insolvency will suspend any enforcement proceedings that could have been initiated against the debtor and impose a moratorium on commencement of new proceedings or enforcement of any security.

In relation to receivables which are considered secured claims under the CIRE because the creditor has in rem security over assets in the insolvency estate, the creditor will be paid with the revenues of the sale of the relevant secured asset, provided no privileged creditor ranks with priority over it.

Should any Borrower enter into a special recovery proceeding or if insolvency proceedings are opened, payments due by such relevant Borrower may be suspended (while negotiations are taking place) or part of its debts may be written-down. The impact of such proceedings, and their respective impact on timing and amount of Collections deriving from the Receivables may not be predicted. If any of such circumstances occur, this can affect the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes and the Transaction Documents.

Delays on the enforcement in respect of the Receivables may affect the ability of the Issuer to timely honour its payment obligations under the Notes

In order to request enforcement of the security (if any) of any property, a creditor must have an enforcement document to validate its request, for instance a condemnatory decision. Once the creditor has such proper enforcement document, an enforcement proceeding may be initiated.

The enforcement proceedings may include several stages, including the opposition by the debtor. In case an opposition is submitted and accepted, parallel proceedings are opened to decide on the opposition. Generally, the opposition, even if accepted by an enforcement judge, will not suspend the enforcement proceedings. An enforcement judge will then decide if the opposition is valid. If the judge decides said opposition to be valid, it shall determine the termination of the enforcement proceedings; if not the enforcement shall continue, in case it had been suspended.

The obligation is then enforced through the seizure of assets of the debtor. If the debt enforced is secured by a mortgage or a pledge, the enforcement measures begin with the seizure of such asset. It is convenient that the creditor indicates the mortgaged / pledged assets securing the debt in the enforcement request. If no security exists or if the creditor does not indicate the assets, in order to initiate the seizure, an enforcement agent conducting such process will take proper measures to find assets that can be seized.

The seizure may be suspended upon the opposition by the debtor to the seizure of certain assets if the debtor pays for the proper deposit but in this case, it shall only suspend the seizure of said assets.

Creditors with registered and known rights over the asset to be seized may claim their credits. The enforcement judge will then analyse the claimed credits and, if necessary, rank them in accordance. However, it must be noted that the creditor (even if beneficiary of the mortgage asset) does not have the right to take possession or become owner of the asset (foreclosure) by virtue of enforcement of the mortgage, being only entitled to be paid in accordance with the payment procedures foreseen in the Portuguese law.

In parallel with the opposition and seizure process (and if no deposit has been made to suspend the proceeding, as mentioned above), the enforcement agent may promote the judicial sale of the relevant assets, if necessary. The sale process is organised by the enforcement agent but in respect of the sale properties, the applicable law determines that it shall be preferentially made by means of electronic auction without any real estate companies involved. However, if no offer is presented or no offer is accepted and there are no other creditors ranking above a secured creditor, the enforcement agent will move on to the sale by private negotiation process. A creditor holding a right in rem security may opt to request the adjudication of the property as payment of its credits.

Even assuming that the Properties provide adequate security for the Secured Receivables, delays could be encountered in connection with the described enforcement and recovery of such Receivables, resulting in corresponding delays in the receipt of related Collections by the Issuer (see “Selected Aspects of Portuguese Law relevant to the Receivables Portfolio” - “Enforcement Proceedings” for a detailed description of the enforcement proceedings).

Delays in connection with the described enforcement and recovery of Receivables can affect the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes and the Transaction Documents.

Out-of-court legal procedure for the recovery of companies may have negative effects on the timing of Recoveries

A new out-of-court legal procedure for the recovery of companies — RERE (“Regime Extrajudicial de Recuperação de Empresas”) — aims to regulate the terms and effects of a restructuring agreement negotiated and entered into between a debtor that is in financial distress or imminently insolvent and one or more of its creditors. It also regulates the effects of the negotiations the parties may enter into towards the reaching of such agreement. The negotiation of the restructuring agreement may only be submitted to the RERE if it is entered into by creditors that represent 15% per cent. of the debtors unsecured liabilities. Moreover, in order to successfully submit the negotiations to the RERE the debtor must present a negotiation protocol and a declaration of a certified auditor issued in the 30 (thirty) days before.

The negotiation protocol must contain (i) the identification of the debtor, (ii) the deadline of the negotiations, (iii) the total amount of the debtor’s liabilities, (iv) and indication of who is responsible for the cost arising from the negotiation process, (v) an agreement from the creditors to, within the negotiation period abstain from initiating any judicial proceedings against the debtor and (vi) signatures and date.

Except if unanimously agreed upon by the debtor and the creditors, the negotiations are confidential.

The negotiations end either with (i) the deposit of the restructuring agreement, (ii) the deposit of the declaration where the debtor states that the negotiations were terminated with an agreement, (iii) if the debtor is deemed insolvent during the period of the negotiations. The termination of the negotiations must be registered and publicized with an indication of the cause.

The agreement – which must be in writing in a single document and contain (i) a declaration by a certified auditor that the debtor is not insolvent, certifying the amount of its liabilities and (ii) a list of all pending proceedings moved by participating creditors – binds only on the signatory parties and may only modify the creditors’ claims and the securities they benefit from in the strict terms set forth therein.

The participation in the agreement is voluntary and its content is freely established by the parties. It can restructure all or just part of the claims held by the participant creditors. No judge will confirm its content. The content of the agreement will only rely on the parties.

The deposit of the agreement implicates the extinction of any judicial proceedings regarding credits comprised in it.

Should the agreement envisage the alteration of any pre-existing guarantees, the consent of the beneficiaries is needed.

Should the parties to the agreement expressly and unanimously decide to deposit the agreement with the Commercial Registry Office and provided that a statutory auditor formally certifies that through that agreement the debtor restructures at least 30% of its liabilities and that, as a result of such agreement, it achieves positive equity and its equity results superior to its share capital, it will benefit from a more favourable tax treatment, as set forth in sections 268 to 270 of the Portuguese Insolvency Code.

Although the RERE is primarily addressed to non-insolvent companies, exceptionally and temporarily, within the 18 months after the entering into force of the RERE regime, a debtor that is technically insolvent may still make use of this special regime, instead of filing for its insolvency.

Unless the participants agree to give it publicity, the restructuring agreement will be strictly confidential. The confidentiality must be waived to the extent necessary to stay pending judicial procedures, if the parties so agree.

The impact of the above procedure, and its respective impact on timing and amount of Collections deriving from the Receivables may not be predicted. If any of such circumstances occur, this can affect the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes.

Consumer Protection laws may require changes to the terms of a loan or relieve a Borrower of its obligations thereunder

Portuguese law (namely the Portuguese Constitution, the Código Civil, enacted by Decree-Law no. 47344, of 25 November 1966, as amended from time to time (the “Portuguese Civil Code”) and the Lei de Defesa do Consumidor enacted by Law no. 24/96, of 31 July 1996 (as amended) (the Law for Consumer Protection)) contains general provisions in relation to consumer protection. These provisions cover general principles of information disclosure, information transparency (contractual clauses must be clear, precise and legible) and a general duty of diligence, neutrality and good faith in the negotiation of contracts.

Decree-Law no. 446/85, of 25 October 1985, as amended by Decree-Law no. 220/95, of 31 August 1995, Decree-Law no. 249/99, of 7 July 1999 (which implemented Directive 93/13/CEE, of 5 April 1993) and Decree-Law no. 323/2001, of 17 December 2001, known as the Lei das Cláusulas Contratuais Gerais (the Law of General Contractual Clauses) prohibits, in general terms, the introduction of abusive clauses in contracts entered into with consumers. Pursuant to this law, a clause is in general deemed to be abusive if such clause has not been specifically negotiated by the parties and leads to an unbalanced situation insofar as the rights and obligations of the consumer (regarded as the weaker party) and the rights and obligations of the counterparty (regarded as the stronger party) are concerned in violation of contractual good faith. The introduction of clauses that are prohibited will cause such clauses to be considered null and void.

Decree-Law no. 133/2009, of 2 June 2009 (which implemented Directive EC/2008/48), as amended, which governs consumer loan contracts sets forth relevant regulations for consumer protection by establishing that a contract is deemed to be null and void if mandatory information is not included in the written agreement, including inter alia if (i) it does not disclose the annual percentage rate of charge (the Taxa Anual de Encargos Efetiva Global which shall be calculated in accordance to the criteria set out on Annex I of Decree-Law 133/2009, of 2 June 2009) related to the loan in question; and (ii) it does not inform the obligor of the existence of a mandatory free termination period of 14 (fourteen) calendar days from signing thus allowing the consumer to revoke the contract during such period. Regarding early repayment fees, Decree-Law no. 133/2009, of 2 June 2009, establishes that the creditor’s compensation due by the obligors following the exercise of the right of early repayment is capped at 0.5% (zero point five per cent) of the principal repaid (or 0.25% zero point twenty-five per cent. in the event the repayment is performed less than one year from the date of termination of the agreement).

Decree-Law no. 67/2003, of 8 April (which implemented Directive 1999/44/CE of 25 May), as amended, deals with the sale of assets to consumer and related guarantees with a view to ensure the protection of consumers. This decree law entitles the consumer to demand repair or substitution of the asset, a price reduction or the termination of the contract when the underlying asset does not meet the criteria set out therein (for example, does not comply with the description made in the relevant contract or its characteristics and performance are not those that a consumer could reasonably expect). These rights must be exercised in the two years commencing on the date of delivery of the asset which can be reduced to one year in case of used assets and if so agreed between the parties.

Decree-Law no. 227/2012, of 25 October, established the principles and rules which credit institutions must comply with in respect of the prevention and remediation of default by banking clients and creates the out-of-court framework to support such clients in the context of the remediation of such situations by establishing an action plan regarding the risk of default (Plano de Acção para o Risco de Incumprimento - PARI) and an out-of-court procedure for the remediation of default situations (Procedimento Extrajudicial de Regularização de Situações de Incumprimento - PERSI).

The foregoing should not be viewed as an exhaustive description of the provisions which could be invoked in respect of consumer protection. Although the Originator has represented and warranted to the Issuer that the Receivables comply with all applicable Portuguese laws, there can be no assurance that a judicial or arbitral court in Portugal would not apply the relevant consumer protection laws to vary the terms of a loan or to relieve a Borrower of its obligations thereunder.

If any of such circumstances occurs, this can affect the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes.

Uncertainty of net cash flows

Each Servicer has made a business plan in respect of relevant Receivables subject to their servicing services (see “Business Plans for the Receivables Portfolio”). These business plans have been prepared by each Servicer taking into account, inter alia, the Receivables amount, the value of the underlying real estate assets, the status of any relevant judicial proceedings and the legal costs that may be incurred in the recovery process and certain other specific costs related to the Receivables.

However, there could be other costs which may be incurred in respect of the Receivables and which have not been taken into account for the purpose of preparing these business plans.

Each business plan is based on certain judgments, assumptions and estimates about, inter alia, future economic events, prospects for the property market, the amounts recoverable on the Receivables, the time it takes to such recoveries, the assumed continued operations of the Servicers and the disposal strategies projected by each Servicer and has been prepared exclusively in order to constitute a base for the calculation of each Servicer’s fees and any other calculation set forth in the Transaction Documents. Such assumptions relate to a complex series of independent events and are to a significant degree subjective. Actual results will be affected by many factors outside the control of the Servicers or the Issuer so that none of the Issuer, the Servicers, the Lead Manager nor any other Transaction Party will make any representation or warranties on the collectability of the Receivables. The business plans should not be construed as either projections or predictions on the Receivables Portfolio’s performance or as legal, tax, financial, investment or accounting advice. The performance of the Receivables Portfolio cannot be predicted, because a large number of factors cannot be determined.

In addition, recoveries in respect of the Receivables depend primarily on the timing of foreclosure actions, the ability of each Servicer to effect out of court settlements and/or assignments of the Receivables, the conditions of the Portuguese real estate market and of the Portuguese economy generally.

These events, alone or in combination, may result in lower than anticipated recoveries and/or net cash flows which in turn may adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes.

No Independent Investigation in relation to the Receivables

None of the Issuer, the Lead Manager, the Transaction Manager, the Common Representative or any other Transaction Party (other than the Originator, the Servicers and, only to the extent of its specific attributions under the Monitoring Agent Appointment Agreement and to the period as from the Closing Date, the Monitoring Agent – see “Overview of Certain Transaction Documents – Monitoring Agent Appointment Agreement”) has undertaken or will undertake any investigations, searches or other actions in respect of any Borrower, the Receivables or any historical information relating to the Receivables and each will rely instead on the representations and warranties made by the Originator in relation thereto set out in the Receivables Sale Agreement.

In accordance with the Monitoring Agent Appointment Agreement, the Monitoring Agent will have limited obligations to examine and monitor the servicing and performance of the Receivables. Any such obligations apply only as from the Closing Date and will therefore not comprise any investigation, searches or other actions prior to the Closing Date. The examination and monitoring activities of the Monitoring Agent in respect of the Receivables include, inter alia, (i) audits to samples of invoices of costs and expenses incurred by the relevant Servicer in the recovery activities of the Receivables and by real estate brokers in the recovery activities; (ii) audits to samples of Receivables per each Servicer deemed material, in order to verify if there are any irregularities or inconsistencies which would lead to stop taking further enforcement or collection actions by the relevant Servicer; (iii) audits to a sample of Receivables per each Servicer in order to verify if the enforcement or collection actions have stopped where required and the irregularities or inconsistencies identified have been submitted to the Servicing Committee; (iv) calculations relating to the Cumulative Collection Ratio, the NPV Cumulative Profitability Ratio and the interest paid on the Class A Notes, for the purposes of the assessing the potential trigger of a Subordination Event; (v) examination of the reports produced by the Servicers and drafting of a report on the servicing and performance of the Receivables and the Receivables Recovery Expenses; (vi) monitoring any potential or actual conflicts of interest between the Servicers and the Issuer.

Receivables which have undergone such a limited investigation may be subject to matters which would have been revealed by a full investigation of title, validity and enforceability which may have been remedied or, if incapable of remedy, may have resulted, in the Receivables not being accepted as Receivables under the Transaction or in the Properties not being accepted as security for a Receivable, had such matters been revealed.

In the case of a breach of any of the representations or warranties given by the Seller in the Receivables Sale Agreement, which have a Material Adverse Effect on the existence, validity or enforceability (or the cost of such enforceability) of the Receivables and is not capable of remedy or is not remedied within 30 Business Days of being notified by the Issuer, the Issuer's sole remedies in respect of a breach of any such Seller's Representations and Warranties will be to claim damages for breach of that Seller's Representation and Warranty and require that the Seller repurchases the Affected Receivable in accordance with the terms provided for in article 45/2 of the Portuguese Securitisation Law.

Issuer's claims are enforceable for a limited period of time, in particular within 24 (twenty-four months) after the Closing Date, and therefore if the Issuer becomes aware of a breach of such representations following the period available thereof, the Issuer will not be entitled to claim indemnity by the Originator.

There can be no assurance that the Seller will honour or have the financial resources to meet its obligations to pay any payment of damages in respect of a breach of a Seller's Representation and Warranty or the obligation to repurchase the Affected Receivables pursuant to the terms of the Receivables Sale Agreement. This may affect the quality of the Receivables and accordingly the ability of the Issuer to make payments due on the Notes. (See for further details "Risk Factors – Reliance on the Seller's Representations and Warranties").

Credit Risk of the Asset Manager

On the Closing Date, certain Secured Receivables were assigned by the Originator to the Issuer and by the Issuer to the Asset Manager (in this case, for a purchase price of €72,366,771.76 plus accrued interest up to the date of payment at an annual rate of 4 per cent.), and thereafter further Secured Receivables may be transferred by the Issuer to the Asset Manager. As at 31 May 2018, the Secured Receivables assigned to the Asset Manager constitute 903 security interests over properties with the total expected collections of €69,229,027.35, which corresponds to 34.7% of the overall expected collections in relation to the secured part of the Receivables Portfolio.

In addition, any Seller Allocated Properties included in the Receivables Portfolio that, after the Closing Date, are awarded to the Seller under the relevant enforcement Court Proceeding or transferred to the Seller via payment in lieu (dação em cumprimento) by the relevant Borrower will be transferred by the Seller to the Asset Manager (whereas the Seller's consideration for such transfer has already been paid by the Issuer to the Seller as part of the purchase price paid by the Issuer to the Seller for the Receivables Portfolio under the Receivables Sale Agreement, the Asset Manager will pay to the Issuer a purchase price per each Seller Allocated Property equal to the Gross Recovery Value plus accrued interest up to the date of payment at an annual rate of 4 per cent.). As at 31 May 2018, the Seller Allocated Properties assigned to the Asset Manager amount to approx. 2.09% in relation to the Secured Receivables of the Receivables Portfolio.

Accordingly, and from each relevant transfer, any such Secured Receivables and Seller Allocated Properties form part or will form part, as the case may be, of the Asset Manager's estate and are legally held, or will be legally held, as the case may be, by it, while any purchase price for the assignment of such Secured Receivables or Seller Allocated Properties is payable by the Asset Manager to the Issuer on a deferred basis upon the Asset Manager raising funds to make such payment, such funds being generally raised through (i) the sale of the Seller Allocated Properties or the Properties securing the Secured Receivables, (ii) awarded or otherwise acquired by the Asset Manager under or in connection with enforcement proceedings of the Secured Receivables or (iii) other recoveries in respect of such Secured Receivables.

The Asset Manager is an ordinary commercial company not subject to the supervision of CMVM or any other regulatory authority with the sole purpose of holding the alluded Secured Receivables and performing the actions required from it as described in this Prospectus. Therefore, under its articles of association, the Asset Manager is not permitted to carry out any activity other than the holding of the alluded Secured Receivables and the performance of the actions required from it as described in this Prospectus (See "Overview of Certain Transaction Documents – Asset Management Agreement").

Accordingly, the Asset Manager is not expected to have any creditors other than the Portuguese Republic in respect of tax liabilities, if any, and the Transaction Parties with whom it has entered any Transaction Document or otherwise in the terms set forth in any such Transaction Document.

The limited number of general creditors that the Asset Manager may have assuming the above makes its insolvency a remote possibility.

There are contractual arrangements in place to ensure that such Secured Receivables are held by the Asset Manager for the benefit of the Transaction Creditors (See "Overview of Certain Transaction Documents – Asset Management Agreement", in particular the paragraphs entitled "Consultation with the Issuer, the Common Representative and the Monitoring Agent" and "Corporate Status of the Asset Manager").

Specifically, a number of contractual mechanisms, namely under the Asset Management Agreement, have been put in place to preserve the integrity of the Asset Manager, and the assets held by it, for the purposes of this securitisation transaction, to minimise the risk of the Asset Manager's insolvency and mitigate the risk of third party claims being made against the Asset Manager and/or its assets, as follows:

- to transfer any and all amounts (up to the Purchase Price or Transfer Price, as applicable, due by the Asset Manager to the Issuer) received in the Asset Manager Account, with respect to the sale or disposal of any Property, to the Payment Account on a daily basis (which is in the name of the Issuer), as a way to mitigate the risk of sale proceeds remaining in the Asset Manager's legal estate for a longer period;
- to limit its activities to the performance of its obligations as Asset Manager under the Asset Manager Agreement, and not to carry out any other activity, nor assume any further obligations apart from its obligations under the Asset Management Agreement;
- not to create any encumbrance, charge, lien or collateral or any other form of security on any of the Asset Manager's assets, or the Receivables or the Properties; and
- not to issue any new notes, bonds, indenture or any other form of debt security, and to not incur in any financial or trade indebtedness or grant any loan, or group of loans, until (and including) the Final Discharge Date.

Further to the exclusive corporate purpose of the company, the Asset Manager's by-laws provide for limitations on the company's activity, including, (i) obtaining any financing over a certain amount or the granting of security over any of its assets is subject to approval by the shareholders' general meeting, and (ii) the distribution of any financial results is limited under the by-laws, and can only be done upon a decision approved by the majority of the shareholders.

However, under the Asset Management Agreement, (i) the Asset Manager undertakes not to incur in any financial or trade indebtedness or grant any loan, or group of loans, until (and including) the Final Discharge Date, and (ii) the Shareholder agrees that no dividends or any other form of equity distributions may occur until (and including) the Final Discharge Date. The Shareholder has also pledged its shares in favour of the Issuer, under the Share Pledge Agreement, to secure its obligations under the Asset Management Agreement, including under limb (ii) above and the Shareholder's obligation not to create any encumbrance, charge, lien or collateral or any other form of security over the shares it holds in the share capital of the Asset Manager or over any of the Asset Manager's assets, including any of the Receivables or the Properties.

Without prejudice to the above, in the event that the Asset Manager becomes insolvent, the Secured Receivables held by the Asset Manager will not benefit from the privileged credit entitlement foreseen under the Securitisation Law for Receivables held by the Issuer and, accordingly, there can be no assurance that, upon the insolvency of the Asset Manager, the structure that has been implemented will ensure that they will benefit from the statutory segregation and the privileged credit entitlement foreseen in the Securitisation Law.

Any failure or delay of the Asset Manager in selling the Properties or transferring to the Issuer any Collections and Realisation Values, the Purchase Price due in respect of the assigned Receivables and Seller Allocated Properties, or any other amounts due to be paid by the Asset Manager to the Issuer under the Asset Management Agreement could ultimately adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its obligations to make payments due on the Notes.

Real estate investments

Certain of the Receivables are secured by real estate assets and subject to the risks inherent in investments in or secured by real property. Such risks include adverse changes in national, regional or local economic and demographic conditions in Portugal and in real estate values generally as well as in interest rates, real estate tax rates, other operating expenses, inflation, the supply of and demand for properties of the type involved, governmental rules and policies (including environmental restrictions and changes in land use) and competitive conditions (including construction of new competing properties) all of which may affect the value of the real estate assets and the collections and recoveries generated by them. There can be no assurance as to the amount of time it will take for a foreclosure process with respect to a real estate asset to be completed or as to the timing of collections in respect of the Receivables secured by real estate assets. There is the risk that an enforcement proceeding may take several years to be completed or settled, which may adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet in time its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes.

The performance of investments in real estate has historically been cyclical. In addition, the purchase price of a real estate asset in the context of a foreclosure procedure is typically significantly lower than the relevant market value, so there can be no assurance that the market value of the Properties and the sale of the Properties by the Asset Manager correspond to the amount owed by the Borrowers under the corresponding loan agreement. If the market value of the Properties and the sale of the Properties by the Asset Manager is less than the amount owed by the Borrowers under the corresponding loan agreement it may adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes.

Geographical concentration of the Transaction Assets

The security for the Notes may be affected by, among other things, a decline in real estate values. No assurance can be given that the values of the Transaction Assets have remained, will remain or will increase from their levels on the dates of origination of the related Receivables. The real estate market in Portugal in general or in any particular region may from time to time experience a decline in economic conditions and housing markets than in other regions and, consequently, may experience higher rates of loss and delinquency on mortgage loans generally. Although the Borrowers are located throughout Portugal, the Borrowers may be concentrated in certain locations, such as densely populated areas. Any deterioration in the economic condition of the areas in which the Borrowers are located, or any deterioration in the economic condition of other areas that causes an adverse effect on the ability of the Borrowers to repay the Receivables could increase the risk of losses on the Transaction Assets. A concentration of Borrowers in such areas may therefore result in a greater risk of loss than would be the case if such concentration had not been present. Such losses, if they occur, could have an adverse effect on the yield to maturity of the Notes as well as on the repayment of principal and interest due on the Notes.

Reliance on liquidation and sale proceeds for payments on the Notes

As described herein, certain Receivables are secured by mortgages over real estate assets, which will either be sold in the context of the foreclosure procedures as market conditions permit or acquired (adjudicados) by the creditor in the proceeding for onwards disposal in the market.

As a result, payments on the Notes are to a very significant extent expected to come from liquidation and sale proceeds of real estate assets. The cash flow realised on the sale of the real estate assets depends, among several other factors, on the Asset Manager's and Secured Servicer's skill and diligence in servicing the Receivables secured by real estate assets and managing the foreclosure and disposition process, the local real estate market for each such real estate asset and the value of the related real estate assets. In addition, as referred herein, current market conditions and other factors (such as the length of the relevant foreclosure procedure) may cause substantial delays in the ability to foreclose upon the real estate assets and may adversely affect the amount of proceeds received in respect of a real estate asset.

There can be no assurance as to the amount of time it will take for the Asset Manager and the Secured Servicer to complete the foreclosure process with respect to a real estate asset or as to the timing of collections in respect of the Receivables secured by a real estate asset.

Procedural expenses may be disproportionate and will reduce proceeds available for payments on the Notes

Liquidation expenses with respect to Receivables do not necessarily vary directly with the unpaid principal balance of the Receivables. Therefore, assuming that each Servicer took the same steps in foreclosing or collecting/recovering a Receivable having a small remaining unpaid principal balance as it would have taken in the case of a Receivable having a large remaining unpaid principal balance, the amount realized after expenses of foreclosure or collection/recovery process would be smaller as a percentage of the unpaid principal balance or value of real estate asset backing the Receivable having a small remaining unpaid principal balance or value than would be the case with the Receivable or real estate asset backing the Receivable having a large remaining unpaid principal balance or value, as applicable, which may not be the case.

Such expenses such as judicial and legal fees, real estate taxes, real estate broker fees and maintenance and preservation expenses will reduce the portion of liquidation proceeds available for payment on the Notes.

Asset Manager Tax Framework

On the Issue Date, some of the Secured Receivables were assigned to the Asset Manager (in this case, for a purchase price of €72,366,771.76 plus accrued interest up to the date of payment at an annual rate of 4 per cent.), and the remaining Secured Receivables may be assigned to the Asset Manager during the life of the Notes. Accordingly, and from such transfer, any such Secured Receivables form part of the Asset Manager's estate and are legally held by it, while any purchase price for the assignment of such Secured Receivables by the Issuer is payable by the Asset Manager to the Issuer on a deferred basis upon the Asset Manager raising funds to make such payment (see below) As an assignee of the Secured Receivables, the Asset Manager will become the relevant creditor and may acquire Properties (which are securing the relevant Secured Receivables) from time to time (by way of bidding and being awarded the relevant Properties in the relevant legal proceedings, being awarded the relevant Properties as creditor when no bids from third parties are available or meet the relevant criteria, including minimum price, or otherwise, including transfer in lieu of payment by the relevant Borrower). The Asset Manager, assisted by the Secured Servicer, will then manage the Properties in order to place and sell them in the real estate market. Accordingly, the funds out of which the Asset Manager will to make payments of deferred purchase price amounts, will generally be raised through (i) the sale of the Seller Allocated Properties or the Properties securing the Secured Receivables, (ii) awarded or otherwise acquired by the Asset Manager under or in connection with enforcement proceedings of the Secured Receivables or (iii) other recoveries in respect of such Secured Receivables.

The Asset Manager was incorporated as a limited liability company and its commercial scope is the acquisition of real estate for subsequent resale and, on the Issue Date, meets such other requirements for operating as a company for purchase and resale of real state (sociedade de compra para revenda) and thus benefiting from the special tax regime applicable to such companies.

This means that, and subject to retention of such requirements each year, Properties acquired by the Asset Manager are exempt from Municipal Transaction Tax (Imposto Municipal sobre as Transações Onerosas de Imóveis – “IMT”). The IMT is based on a range of rates up to 6.5% (six point five per cent.) (depending on the nature and type of the asset) applicable to the higher of the acquisition price or the tax property value (valor patrimonial tributário) of the Property. There are certain additional requirements for such IMT exemption, including that the relevant Property must be resold to a third party (that is not also a company for purchase and resale) within 3 (three) years from acquisition and in the same conditions as it was acquired.

Accordingly, there is the risk that the Asset Manager will not be able to successfully place and resell the relevant Properties within the 3 (three) year period from the acquisition, in which case it will be liable to pay IMT. In such case, the Asset Manager should request the assessment of the IMT (which will be assessed according to the provisions in force at that time) and bear the cost of the tax due. If this circumstance materialises, and notably if it materialises for a significant amount of real estate (taking into account that the tax exemption mentioned applies on an asset-per-asset basis), this may affect the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes and the Transaction Documents.

Additionally, the Municipal Property Tax (Imposto Municipal sobre Imóveis – “IMI”), which otherwise could go up to 0.45% (zero point forty-five per cent.) p.a. (depending on the relevant municipality) of the tax property value (valor patrimonial tributário) of the Property, is suspended for 3 (three) years as from the relevant acquisition of the Property. If the Property is not resold within such timeframe, IMI will become due in subsequent years, until the resale has taken place.

Accordingly, there is the risk that the Asset Manager may not be able to successfully place and resell the relevant Properties within a 3 (three) years period since the acquisition, in which case it will be liable to pay the IMI tax. If any such circumstance materialises, and notably if it materialises for a significant amount of real estate, this may affect the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes and the Transaction Documents.

Additionally, there is no assurance that the tax legislation will not change or that the Portuguese tax authorities will keep their currently publicly known or other views or will not change any such views as to the scope of the current legislation, either more generally or in respect of specified entities and their related circumstances, including the Asset Manager and this securitisation. In the event of tax law changes or as a result of any positions taken by the Portuguese tax authorities or of any court decisions the Asset Manager is deemed to fall outside the above IMT exemption and/or the above IMI suspension, this may require the Issuer or the Asset Manager to become liable to IMT or IMI. If any of such circumstances occur, this may affect the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes and the Transaction Documents.

Furthermore, a recent legal amendment foresees that an additional to IMI also applies to the sum of the tax property value (valor patrimonial tributário) of real estate for living purposes held at a rate of 0.4% (zero point four per cent.) p.a.. Given the lack of clarity of the law and scarcity of precedents, it cannot be excluded that the Portuguese tax authorities or courts may take the view that it applies as well within such 3 (three) year period. If this circumstance materialises, and notably if it materialises for a significant amount of real estate, this may affect the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes and the Transaction Documents.

Finally, it should be noted that the transfer of property title over Properties will always triggers 0.8% (zero point eight per cent.) stamp duty (imposto de selo) on the higher of the acquisition price or the tax property value (valor patrimonial tributário) of the Property, unless a legally specified exemption applies, namely in case of transfer in lieu of payment (dação em cumprimento) of Property's pertaining to a debtor declared insolvent by court. The same exemption applies to IMT, if it is due. The Issuer cannot predict how many (and if any) acquisitions of Properties by the Asset Manager fall within such exemption, and thus the actual impact which the availability of such exemption may have on the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes and the Transaction Documents.

Asset Manager Deferred Purchase Price

On the Issue Date, some of the Secured Receivables have been assigned to the Asset Manager and the remaining Secured Receivables may be assigned to the Asset Manager during the life of the Notes.

In respect of the Secured Receivables assigned by the Issuer to the Asset Manager on the Closing Date, and in accordance with the Asset Management Agreement and the letter agreement dated the Closing Date between the parties to the Asset Management Agreement, the relevant purchase price was equal to the aggregate amount of €72,366,771.76 (seventy two million, three hundred and sixty six thousand and seven hundred and seventy one euros and seventy six cents) plus accrued interest up to the date of payment at an annual rate of 4% (four per cent.). Such purchase price will be payable by the Asset Manager to the Issuer on a deferred basis upon the Asset Manager raising funds to make such payment, such funds being generally raised through (i) the sale of the Seller Allocated Properties or the Properties securing the Secured Receivables, (ii) awarded or otherwise acquired by the Asset Manager under or in connection with enforcement proceedings of the Secured Receivables or (iii) other recoveries in respect of such Secured Receivables.

In respect of the Secured Receivables assigned by the Issuer to the Asset Manager after the Closing Date, the relevant purchase price will be equal to the Gross Recovery Value (as defined below) plus accrued interest up to the date of payment at an annual rate of 4% (four per cent.). Such purchase price will be payable by the Asset Manager to the Issuer on a deferred basis upon the Asset Manager raising funds to make such payment (notably, by selling Properties in the market or other recoveries).

In respect of each Seller Allocated Property assigned on or after the Closing Date under the Asset Management Agreement, the relevant purchase price will be equal to the Gross Recovery Value (as defined below) plus accrued interest up to the date of payment at an annual rate of 4% (four per cent.). Such purchase price will be payable by the Asset Manager to the Issuer on a deferred basis upon the Asset Manager raising funds to make such payment (notably, by selling Properties in the market or other recoveries).

“Gross Recovery Value” means the recovery amounts for each of the Receivables forecasted by the Secured Servicer, as identified in Schedule 12 (Gross Recovery Value) of the Asset Management Agreement.

As an assignee of the Secured Receivables, the Asset Manager will become the relevant creditor and may acquire Properties (which are securing the relevant Secured Receivables) from time to time (by way of bidding and being awarded the relevant Properties in the relevant legal proceedings, being awarded the relevant Properties as creditor when no bids from third parties are available or meet the relevant criteria, including minimum price, or otherwise, including transfer in lieu of payment by the Borrower). The Asset Manager, assisted by the Secured Servicer, will then manage the Properties in order to place and sell them in the real estate market.

Due to market conditions or otherwise, it may not be possible to place and sell the Properties in the market in such terms as expected, including delays in closing the relevant transactions and/or closing for lower prices than envisaged in the business plan prepared by the Secured Servicer pursuant to the Secured Servicing Agreement. If any of such circumstances occur, and notably if they materialise for a significant amount of real estate, this may affect the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes and the Transaction Documents.

Additionally, and even though there are contractual measures in place, including a financial pledge on the Asset Manager's shares securing the performance of its obligations to the benefit of the Noteholders, to mitigate insolvency and breach of contract risk of the Asset Manager, there is no assurance that the Asset Manager might not become insolvent or breach its material obligations vis-à-vis the Issuer, which may impact the transfer of part or any deferred purchase price remaining to be paid from time to time to the Issuer. If any of such circumstances occur, this may affect the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes and the Transaction Documents.

Formalities to be complied with after the Receivables assignment to the Issuer

On the Issue Date, some of the Secured Receivables were assigned to the Asset Manager, and the remaining Secured Receivables may be assigned to the Asset Manager during the life of the Notes. The assignment will become effective on the relevant assignment date, upon the execution of the relevant assignment documentation. Accordingly, and from such transfer, any such Secured Receivables form part of the Asset Manager's estate and are legally held by it, while any purchase price for the assignment of such Secured Receivables by the Issuer is payable by the Asset Manager to the Issuer on a deferred basis upon the Asset Manager raising funds to make such payment, such funds being generally raised through (i) the sale of the Seller Allocated Properties or the Properties securing the Secured Receivables, (ii) awarded or otherwise acquired by the Asset Manager under or in connection with enforcement proceedings of the Secured Receivables or (iii) other recoveries in respect of such Secured Receivables.

However, in order for the assignment to become effective vis-à-vis third parties, and notably to allow the Asset Manager to become the relevant empowered creditor in the relevant legal proceedings where payment on the Secured Receivables is being sought, the relevant mortgage registration with the relevant real estate registration office needs to be updated (and for which purposes it needs also do be updated to register first the assignment from the Originator to the Issuer), upon completion of which the Asset Manager may then file its empowerment application (incidente de habilitação) with the relevant court.

The process for requesting and obtaining these registration and procedural steps has been initiated. The relevant assignment notices, in relation to the assignment from Seller to Issuer, and thereafter from Issuer to Asset Manager, have been executed pursuant to the Transaction Documents, by the Originator and by the Issuer, as appropriate. In addition, the process of updating the mortgages registration, to the name of the Issuer and/or the Asset Manager, as applicable, has been initiated by means of filing all relevant requests with the Portuguese land registry office. The timing for completion of such registrations is uncertain since this depends on the performance of the Portuguese land registry office's officials. Furthermore, assignment of the procedural position and creditor substitution (incidente de habilitação), either by the Issuer or the Asset Manager, as applicable, has been filed for all judicial files with each relevant Portuguese Court, but it cannot be anticipated when all requests will be duly approved since this depends on the performance of the Portuguese Courts. The Transaction Documents contain provisions whereby the Originator will transfer to the Issuer and/or the Asset Manager any proceeds or Properties it receives under the Secured Receivables from the Closing Date, including while such procedural steps are pending, and furthermore, any such proceeds or Properties, even if received by the Originator, do not legally belong to it and do not form part of its insolvency estate. However, it cannot be assured that, in case of insolvency of the Originator, the relevant court or insolvency administrator would follow such understanding. Also, even if such understanding prevails, an insolvency of the Originator may impact timings and procedures for release of any such proceeds or Properties to the Issuer or the Asset Manager. Any failure or delay of the Originator in transferring to the Issuer and/or the Asset Manager any proceeds or Properties it receives in respect of the Secured Receivables from the Closing Date, could ultimately adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its obligations to make payments due on the Notes.

If any of such risks materialises, and notably if they materialise for a significant amount of real estate, this may affect the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes and the Transaction Documents.

Limited Liquidity of the Transaction Assets

In the event of the occurrence of an Event of Default and the delivery of an Enforcement Notice, or if for other reasons the Notes are to be redeemed in whole prior to the final Legal Maturity Date, in accordance with Condition 9 (Final Redemption, Mandatory Redemption in Part and Optional Redemption), a disposal of the Transaction Assets of the Issuer, including the then remaining Receivables Portfolio, may be necessary. Generally, the Originator will not be obliged to acquire any such assets and there can be no certainty that any other purchaser could be found as there is not, at present, and the Issuer believes it is unlikely to develop, an active and liquid secondary market for receivables of this type in Portugal. In addition, even if a purchaser could be found for the Transaction Assets, the amount realised by the Issuer in respect of their disposal to such purchaser in such circumstances may not be sufficient to redeem all of the Notes in full at their then Principal Amount Outstanding together with accrued interest.

Change of Counterparties for Criteria Ceasing to be Met

Certain parties to the Transaction Documents who receive and hold monies pursuant to the terms of such documents (such as the Accounts Bank) are required to satisfy certain criteria in order to continue to receive and hold such monies.

These criteria include requirements in relation to the short-term, unguaranteed and unsecured ratings ascribed to such party by the Rating Agencies.

If the concerned party ceases to satisfy the applicable criteria, including such ratings criteria, then the rights and obligations of that party may be required to be transferred to another entity which does satisfy the applicable criteria. In these circumstances, the terms agreed with the replacement entity may not be as favourable as those agreed with the original party pursuant to the Transaction Documents.

In addition, should the applicable criteria cease to be satisfied, then the parties to the relevant Transaction Document may agree to amend or waive certain of the terms of such document, including the applicable criteria, in order to avoid the need for a replacement entity to be appointed. The consent of Noteholders may not be required in relation to such amendments and/or waivers.

If the requirements of the Rating Agencies in relation to the short-term, unguaranteed and unsecured ratings ascribed to a party to the Transaction Documents are not met, that could potentially adversely affect the rating of the Rated Notes.

Transaction Party and Rating Trigger Risk

The Issuer faces the possibility that a counterparty will be unable to meet its contractual obligations to it. These parties may default on their obligations to the Issuer due to bankruptcy, lack of liquidity, operational failure or other reasons.

While certain Transaction Documents provide for rating triggers to address the insolvency risk of counterparties, such rating triggers may be ineffective in certain situations. Rating triggers may require counterparties, inter alia, to arrange for a new counterparty to become a party to the relevant Transaction Document upon a rating downgrade or withdrawal of the original counterparty. It may, however, occur that a counterparty having a requisite rating becomes insolvent before a rating downgrade or withdrawal occurs or that insolvency occurs immediately upon such rating downgrade or withdrawal or that the relevant counterparty does not have sufficient liquidity for implementing the measures required upon a rating downgrade or withdrawal.

Termination of Appointment of the Transaction Manager may require increase of costs in replacing the Transaction Manager

In the event of the termination of the appointment of the Transaction Manager, for any events so specified in the Paying Agency and Transaction Management Agreement or any other reason, it would be necessary for the Issuer to appoint a substitute transaction manager. The appointment of the substitute transaction manager is subject to the condition that, inter alia, such substitute transaction manager is capable of administering the Transaction Accounts of the Issuer.

There is no certainty that it would be possible to find a substitute or a substitute of satisfactory standing and experience, who would be willing to act as transaction manager under the terms of the Paying Agency and Transaction Management Agreement or that a substitute transaction manager would be willing to comply with the obligations of the retiring transaction manager as set out in the Paying Agency and Transaction Management Agreement on the same terms and remuneration as the retiring transaction manager.

In order to appoint a substitute transaction manager, it may be necessary to pay higher fees than those paid to the Transaction Manager and depending on the level of fees payable to any substitute, the payment of such fees could potentially adversely affect the rating of the Rated Notes.

Reliance on third parties

The ability of the Issuer to meet its obligations under the Notes will be dependent upon the performance of duties owed by a number of third parties that will agree to perform services in relation to the Notes. For example, the Transaction Manager will provide calculation and management services and the Principal Paying Agent will provide payment and calculation services in connection with the Notes under the Paying Agency and Transaction Management Agreement.

In the event that any of these third parties fails to perform its obligations under the respective agreements to which it is a party, or the creditworthiness of these third parties deteriorates, the Noteholders may be adversely affected.

Reliance on the Seller's Representations and Warranties

If any of the Receivables fails to comply with any of the Seller's Representations and Warranties which could have a material adverse effect on (i) any Receivable, (ii) its related Receivable Agreement or (iii) the Ancillary Receivables Rights, the Originator is obliged to hold the Issuer harmless against any losses which the Issuer may suffer as a result of such failure.

However, such indemnity is only actionable by the Issuer against the Seller during a claim period terminating 24 (twenty-four) months after the Closing Date, and therefore if the Issuer becomes aware of a breach of such representations following the period available thereof, the Issuer will not be entitled to claim indemnity by the Originator.

In the event of the Issuer suffering any losses as referred to above, the Issuer may not receive any indemnity payment from the Originator due to, inter alia, lapse of the above claim period, or due to the Originator's default or insolvency. Reputational risks affecting the Originator or its sole shareholder, among other factors, may contribute towards or result in the Originator's default or insolvency. This risk may arise from a variety of circumstances including, without limitation, the Bank of Portugal's regulatory proceedings or investigations into the affairs or internal and compliance procedures of the Originator to deal with anti-money laundering. In this respect, in November 2016, CEMG was notified by the Bank of Portugal of an accusation under an administrative proceeding related to alleged violations of certain anti-money laundering procedures (administrative proceeding (processo de contraordenação) no. 84/14/CO). This administrative proceeding relates to events that occurred prior to September 2016 and concerns alleged non-compliance by CEMG with certain duties pertaining to the implementation of certain required mechanisms to allow for: the identification of the property and control of property and control of legal entities; origin of funds; information update relating to banking entities; extension to affiliates of measures equivalent to those foreseen in Law no. 25/2008; system parameters for high risk operations; and information report to Procuradoria Geral da República (the Portuguese General Prosecutor's Office) of operations potentially related to anti-money laundering. CEMG presented its defence in respect of such accusations in January 2017. The potential applicable penalty ranges from €10,000 (ten thousand euros) to €5,000,000 (five million euros).

Failure to obtain an indemnity from the Originator may affect the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes.

Assignment of Receivables may be affected by Originator's insolvency in case of bad faith of the Originator and the Issuer

In the event of the Originator becoming insolvent, the Receivables Sale Agreement, and the sale of the Receivables conducted pursuant to it, will not be affected and therefore will neither be terminated nor will such Receivables form part of the Originator's insolvent estate, save if a liquidator appointed to the Originator or any of the Originator's creditors produces evidence that the Originator and the Issuer have entered into and executed such agreement in bad faith (i.e. with the intention of defrauding creditors). The sale of Ancillary Receivables Rights (if applicable) will only be enforceable against a third party acting in good faith upon registration of the act at the competent registry office, which needs to be made after the Issue Date and may take a significant amount of time.

In the unlikely event that the Receivables Sale Agreement entered into between the Originator and the Issuer were to be considered by a liquidator to have been executed in bad faith, with the intention of defrauding creditors, the Receivables which collateralize the Notes could be deemed by the court as part of the Originator's insolvent estate, adversely affecting the cash-flows available for the Issuer to make payments or other distributions under the Notes.

Assignment and Borrower set-off risks

In order to become effective vis-à-vis third parties, a notice of the assignment and the update of the relevant mortgage registration with the relevant real estate registration office are required upon the assignment of the Receivables to the Issuer and then to the Asset Manager. The relevant assignment notices, in relation to the assignment from Seller to Issuer, and thereafter from Issuer to Asset Manager, have been executed pursuant to the Transaction Documents, by the Originator and by the Issuer, as appropriate. In addition, the process of updating the mortgages registration, to the name of the Issuer and/or the Asset Manager, as applicable, has been initiated by means of filing all relevant requests with the Portuguese land registry office. The timing for completion of such registrations is uncertain since this depends on the performance of the Portuguese land registry office's officials. Furthermore, assignment of the procedural position and creditor substitution (incidente de habilitação), either by the Issuer or the Asset Manager, as applicable, has been filed for all judicial files with each relevant Portuguese Court, but it cannot be anticipated when all requests will be duly approved since this depends on the performance of the Portuguese Courts.

Pending completion of such mortgage registration process and whilst the Originator is still shown as mortgage creditor in the real estate registration office, there is a risk that Borrowers or courts (when enforcement proceedings have been initiated) make payments to the Originator in respect of assigned mortgage credits instead of to the Servicers. If payments are made to the Originator, Noteholders will be exposed to the risk of the Originator performing its contractual obligations under the Transaction Documents to pay such amounts to the Issuer.

Set-off risks in relation to the Receivables are essentially those associated with the Borrower's possibility of exercising against the Issuer any set-off rights the Borrower held against the Originator prior to the assignment of the relevant Receivables. Such set-off rights held by the Borrower against the Originator prior to the assignment of the relevant Receivables are not affected by the assignment of the Receivables to the Issuer and then to the Asset Manager. Such set-off risks will not arise where the Originator had no obligations then due and payable to the relevant Borrower at the time of assignment.

The Securitisation Law does not contain any direct provisions in respect of set-off (which therefore continues to be regulated by the Portuguese Civil Code's general legal provisions on this matter) but it may have an impact on the set-off risk related matters to the extent the Securitisation Law has varied the Portuguese Civil Code rules on assignment of credits. (See "Selected aspects of Portuguese law relevant to the Receivables Portfolio")

The exercise by Borrower of any set-off rights against the Issuer, may adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes.

Reliance on Performance by Servicers

The Issuer has engaged two separate servicers to administer the Secured Receivables and the Unsecured Receivables separately pursuant to the Secured Receivables Servicing Agreement and to the Unsecured Receivables Servicing Agreement, respectively. The Secured Receivables will be serviced by Whitestar Asset Solutions, S.A., while the Unsecured Receivables will be serviced by HG PT, Unipessoal, Lda. While each of the Servicers are bound to perform certain services under the relevant Receivables Servicing Agreement, there can be no assurance that they will be willing or able to perform such services in the future. Since the Receivables are non-performing, the recoveries depend largely on the ability of each Servicer to manage such Receivables and to implement any necessary actions in accordance with the Receivables Servicing Agreements, for instance, in implementing any modification and amendment to the terms of the Receivables. The Originator will not perform any servicing activities in respect of the Receivables Portfolio and will not have any direct or indirect ability to influence the servicing and management of the Receivables under this Transaction.

In the event the appointment of a Servicer is terminated by reason of the occurrence of a Servicer Termination Event in respect of the relevant Servicer, there can be no assurance that the transition of servicing will occur without adverse effect on investors or that an equivalent level of performance on collections and administration of the Receivables can be maintained by a successor servicer after any replacement of the relevant Servicer, as many of the servicing and collections techniques currently employed were developed by each respective Servicer. Given that the Receivables are non-performing, a failure to timely appoint a replacement servicer may have a materially adverse impact on the amount and timing of recoveries with respect to the Receivables and a reduction of the amounts available for payments on the Notes.

If the appointment of either Servicer is terminated, the Issuer shall endeavour to appoint a substitute servicer, subject to resolution of the Servicing Committee in accordance with the Servicing Committee Rules and the prior approval of the CMVM. No assurances can be made as to the availability of, and the time necessary to engage, such a substitute servicer.

The Servicers may not resign their respective appointments as Servicer, without a justified reason and furthermore, pursuant to the Receivables Servicing Agreement, such resignation shall only be effective if the Issuer has appointed a substitute servicer.

Under the terms of the Secured Receivables Servicing Agreement, there is a 5 (five) year period as from the date of execution of the Secured Receivables Servicing Agreement, during which the Issuer is not entitled to terminate without cause the appointment of the Secured Servicer. During the referred period, the Issuer will only be entitled to terminate the appointment of Whitestar Asset Solutions, S.A. in the event that a Secured Servicer Termination Event or Performance Breach Event occurs in accordance with the Secured Receivables Servicing Agreement.

See for further details “Overview of Certain Transaction Documents – Secured Receivables Servicing Agreement”.

Accordingly, and absent of due cause for termination, Noteholders face the risk of the Issuer not being able to replace the Secured Servicer for another servicer, even though such a replacement would be in their interest or for a servicer offering different conditions or recovery prospects.

Servicing Committee represents the interest of Class B Noteholders and Class J Noteholders and may make directions on certain aspects of the servicing that may not be aligned or consistent with, the interests of the Class A Noteholders

Prospective investors should be aware that the Class B Noteholders and Class J Noteholders have the entitlement to appoint a committee (the “Servicing Committee”) which shall exercise powers, authorities, and discretion in relation to certain specific matters related to the servicing of the Receivables Portfolio, including, inter alia, resolving on: the approval, in relation to a given Receivable, of any enforcement or settlement which do not comply with the applicable Enforcement Procedures (as identified in the relevant Receivables Servicing Agreement), but which are deemed to be acceptable by the relevant Servicer; the authorisation for the Issuer to terminate the appointment of any Servicer or Asset Manager; the appointment of a Successor Servicer or Asset Manager; the approval of the organisation of a Bid Process for the sale of the Receivables Portfolio or any Receivable that shall take place under the terms of the Conditions; the approval of the sale, assignment or transfer of any Receivables by a Servicer to third parties whenever certain eligibility conditions are not met; the approval of any enforcement or settlement in respect of a given Receivable which does not comply with the applicable Set of Procedures (as specified in the relevant Receivables Servicing Agreement), the authorisation for the relevant Servicer to incur in additional legal costs and expenses in respect of a given Receivables in case 70% of the Maximum Amount specified in the relevant Receivables Servicing Agreement has been reached; the determination of a given Debt Relationship as an Exhausted Debt Relationship. In addition, the Servicing Committee will resolve on matters related to fees or termination of appointment of certain Transaction Parties, such as the Agents and the Transaction Manager, as well as to the amendment of certain Transaction Documents, such as the Receivables Servicing Agreements, the Asset Management Agreement or the Monitoring Agent Agreement, provided the Class A Noteholders are notified and do not oppose the decision. See “Overview of Certain Transaction Documents – Servicing Committee Rules”.

Furthermore, in accordance with Condition 15 (Servicing Committee), the Noteholders of each Class and the Common Representative agree and acknowledge that they are fully aware of and accept without reservations the rules governing the Servicing Committee (the “Servicing Committee Rules”) and that any actions, including any Resolutions, taken by the Noteholders of any Class, and any actions taken by the Common Representative, as representative of the Noteholders of any Class, including under any such Resolutions, must respect the terms of the Servicing Committee Rules and any decisions taken by the Servicing Committee thereunder and not infringe the attributions of the Servicing Committee specified under the Servicing Committee Rules (see “Overview of Certain Transaction Documents – Servicing Committee Rules”). In accordance with the same Condition, any actions taken by the Noteholders or the Common Representative against the terms of the foregoing paragraph shall be deemed void and of no effect by any Transaction Parties.

There are, however, certain limited attributions (i.e. competences) of the Servicing Committee that, in accordance with the Servicing Committee Rules and the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, can be subject to a Reserved Matter resolution of the Class A Noteholders; in particular, Reserved Matters include, among other things, a proposal to oppose to any decision taken by the Servicing Committee regarding the termination of a Servicer, the Asset Manager or the Monitoring Agent, any replacing entities and any amendments to any Receivables Servicing Agreement, the Asset Management Agreement or the Monitoring Agent Appointment Agreement (other than the Servicing Committee Rules), provided that any such resolution shall be resolved exclusively by the holders of the Class A Notes and within three months from the Class A Noteholders having been notified by the Issuer (in accordance with Condition 20 (Notices)) of any such decision by the Servicing Committee; if no such opposition resolution has been duly taken by the Class A Noteholders, then the relevant decisions of the Servicing Committee on the matter will be fully effective (see “Overview of Certain Transaction Documents – Servicing Committee Rules”).

Prospective investors should be aware that each member of the Servicing Committee will represent the interest of the relevant Class B or Class J Noteholders by which it has been appointed (and not the interests of the Class A Noteholders or the Noteholders as a whole), and accordingly the decisions taken by the Servicing Committee may differ from those which would apply if the Servicing Committee members would have regard to the interests of the holders of the Notes as a whole, of the Rated Notes or the Class A Notes only. Furthermore, prospective Noteholders should be aware that certain matters in respect of the servicing of the Receivables, such as, inter alia, the sale of Receivables that do not meet certain criteria, the classification of Debt Relationship as Exhausted Debt Relationships or the entering into settlement or granting extensions in respect to a given Receivable. will be subject to the resolutions taken by the Servicing Committee, which will take into consideration the interests of the Class B and Class J Noteholders only. This may, inter alia, adversely impact the timing in which the Issuer meets its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes and the Transaction Documents.

Noteholders’ interests may be affected as a result of certain resolutions passed in Meetings of Noteholders or modifications and waivers agreed without such Noteholders’ consent

The Conditions contain provisions for calling meetings of Noteholders to consider matters affecting their interests generally or otherwise to pass resolutions. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders including Noteholders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and Noteholders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

In addition, subject to Condition 18 (Modification and Waiver) and the terms of the Common Representative Appointment Agreement, the Common Representative and the Issuer (and any other relevant parties) may agree, without the consent of the Noteholders, to:

- (a) any modification (other than in respect of a Reserved Matter or any provisions of the Conditions, the Notes or the other Transaction Documents referred to in the definition of a Reserved Matter) to the Notes and/or the Conditions which is not prejudicial to the interests of the Most Senior Class of Notes then outstanding; or
- (b) any modification (other than in respect of a Reserved Matter or any provisions of the Conditions, the Notes or the other Transaction Documents referred to in the definition of a Reserved Matter) that is of a formal, minor, administrative or technical nature, results from mandatory provisions of Portuguese law or is made to correct a manifest error or an error which, to the satisfaction of the Common Representative, is proven; or

- (c) to authorise or waive any proposed breach or breach of the Issuer of any of the covenants or provisions contained in the Notes, the Common Representative Appointment Agreement or other Transaction Documents (other than in respect of a Reserved Matter or any provisions of the Conditions, the Notes or the other Transaction Documents referred to in the definition of a Reserved Matter) which is not materially prejudicial to the interests of the holders of the Most Senior Class of Notes then outstanding and any of the Transaction Creditors, unless such Transaction Creditor have given their prior written consent to any such authorisation or waiver.

Any such modification shall be binding on the Noteholders and the other Transaction Creditors.

Collections may temporarily be commingled with other assets within the insolvency estate of the Servicer

In accordance with the Securitisation Law, in the event of any Servicer becoming insolvent, all the amounts which such Servicer may then hold in respect of the Receivables will not form part of the respective Servicer's insolvent estate and the replacement of Servicer provisions in the Receivables Servicing Agreement will then apply.

Notwithstanding the above, if an Insolvency Event has occurred and is continuing with respect to such Servicer, there may be an operational risk that Collections may temporarily be, from an operational point of view, commingled with other monies within the insolvency estate of the Servicer.

Delays arising from the occurrence of such an Insolvency Event may adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet, in time and/or in the respective actual or expected amount, its payment obligations or other distributions under the Notes.

Payment Interruption Risk

In the event of either Servicer becoming insolvent, it cannot be excluded that cash transfers to the General Collections Account (and thereafter to the Payment Account) may be interrupted immediately thereafter while alternative payment arrangements are made, the effect of which could be a short-term lack of liquidity that may lead to an interruption of payments to the Noteholders.

Authorised Investments by the Issuer may have a negative return or be unrecoverable and therefore the assets of the Issuer may be adversely affected

The Issuer has the right to make certain interim investments of money standing to the credit of the Payment Account, and the Issuer will do so if and when such Authorised Investments have been duly approved by a prior resolution of the Servicing Committee. The investments must comply with the requirements set out in Regulation no. 12/2002 of the CMVM and meet such other requirements, including appropriate ratings, as set out in the Accounts Agreement, depending on the term of the investment and the term of the investment instrument. However, it may be that, irrespective of any such rating, such investments will be irrecoverable due to insolvency of the debtor under the investment or of a financial institution involved or due to the loss of an investment amount during the transfer thereof. Additionally, the return on an investment may not be sufficient to cover fully interest payment obligations due from the investing entity in respect of its corresponding payment obligations. In this case, the Issuer may not be able to meet all its payment obligations. No Transaction Party other than the Issuer will be responsible for any such loss or shortfall.

The value of Collateral posted to the Issuer under the Cap Transaction may decline and may not be available for distribution to the Noteholders

Under the terms of the Cap Transaction entered into between the Issuer and the Cap Counterparty in respect of the Notes and in compliance with the terms of the Securitisation Law and applicable regulations of the CMVM, the Cap Counterparty is required in certain circumstances to provide collateral to the Issuer in respect of its obligations thereunder (See for further details "Risk Factors – Absence of English Law Security" and "Description of the Transaction Documents – The Cap Transaction"). There is a risk that the value of any collateral provided by the Cap Counterparty may decline between dates on which further transfers of collateral are required or may be incorrectly determined or monitored. Only the Cap Counterparty and not the Issuer will be required to post collateral, and any collateral shall be transferred by the Cap Counterparty to the Cap Collateral Account. Any funds standing to the credit of the Cap Collateral Account will not form part of the Available Distribution Amount and will therefore not be available for distribution to the Noteholders or other Transaction Parties and any transfer of funds out of the Cap Collateral Account will exclusively be made in accordance with the Cap Collateral Account Priority of Payments.

The Cap Collateral Account is subject to English law governed security in favour of the Cap Counterparty pursuant to the Cap Collateral Account Charge. For further details see “Risk Factors – Absence of English Law Security.”

Absence of English Law Security

Under Portuguese law, the entirety of the Issuer’s assets pertaining to this transaction, including those located outside of Portugal, are covered by the statutory segregation rule provided in article 62 of the Securitisation Law, which provides that the assets and liabilities (constituting an autonomous estate or património autónomo) of the Issuer in respect of each transaction entered into by the Issuer are completely segregated from any other assets and liabilities of the Issuer. In accordance with the terms of article 61 and the subsequent articles of the Securitisation Law, the Transaction Assets and the Cap Collateral Account are exclusively allocated for the discharge of the Issuer’s liabilities towards the Transaction Creditors, and other creditors do not have any right of recourse over the Transaction Assets and the Cap Collateral Account until there has been a full discharge of such liabilities.

Notwithstanding the above, certain of the Transaction Documents entered into by the Issuer are governed by English law and the Transaction Accounts are located in England. In the absence of an assignment pursuant to English law of the Issuer’s rights under the English law Transaction Documents, and an English law charge over the Transaction Accounts (in respect of the Cap Collateral Account, please below), (i) this may hinder the Common Representative taking action following the occurrence of an Event of Default, and (ii) prior to an Insolvency Event in respect of the Issuer, creditors of the Issuer (other than the Transaction Creditors) may have recourse to amounts standing to the credit of the Transaction Accounts (which would particularly be the case if the Issuer were to create security over Transaction Accounts in favour of creditors other than the Transaction Creditors). However, the above concerns are mitigated by virtue of the fact that the Issuer will represent that it has not created (and will undertake that it will not create) any interest in the Transaction Assets in favour of any person other than the Transaction Creditors and that those other creditors of the Issuer in respect of other securitisation transactions are similarly bound by non-petition and limited recourse covenants which would prevent them having recourse to the Transaction Assets.

In the event that it is downgraded to below the levels indicated in the Cap Transaction, the Cap Counterparty may be required from time to time to post collateral to the Issuer under the Cap Transaction, and the Issuer may be required from time to time to return posted collateral to the Issuer. Any such posting or returning of collateral will be made to or from the Cap Collateral Account. Under the Conditions and the Transaction Documents it has been agreed that the funds standing to the credit of the Cap Collateral Account will not form part of the Available Distribution Amount (without prejudice to the limited instances in which there may be a Cap Collateral Account Surplus that is transferred to the Payment Account and so deemed to form part of the Available Distribution Amount) and that the Cap Collateral Account will be operated only in accordance with the Cap Collateral Account Priority of Payments. Being a Transaction Account, and even though the Cap Collateral Account is contractually excluded from the definition of Transaction Asset, it is an asset of the Issuer in connection with the securitisation under which the Notes are issued and thus subject to the above articles 61, 62 and subsequent of the Securitisation Law to the benefit of the relevant Transaction Parties. Considering the terms of operation of the Cap Collateral Account, the only relevant Transaction Party which (to the extent so foreseen in the Cap Collateral Account Priority of Payments) can claim from the Issuer amounts standing to the credit of the Cap Collateral Account is the Cap Counterparty, who will thus be the only Transaction Party actually enjoying of the special creditor privileged entitlement (privilégio creditório especial) foreseen in article 63 of the Securitisation Law over any such funds. A Cap Collateral Account Charge, governed by English law, has been executed outside of Portugal on behalf of the Cap Counterparty and the Issuer, whereby the above special creditor privileged entitlement is acknowledged and English law first ranking security is created accordingly to the benefit of the Cap Counterparty over the Cap Collateral Account. Accordingly, the Cap Counterparty has the benefit of English law security over the Cap Collateral Account while the other Transaction Parties do not benefit of any English law security over any Transaction Account (please revert to the above paragraphs for a discussion on possible consequences). The Cap Collateral Account Charge includes also an assignment by way of security of the associated contractual rights of the Issuer under the Accounts Agreement.

Ratings confirmation in relation to the Notes in respect of certain actions

The terms of certain Transaction Documents require the Rating Agencies to be notified in relation to certain actions proposed to be taken by the Issuer and/or the Common Representative and/or other Transaction Parties and such actions may only be effective to the extent there has been no reduction, qualification or withdrawal by the Rating Agencies of the then current rating of the Rated Notes or in any case lead to such a reduction, qualification or withdrawal.

Any such confirmation to be provided by the Rating Agencies may or may not be given at the sole discretion of each Rating Agency. It should be noted that, depending on the timing of delivery of the request and any information needed to be provided as part of any such request, it may be the case that a Rating Agency cannot provide such confirmation in the time available or at all, and the Rating Agency is likely to state that it is not responsible for the consequences thereof. If a confirmation is given by a Rating Agency, it will be given on the basis of the facts and circumstances prevailing at the relevant time and in the context of cumulative changes to the transaction. Such confirmation represents only a restatement of the opinions given as at the Closing Date and cannot be construed as advice for the benefit of any parties to the transaction.

Certain Rating Agencies have indicated that they will no longer provide such confirmations as a matter of policy. To the extent that a confirmation cannot be obtained from a Rating Agency, whether or not a proposed action will ultimately take place will be determined in accordance with the provisions of the relevant Transaction Documents and specifically the relevant modification and waiver provisions.

TAX RELATED RISKS

Withholding Taxes (No Gross up for Taxes)

Should any withholding or deduction for or on account of any taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatsoever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by any government or state with authority to tax or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax be required to be made from any payment in respect of the Notes (as to which see “Taxation” below), neither the Issuer, the Common Representative, the Principal Paying Agent nor the Portuguese Paying Agent will be obliged to make any additional payments to Noteholders to compensate them for the reduction in the amounts that they will receive as a result of such withholding or deduction. If payments made by any party under the Receivables Sale Agreement or the Receivables Servicing Agreements or the Asset Management Agreement are subject to a Tax Deduction required by law, there will be no obligation on such party to increase the payment to leave an amount equal to the payment which would have been due if no Tax Deduction would have been required. Consequently, Noteholders may end up receiving an amount lower than that which they would have received if no Tax Deduction had applied.

The Securitisation Law, the Securitisation Tax Law and Decree Law 193/2005 have been considered by Portuguese authorities in very limited circumstances and certain tax matters may be handled differently by such authorities in the future

The securitisation law was enacted in Portugal by Decree-Law no. 453/99, of 5 November 1999, as amended by Decree-Law no. 82/2002, of 5 April 2002, by Decree-Law no. 303/2003, of 5 December 2003, by Decree-Law no. 52/2006, of 15 March 2006, and by Decree-Law no. 211-A/2008, of 3 November 2008 (the “Securitisation Law”). The Portuguese securitisation tax law was enacted by Decree-Law no. 219/2001, of 4 August 2001 as amended by Law no. 109-B/2001 of 27 December 2001, by Decree-Law no. 303/2003, of 5 December 2003, by Law no. 107-B/2003, of 31 December 2003, and by Law no. 53-A/2006, of 29 December 2006 (the “Securitisation Tax Law”). The tax regime applicable on income arising from debt securities in general was enacted by Decree-Law no. 193/2005, of 7 November, as amended by Decree-Law no. 25/2006, of 8 February, by Decree-Law no. 29-A, of 1 March, and by Law no. 83/2013, of 9 December (the “Decree-Law 193/2005”).

As at the date of this Prospectus the application of the Securitisation Law by the Portuguese Courts and the interpretation of its application by any Portuguese governmental or regulatory authority has been limited to a few cases, namely regarding effectiveness of the assignment of banking credits towards debtors, despite the absence of debtor notification and format of the assignment agreement. The Securitisation Tax Law has not been considered by any Portuguese Court and there are only a few orders on the interpretation of its application issued by Portuguese governmental authorities. Decree-Law 193/2005 has not been considered by any Portuguese court and there are only a few orders on the interpretation of its application issued by Portuguese governmental authorities. Consequently, it is possible that such authorities may issue further regulations relating to the Securitisation Law, the Securitisation Tax Law and of Decree-Law 193/2005 or the interpretation thereof, the impact of which cannot be predicted by the Issuer as at the date of this Prospectus.

Payments on the Notes may be subject to U.S. withholding under FATCA

The United States has enacted rules, commonly referred to as “FATCA”, that generally impose a new reporting and withholding regime of 30 (thirty) per cent. with respect to certain U.S. source payments (including dividends and interest), gross proceeds from the disposition of property that can produce U.S. source interest and dividends made on or after 1 January 2017 and certain payments made on or after 1 January 2017 (at the earliest) by entities that are classified as financial institutions under FATCA. As a general matter, the new rules are designed to require U.S. persons’ direct and indirect ownership of non-U.S. accounts and non-

U.S. entities to be reported to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”).

The United States has entered into a Model 1 intergovernmental agreement with Portugal (“IGA”), which was signed on 6 August 2015, ratified by Portugal on 5 August 2016 and that entered into force on 10 August 2016.

In this respect, Portugal has implemented, through Law 82-B/2014, of 31 December 2014, Decree- Law 64/2016, of 11 October, amended by Law no. 98/2017, of 24 August 2017, Ministerial Order (“Portaria”) no. 302-A/2016, of 2 December 2016 and Ministerial Order (“Portaria”) no. 302-E/2016, of 2 December 2016 the legal framework regarding the reciprocal exchange of information on financial accounts subject to disclosure in order to comply with FATCA. Under this legislation, the Issuer or other non-U.S. financial institutions through which payments on the Notes are made is required to obtain information regarding certain accountholders and report such information to the Portuguese tax authorities, which, in turn, would report such information to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. The deadline for the financial institutions to report to the Portuguese tax authorities the aforementioned information is regulated by Decree-Law no. 64/2016, of 11 October, as amended, and ends on 31 July of each year.

If an amount in respect of FATCA were to be deducted or withheld from interest, principal or other payments on or with respect to the Notes, the Issuer would have no obligation to pay additional amounts or otherwise indemnify a holder for any such withholding or deduction by the Issuer, the Common Representative, the Accounts Bank or any other party as a result of the deduction or withholding of such amount. As a result, if FATCA withholding is imposed on these payments, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected.

Prospective investors should consult their own advisers about the potential impact and application of FATCA, in particular if they may be classified as financial institutions under the FATCA rules. In addition, it should be noted that DBRS does not address FATCA in its analysis.

Noteholders may be subject to tax reporting requirements under the Common Reporting Standard

The Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (“OECD”) approved, in July 2014, a Common Reporting Standard (“CRS”) with the aim of providing comprehensive and multilateral automatic exchange of financial account information on a global basis. This goal is achieved through an annual exchange of information between the governments of 100 jurisdictions (“participating jurisdictions”) that have already adopted the CRS.

On 9 December 2014, Council Directive 2014/107/EU, amending Council Directive 2011/16/EUEUEU, introduced the CRS among the EU Member States. This Directive was transposed to Portuguese national law on October 2016, via Decree-Law 64/2016, of 11 October (the “Portuguese CRS Law”), amended by Law no. 98/2017, of 24 August 2017, has amended Decree-Law no. 61/2013, of 10 May, which transposed Directive 2011/16/EU in Portugal.

Under the Portuguese CRS Law, financial institutions established in Portugal are required to report to the Tax Authorities (for the exchange of information with the state of residence) information regarding bank accounts, including custodial accounts, held by individual persons residing in a different Member State or entities which are controlled by one or more individual persons residing in a different Member State, after having applied the due diligence rules foreseen in the Portuguese CRS Law. The information refers to the account balance at the end of the calendar year, income paid or credited in the account and the proceeds from the sale or redemption of the financial assets paid or credited in the account during the calendar year to which the financial institution acted as custodian, broker, nominee, or otherwise as an agent for the account holder, among others.

Under the Portuguese CRS Law, the first exchange of information will be enacted in 2017 for information related to the calendar year 2016. The deadline for the first report was 31 July 2017.

Investors who are in any doubt as to their position should consult their professional advisers.

Notes may be subject to Financial Transaction Tax

On 14 February 2013, the European Commission published a proposal (the “Commission’s Proposal”) for a Directive for a common financial transactions tax (the “FTT”) in Belgium, Germany, Estonia, Greece, Spain, France, Italy, Austria, Portugal, Slovenia and Slovakia (the “participating Member States”). However, Estonia has since stated that it will not participate.

The Commission’s Proposal has very broad scope and could, if introduced, apply to certain dealings in the Notes (including secondary market transactions) in certain circumstances.

Under Commission’s Proposal the FTT could apply in certain circumstances to persons both within and outside of the participating Member States. Generally, it would apply to certain dealings in the securities where at least one party is a financial institution, and at least one party is established in a participating Member State. A financial institution may be, or be deemed to be, “established” in a participating Member State in a broad range of circumstances, including (a) by transacting with a person established in a participating Member State or (b) where the financial instrument which is subject to the dealings is issued in a participating Member State.

However, the FTT proposal remains subject to negotiation between the participating Member States and the scope of any such tax is uncertain. It may therefore be altered prior to its approval and any implementation, the timing of which remains unclear. Additional EU Member States may decide to participate. Moreover, once the proposed Directive has been adopted (the “FTT Directive”), it will need to be implemented into the respective domestic laws of the participating Member States and the domestic provisions implementing the FTT Directive might deviate from the FTT Directive itself.

Prospective holders of the Notes should consult their own tax advisers in relation to the consequences of the FTT associated with subscribing for, purchasing, holding and disposing of the Notes.

ADDITIONAL REGULATORY RISKS

Regulatory requirements under the Credit Rating Agencies Regulation may be changed or developed which may impact the Issuer, related third parties or the Noteholders

On 31 May 2013, the finalised text of Regulation (EU) No. 462/2013, of 21 May 2013 (the “CRA III”) of the European Parliament and of the European Council amending Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 (the “CRA”) on credit rating agencies was published in the Official Journal of the European Union. The majority of the CRA III rules became effective on 20 June 2013 (the “CRA III Effective Date”) although certain provisions will not apply until later. CRA III provides for certain additional disclosure requirements which are applicable in relation to structured finance instruments. Such disclosures will need to be made via a website (the “SFI Website”) to be set up by the European Securities and Markets Authority (“ESMA”). The precise scope and manner of such disclosure is subject to regulatory technical standards under Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2015/3, of 30 September 2014 (the “CRA III RTS”), which came into force on 26 January 2015 and which became applicable from 1 January 2017.

The CRA III RTS is therefore applicable to the Rated Notes and the Originator and/or the Issuer and/or an appointed third party will be responsible for the mandated disclosure under the CRA III RTS. In the present case, such disclosure is expected to be made by the Servicer.

In relation to structured finance instruments issued between the date of entry into force of the CRA III RTS and the date of their application, the Issuer and the Originator are only required to comply with the reporting requirements in relation to the structured finance instruments which are still outstanding at the date of application of the CRA III RTS. On 27 April 2016, ESMA published a press release noting that it had encountered several issues in setting up the SFI Website, including the absence of a legal basis for its funding. Consequently, ESMA stated that it was unlikely that the SFI Website would be available to reporting entities by 1 January 2017 and, similarly, it was unlikely that ESMA would be in a position to publish the technical standards by 1 July 2016. Such technical standards have not been published by ESMA at the date of this Prospectus. In addition, no guidance has been issued as to whether, once the SFI Website is set up, affected parties will be required to provide disclosure (in particular in respect of items such as loan level information and investor reports) dating back to 1 January 2017 or will merely have to provide such information going forward from the date on which the SFI Website is operational.

Regulation (EU) 2017/2402 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 12 December 2017 (the “Securitisation Regulation”) lays down a general framework for securitisation and creates a specific framework for simple, transparent and standard securitisation. The Securitisation Regulation only applies to securitisations the securities of which are issued on or after 1 January 2019. As from its application date, the Securitisation Regulation will repeal article 8b of the CRA (which currently requires the Issuer and the Originator to jointly publish information on structured finance instruments, as more particularly described in the preceding paragraphs) and replace it with a new set of disclosure requirements under article 7 of the Securitisation Regulation.

However, according to a transitional provision contained in article 43(8) of the Securitisation Regulation, until the regulatory technical standards are adopted by the Commission pursuant to article 7(3) of the Securitisation Regulation, the information referred to in Annexes I to VIII of the CRA III RTS will have to keep being made available by the originators, sponsors and securitisation special purpose entities in accordance with the procedure set out in article 7(2) of the Securitisation Regulation.

Since the Class A Notes which will be admitted to trading on the regulated market have already been issued as of the date of this prospectus, article 8b of the CRA will nevertheless continue to be applicable to the present transaction.

Please see “Risk Factors – Changes to European Securitisation Framework may result in additional costs for the Issuer”.

ESMA has published a consultation paper (“CP”) on updating the guidelines (Update of the guidelines on the application of the endorsement regime under article 4(3) of the Credit Rating Agencies Regulation) on 4 April 2017 on the application of the endorsement regime under the CRA Regulation. Endorsement is a regime under the CRA Regulation, which allows credit ratings issued by a third-country CRA, and endorsed by an EU CRA, to be used for regulatory purposes in the EU. A credit rating that has been endorsed is considered to have been issued by the endorsing EU CRA. The endorsement regime is available for CRAs of systemic importance with global networks of affiliates.

The CP sets out a number of changes and clarifications to the existing guidelines focusing, in particular, on the obligations of the endorsing CRA and ESMA’s supervisory powers over endorsed credit ratings.

On 1 June 2018, the new requirements under CRA III will enter into force, for the purposes of endorsement and equivalence, and by updating the Guidelines now, ESMA is able to revise its methodological framework for assessing third-country legal and supervisory frameworks in advance of this deadline. The consultation period closed on 3 July 2017.

At the date of this Prospectus, there remains uncertainty as to what the consequences would be for the Issuer, related third parties and investors resulting from any potential non-compliance by the Issuer with CRA III upon application of the reporting obligations.

In general, European regulated investors are restricted under the CRA III from using credit ratings for regulatory purposes, unless such ratings are issued by a credit rating agency established in the EU and registered under the CRA III (and such registration has not been withdrawn or suspended), subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances while the registration application is pending. Such general restriction will also apply in the case of credit ratings issued by non-EU credit rating agencies, unless the relevant credit ratings are endorsed by an EU-registered credit rating agency or the relevant non-EU rating agency is certified in accordance with the CRA III (and such endorsement action or certification, as the case may be, has not been withdrawn or suspended).

Credit ratings included or referred to in this Prospectus have been or, as applicable, may be issued by DBRS and Moody’s, each of which as at the date of this Prospectus is a credit rating agency established in the European Community and registered under the CRA III.

Additionally, CRA III has introduced a requirement that where an issuer or related third parties (which term includes sponsors and originators) intend to solicit a credit rating of a structured finance instrument it will appoint at least two credit rating agencies to provide ratings independently of each other; and should consider appointing at least one rating agency having not more than a 10 (ten) per cent. total market share (as measured in accordance with article 8(d)(3) of the CRA (as amended by CRA III)) (a small CRA), provided that a small CRA is capable of rating the relevant issuance or entity. In order to give effect to those provisions of article 8(d) of CRA III, the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) is required to annually publish a list of registered CRAs, their total market share, and the types of credit rating they issue. According to ESMA’s 2016 market share calculations for the purposes of article 8(d) of the CRA III, DBRS (is a small CRA with less than 10 (ten) per cent. market share (1.87% Market Share).

The Issuer may be considered a covered fund pursuant to the Volcker Rule

Under the final rule (the “Final Rule”) implementing Section 13 of the U.S. Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (the “Volcker Rule”), “banking entities” (which is broadly defined to include U.S. banks, foreign banks with U.S. branches or agencies, bank holding companies, and their affiliates worldwide) are prohibited from, among other things, acquiring or retaining an ownership interest in or sponsoring a “covered fund,” subject to certain exceptions. In addition, in certain circumstances, the Volcker Rule restricts “banking entities” from entering into certain transactions with covered funds. The Issuer has been structured so as not to be a “covered fund” for the purposes of the Final Rule. In making this determination, and although other statutory or regulatory exclusions and/or exemptions may be available, the Issuer is relying on an exemption from the Final Rule for “Loan Securitizations” under the Final Rule. However, if the Issuer were determined to be a “covered fund,” that status may have a negative impact on the price and liquidity of the Notes in the secondary market. Any prospective investor in the Notes, including a U.S. or foreign bank or a subsidiary or other affiliate thereof, should consult its own legal advisors regarding such matters and other effects of the Volcker Rule.

Requirements under the U.S. Risk Retention Rules

The Credit Risk Retention regulations implemented by U.S. Federal regulatory agencies including the SEC pursuant to Section 15G of the Exchange Act of 1934, as amended from time to time, as added by section 941 of the Dodd-Frank Act (the “U.S. Risk Retention Rules”) came into effect with respect to residential mortgage backed securities on 24 December 2015 and other classes of asset backed securities on 24 December 2016 and generally require the “sponsor” of a “securitization transaction” to retain at least 5 (five) per cent. of the “credit risk” of “securitized assets”, as such terms are defined for purposes of that statute, and generally prohibit a sponsor from directly or indirectly eliminating or reducing its credit exposure by hedging or otherwise transferring the credit risk that the sponsor is required to retain. The U.S. Risk Retention Rules also provide for certain exemptions from the risk retention obligation that they generally impose.

The Originator, as sponsor, does not intend to retain at least 5 (five) per cent. of the credit risk of the Issuer for the purposes of the U.S. Risk Retention Rules, but rather intends to rely on an exemption provided for in Section 20 of the U.S. Risk Retention Rules regarding non-U.S. transactions. Such non-U.S. transactions must meet certain requirements, including that (1) the securitization transaction is not required to be and is not registered under the Securities Act; (2) no more than 10 (ten) per cent. of the dollar value (or equivalent amount in the currency in which the securities are issued) of all classes of securities issued in the securitisation transaction are sold or transferred to U.S. persons (in each case, as defined in the U.S. Risk Retention Rules) or for the account or benefit of U.S. persons (as defined in the U.S. Risk Retention Rules and referred to herein as “Risk Retention U.S. Persons”); (3) neither the sponsor nor the issuer is organised under U.S. law, is a branch organized under U.S. law, or is a branch located in the United States of a non-U.S. entity; and (4) no more than 25 (twenty-five) per cent. of the underlying collateral was acquired from a majority-owned affiliate or branch of the sponsor or issuer that is organised or located in the United States.

The Originator has undertaken to the Issuer that it will comply with all requirements of Section 20 of the U.S. Risk Retention Rules.

Prospective investors should note that the definition of “U.S. person” in the U.S. Risk Retention Rules is different from the definition of “U.S. person” under Regulation S. The definition of U.S. person in the U.S. Risk Retention Rules is excerpted below. Particular attention should be paid to clauses (b) and (h), which are different than comparable provisions from Regulation S.

Under the U.S. Risk Retention Rules, and subject to limited exceptions, “U.S. person” (and “Risk Retention U.S. Person” as used in this Prospectus) means any of the following:

- (a) any natural person resident in the United States;

- (b) any partnership, corporation, limited liability company, or other organisation or entity organised or incorporated under the laws of any State or of the United States;³
- (c) any estate of which any executor or administrator is a U.S. person (as defined under any other clause of this definition);
- (d) any trust of which any trustee is a U.S. person (as defined under any other clause of this definition);
- (e) any agency or branch of a foreign entity located in the United States;
- (f) any non-discretionary account or similar account (other than an estate or trust) held by a dealer or other fiduciary for the benefit or account of a U.S. person (as defined under any other clause of this definition);
- (g) any discretionary account or similar account (other than an estate or trust) held by a dealer or other fiduciary organised, incorporated, or (if an individual) resident in the United States; and
- (h) any partnership, corporation, limited liability company, or other organisation or entity if:
 - (i) organised or incorporated under the laws of any foreign jurisdiction; and
 - (ii) formed by a U.S. person (as defined under any other clause of this definition) principally for the purpose of investing in securities not registered under the Securities Act.⁴

Consequently, the Notes may not be purchased by any person except for persons that are not Risk Retention U.S. Persons. Each holder of a Note or a beneficial interest acquired in the initial distribution of the Notes, by its acquisition of a Note or a beneficial interest in a Note, will be deemed to represent to the Issuer and the Originator that it (1) is not a Risk Retention U.S. Person, (2) is acquiring such Note or a beneficial interest therein for its own account and not with a view to distribute such Note and (3) is not acquiring such Note or a beneficial interest therein as part of a scheme to evade the requirements of the U.S. Risk Retention Rules (including acquiring such Note through a non-Risk Retention U.S. Person, rather than a Risk Retention U.S. Person, as part of a scheme to evade the 10 (ten) per cent. Risk Retention U.S. Person limitation in the exemption provided for in Section 20 of the U.S. Risk Retention Rules described herein).

The Originator and the Issuer are relying on the representations made by purchasers of the Notes as to whether or not such purchasers are Risk Retention U.S. Persons and may not be able to determine the proper characterisation of potential investors for determining the availability of the exemption provided for in Section 20 of the U.S. Risk Retention Rules, and neither the Originator, the Issuer nor the Lead Manager nor any director, officer, employee, agent or affiliate of them accepts any liability or responsibility whatsoever for any such determination or characterisation.

There can be no assurance that the exemption provided for in Section 20 of the U.S. Risk Retention Rules regarding non-U.S. transactions will be available. Failure on the part of the Originator to comply with the U.S. Risk Retention Rules (regardless of the reason for such failure to comply) could give rise to regulatory action against the Originator which may adversely affect the Notes and the ability of the Originator to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents. Furthermore, a failure by the Originator to comply with the U.S. Risk Retention Rules could negatively affect the value and secondary market liquidity of the Notes.

None of the Issuer nor any of the other Transaction Parties or any of their respective affiliates makes any representation to any prospective investor or purchaser of the Notes as to whether the transaction described in this Prospectus complies with the U.S. Risk Retention Rules on the Issue Date or at any time in the future.

⁴ The comparable provision from Regulation S “(vii)(B) formed by a U.S. person principally for the purpose of investing in securities not registered under the Securities Act, unless it is organised or incorporated, and owned, by accredited investors (as defined in 17 CFR 230.501(a)) who are not natural persons, estates or trusts.”

Investors should consult their own advisers as to the U.S. Risk Retention Rules. No predictions can be made as to the precise effects of such matters on any investor or otherwise.

Failure by the Originator to comply with articles 405 to 410 of the CRR, articles 51 and 52 of the AIFMR, articles 254 and 256 of the Solvency II Implementing Rules and of the Bank of Portugal Notice 9/2010 may adversely affect the ability of the Noteholders to sell and/or the price investors receive for, the Notes in the secondary market

Articles 405 to 410 of the CRR, as supplemented by Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) No. 625/2014, of 13 March 2014, and including any regulatory technical standards and any implementing technical standards issued by the European Banking Authority or any successor body from time to time and Notice 9/2010 place an obligation on a credit institution or investment firm that is subject to the CRR (a “CRR Institution”) which assumes exposure to the credit risk in a securitisation transaction (as defined in article 4(1)(61) of the CRR) to ensure that the originator, sponsor or original lender has explicitly disclosed that it will fulfil its Retention Obligation (as defined below), and to have a thorough understanding of all structural features of a securitisation transaction that would materially impact the performance of their exposures to the transaction.

Furthermore, investors should be aware of article 17 of the AIFMD, as supplemented by Section 5 of the AIFMR, which took effect on 22 July 2013 and article 135(2) of Directive 2009/138/EC, of the European Parliament and of the Council, of 25 November 2009, as supplemented by Chapter VIII of the Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2015/35, of 10 October 2014 (the “Solvency II Implementing Rules”). The provisions of Section 5 of Chapter III of the AIFMR and the provisions of Chapter VIII of the Solvency II Implementing Rules provide for due diligence requirements to be undertaken by, respectively, alternative investment fund managers, required to be authorised under the AIFMD, and insurance or reinsurance undertakings which assume exposure to the credit risk of a securitisation, as well as apply to them, respectively, restrictions on the investment in securities and other financial instruments originated through securitisation, in relation to risk retention requirements. While such requirements are similar to those which apply pursuant articles 405 to 410 of the CRR, they are not identical and, in particular, additional due diligence obligations apply to the relevant alternative investment funds managers and insurance or reinsurance undertakings.

The Originator, which is an originator for the purposes of article 4(1)(13) of the CRR, will undertake in the Receivables Sale Agreement to retain, on an ongoing basis, a material net economic interest of not less than 5 per cent. of the nominal amount of the securitised exposures (the “Retention Obligation”). The Originator will retain, on an ongoing basis, the net economic interest in the transaction of not less than 5% (five per cent.) of randomly selected exposures as required by the text of each of paragraph (c) of article 405(1) of the CRR, paragraph (c) of article 51(1) of the AIFM Regulation and paragraph (c) of article 254(2) of the Solvency II Implementing Rules (the “Retained Interest”). The Originator will undertake not to hedge, sell or in any other way mitigate its credit risk in relation to such retained exposures. The retained exposures may be reduced over time by, amongst other things, amortisation and allocation of losses or defaults on the underlying Receivables. The Investor Report will also provide semi-annual confirmations as to the Originator’s continued holding retained exposures equal in total to at least 5 per cent. of the securitised exposures. It should be noted that there is no certainty that references to the Retention Obligation and the Retained Interest in this Prospectus or the undertakings of the Originator will constitute adequate due diligence (on the part of the Noteholders) or explicit disclosure (on the part of the Originator) for the purposes of articles 406 and 409 of the CRR, article 52 of the AIFMR, article 256 of the Solvency II Implementing Rules and Notice 9/2010.

If the Originator does not comply with its undertakings, the ability of the Noteholders to sell and/or the price investors receive for, the Notes in the secondary market may be adversely affected.

Articles 405 to 410 of the CRR, articles 51 and 52 of the AIFMR, articles 254 and 256 of the Solvency II Implementing Rules and Notice 9/2010 also place an obligation on, respectively, CRR Institutions, alternative investment fund managers and insurance and reinsurance undertakings, before investing in a securitisation transaction and thereafter, to analyse, understand and stress test their securitisation positions, and monitor on an ongoing basis and in a timely manner performance information on the exposures underlying their securitisation positions. The Originator has undertaken to provide to the Issuer, the Common Representative and the Transaction Manager such information as may be reasonably required by the Noteholders to be included in the Transaction Manager's Investor Report to enable such Noteholders to comply with their obligations pursuant to the CRR, articles 51 and 52 of the AIFMR, articles 254 and 256 of the Solvency II Implementing Rules and Notice 9/2010. Where the relevant requirements of articles 405 to 410 of the CRR, articles 51 and 52 of the AIFMR, articles 254 and 256 of the Solvency II Implementing Rules and Notice 9/2010 are not complied with in any material respect and there is negligence or omission in the fulfilment of its due diligence obligations on the part of a CRR Institution that is investing in the Notes, a proportionate additional risk weight of no less than 250 per cent. of the risk weight (with the total risk weight capped at 1250 per cent.) which would otherwise apply to the relevant securitisation position shall be imposed on such CRR Institution, progressively increasing with each subsequent infringement of the due diligence provisions. Additionally, non-compliance with the requirements of articles 405 to 410 of the CRR, article 51 of the AIFMR and article 254 and 256 of the Solvency II Implementing Rules may adversely affect the price and liquidity of the Notes. Noteholders should make themselves aware of the provisions of the CRR, the AIFMR and the Solvency II Implementing Rules and make their own investigation and analysis as to the impact of the CRR, the AIFMR and the Solvency II Implementing Rules on any holding of Notes.

No representation, warranty or undertaking, express or implied, is made and no responsibility or liability is accepted by the Issuer as to the Originator's ability to comply with any obligation, including the Retention Obligation and the Retained Interest, provided for in, or otherwise ensuring the compliance of the transaction with, the CRR, the AIFMR, the Solvency II Implementing Rules and Notice 9/2010 and as to the information complying with the relevant CRR, AIFMR rules and the Solvency II Implementing Rules.

Noteholders should take their own advice on compliance with, and in the application of, the provisions of articles 405 to 410 of the CRR, article 51 and 52 of the AIFMR, article 254 and 256 of the Solvency II Implementing Rules and Notice 9/2010.

Changes to European Securitisation Framework may result in additional costs for the Issuer

It should be noted that the European authorities have adopted and finalised two new regulations related to securitisation (being Regulation (EU) 2017/2402 and Regulation (EU) 2017/2401) which will apply in general from 1 January 2019.

Amongst other things, the regulations include provisions intended to implement the revised securitisation framework developed by Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (with adjustments) and provisions intended to harmonise and replace the risk retention and due diligence requirements (including the corresponding guidance provided through technical standards) applicable to certain EU regulated investors.

There are material differences between the coming new requirements and the current requirements including with respect to the matters to be verified under the due diligence requirements, as well as with respect to the application approach under the retention requirements and the originator entities eligible to retain the required interest. Further differences may arise under the corresponding guidance which will apply under the new risk retention requirements, which guidance is to be made through new technical standards.

However, securitisations established prior to the application date of 1 January 2019 that do not involve the issuance of securities (or otherwise involve the creation of a new securitisation position) from that date should remain subject to the current requirements and should not be subject to the new risk retention and due diligence requirements in general.

Prospective investors should make themselves aware of the changes and requirements described above (and any corresponding implementing rules of their regulator), and any other possible legal or regulatory changes affecting securitisations, where applicable to them, in addition to any other applicable regulatory requirements with respect to their investment in the Notes. The matters described above and any other changes to the regulation or regulatory treatment of the Notes for some or all investors may negatively impact the regulatory position of individual investors and, in addition, have a negative impact on the price and liquidity of the Notes in the secondary market.

Additionally, if any changes to the Conditions or the Transaction Documents are required or other actions are required from the Issuer as a result of the implementation of any such legal or regulatory changes, the Issuer may be required to bear the costs of making such changes (to be paid through the applicable Payment Priorities).

Changes to the European Market Infrastructure Regulation may give rise to additional costs and expenses for the Issuer

Regulation (EU) no. 648/2012, known as the European Market Infrastructure Regulation (the “EMIR”) entered into force on 16 August 2012. EMIR provides for certain over-the-counter (“OTC”) derivative contracts to be submitted to central clearing and imposes, inter alia, margin posting and other risk mitigation techniques, reporting and record keeping requirements. EMIR is a Level-1 regulation and requires secondary rules for full implementation of all elements. Some (but not all) of these secondary rules have been finalised and certain requirements under EMIR are now in effect.

Under EMIR, OTC derivatives contracts entered into by non-financial counterparties (“NFC”) which are NFC+ and financial counterparties (“FC”) entities as defined in EMIR (the “In-scope Counterparties”) that are not cleared by a central counterparty clearing house (a “CCP”) may be subject to margining requirements, unless certain exemptions apply. The regulatory technical standards relating to the collateralisation obligations in respect of OTC derivatives contracts which are not cleared (the “RTS”) are now in force and the obligation for In-scope Counterparties to margin uncleared OTC derivatives contracts is being phased in from the first quarter of 2017 with variation margin obligations applying to all transactions entered into by In-scope Counterparties from 1 March 2017. In any event, on the basis that the Issuer is an NFC-, as defined in EMIR, OTC derivatives contracts that are entered into by the Issuer would not be subject to any margining requirements. If the Issuer’s counterparty status as an NFC- changes then certain OTC derivatives contracts that are entered into by the Issuer may become subject to margining requirements.

Further, OTC derivatives contracts that are not cleared by a CCP are also subject to certain other risk mitigation techniques, including arrangements for timely confirmation of OTC derivatives contracts, portfolio reconciliation, dispute resolution and arrangements for monitoring the value of outstanding OTC derivatives contracts. These requirements are already in effect. In order to comply with certain of these risk-mitigation techniques, the Issuer includes appropriate provisions in the Cap Transaction. In addition, under EMIR, counterparties must report all their OTC and exchange traded derivatives contracts to an authorised or recognised trade repository or to ESMA. Accordingly, the Issuer has entered into the EMIR Reporting Agreement pursuant to which J.P. Morgan Securities plc (the “EMIR Reporting Agent”) has agreed to carry out certain reporting obligations under EMIR on behalf of the Issuer.

Pursuant to the Master Framework Agreement, the Issuer has appointed Whitestar Asset Solutions, S.A. as its agent in order to perform the reconciliation activity required to be performed by the Issuer under the Cap Transaction and such agent has agreed and acknowledged such appointment and has agreed to cooperate with the Issuer in any administrative activities which the latter is required to perform in order to be compliant with EMIR (without prejudice to the duties of the EMIR Reporting Agent pursuant to EMIR Reporting Agreement).

Aspects of EMIR and its application to securitisation vehicles remain unclear. If the Issuer is required to comply with certain obligations under EMIR which may give rise to additional costs and expenses for the Issuer, this may in turn reduce amounts available to make payments with respect to the Notes.

Prospective investors should also note that certain amendments to EMIR are or may in the future be contemplated. For instance, a proposal published by the European Commission on 4 May 2017 to amend EMIR suggested that special purpose vehicles similar to the Issuer should be reclassified as financial counterparties for the purposes of EMIR. At this time, the extent to which EMIR may be amended, in connection with such proposal or otherwise is unclear. Noteholders should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks posed by EMIR in making any investment decision in respect of the Notes.

MIFID II and MIFIR may require changes to Transaction Documents or additional requirements for the Issuer which may increase costs to be borne by the Issuer

The EU regulatory framework and legal regime relating to derivatives is set not only by EMIR (as referred to above) but also by Directive 2014/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 May 2014 on markets in financial instruments and amending Directive 2002/92/EC and Directive 2011/61/EU (“MIFID II”) and Regulation (EU) No. 600/2014 of the European Parliament and the Council of 15 May 2014 on markets in financial instruments and amending Regulation (EU) No. 648/2012 (“MIFIR”), together with the relevant secondary and supplementing legislation. From 3 January 2018, MIFID II and MIFIR apply in EU Member States.

Amongst other requirements, MIFIR requires certain standardised derivatives to be traded on exchanges and electronic platforms (the “Trading Obligation”). In this respect, it is difficult to predict the full impact of these regulatory requirements on the Issuer.

Prospective investors should be aware that the regulatory changes arising from MIFID II / MIFIR may in due course significantly raise the costs of entering into derivative contracts and may adversely affect the Issuer’s ability to engage transactions in OTC derivatives. As a result of such increased costs or increased regulatory requirements, investors may receive less interest or return, as the case may be. Investors should be aware that such risks are material and that the Issuer could be materially and adversely affected thereby. As such, investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks posed by MIFID II / MIFIR, and technical standards made thereunder, in making any investment decision in respect of the Notes.

In addition to the above, please note that given the prospective dates of entry into force of certain requirements (which, as detailed above, could impact the financial conditions of the Issuer), of MIFID II and MIFIR, certain amendments may be required to be made to the Transaction Documents in order to ensure compliance with such requirements.

MIFID II and MIFIR may pose additional requirements in the future for the Issuer to comply with, which the Issuer cannot foresee as at the date of this Prospectus and is not aware as at the date of this Prospectus.

The Basel Capital Accord (“Basel III”) may affect risk weighting of the Notes for the Noteholders

The original Basel Accord was agreed in 1988 by the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (the “Committee”). The 1988 Accord, now referred to as Basel I, helped to strengthen the soundness and stability of the international banking system as a result of the higher capital ratios that it required. The Committee published the text of the new capital accord under the title: “Basel II; International Convergence on Capital Measurement and Capital Standards: a revised framework” (the “Framework”) in June 2004. In November 2005, the Committee issued an updated version of the Framework. On 4 July 2006, the Committee issued a comprehensive version of the framework. This Framework places enhanced emphasis on market discipline and sensitivity to risk and serves as a basis for national and supranational rule-making and approval processes for banking organisations. The Framework was put into effect for credit institutions and investment firms in Europe via the recasting of a number of prior directives, which Member States were required to transpose, and the financial industry services to apply, by 1 January 2007, particularly CRD. The CRD is not self-implementing, implementation dates in participating countries being dependent on the relevant national implementation process in those countries.

Several amendments and developments were announced by the Basel Committee since 2008 to strengthen certain aspects of the Framework, including general information in respect of the supplier and the financial service, contractual terms and conditions, whether or not there is a right of cancellation and strengthening of existing capital requirements.

On 12 September 2010, existing capital requirements were strengthened, the minimum common equity requirement being increased from 2 (two) per cent. to 4.5 (four point five) per cent. In addition, banks were required to hold a capital conservation buffer of 2.5 (two point five) per cent. to withstand future periods of stress bringing the total common equity requirements to 7 (seven) per cent. This reinforced the stronger definition of capital agreed by Governors and Heads of Supervision in July that year and the higher capital requirements for trading, derivative and securitisation activities introduced at the end of 2011.

On 26 October 2011, the European Banking Authority (“EBA”) issued a methodological note, in accordance with which, by June 2012, the core Tier 1 capital ratio is assessed after the removal of the prudential filters on sovereign assets in the Available-for-Sale portfolio and prudent valuation of the exposure to sovereign debt, reflecting current market prices.

More recently, the Committee has developed a comprehensive set of reform measures known as “Basel III” in order to further strengthen the regulation, supervision and risk management of the banking sector. These measures aim, notably, at improving the banking sector’s ability to absorb shocks arising from financial and economic stress, improving risk management and governance and strengthening banks’ transparency and disclosures.

The new capital reserve rules shall be implemented in stages, between 1 January 2014 and 1 January 2019 (and subsequently transposed into the national laws), with a phase-in period beginning in 2014, the common equity requirements coming into force in 2014, the completing measures in 2019.

The first stage of the Basel III measures has been put in place on 1 January 2014 by Directive 2013/36/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 (“CRD IV”, generally required to be transposed by Member States by 31 December 2013 in accordance with article 162 thereof), complemented by the CRR. The CRD has been repealed by the entry into force of CRD IV and CRR. Additionally, European credit institutions are also subject to an annual Supervisory Review and Evaluation Process (“SREP”) assessment, which takes into account the general framework and principles defined in the CRD IV. The SREP assessments include capital assessment, business model analysis, assessment of internal governance and institution-wide risk controls, assessment of risks to liquidity and funding, SREP liquidity assessment and broader stress testing. The SREP annual review under which the banking supervisors assess the adequacy of capital of an entity, identify risks that are not covered by own funds requirements and the need of ‘Pillar 2’ capital requirements. Where the SREP for an institution identifies risks or elements of risk that are not covered by the ‘Pillar 1’ capital requirements or the combined buffer requirement, competent authorities can determine the appropriate level of the institution’s own funds under CRD IV and assess whether additional own funds shall be required.

The Basel framework affects risk weighting of the Notes for investors subject to the new framework following implementation (via EU or non-EU regulators). Consequently, Noteholders should consult their own advisers as to the consequences to and effect on them of the application of the framework, as implemented by their own regulator, to their holding of Notes. The Issuer is not responsible for informing Noteholders of the effects of the changes to risk weighting which will result for investors from the adoption by their own regulator of the framework (whether or not implemented by them in its current form or otherwise). The new capital adequacy requirements may impact existing business models. In addition, there can be no assurances that breaches of legislation or regulations by the Issuer will not occur and, to the extent that such a breach does occur, that significant liability or penalties will not be incurred.

Certain Transaction Parties may be subject to preventive measures, supervisory intervention and resolution tools under the Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive, which may impact the performance of their respective obligations under the Transaction Documents

In May 2014, the EU Council and the EU Parliament approved a Directive establishing a framework for the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms (Directive 2014/59/UE of the European Parliament and of the Council, of 15 May 2014, establishing a framework for the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms, the “BRRD”). The aim of the BRRD is to equip national authorities with harmonised tools and powers to tackle crises at banks and certain investment firms at the earliest possible moment and to minimise costs for taxpayers. The tools and powers include:

- (a) preparatory and preventive measures (including the requirement for banks to have recovery and resolution plans);
- (b) early supervisory intervention (including powers for authorities to take early action to address emerging problems); and
- (c) resolution tools, which are intended to ensure the continuity of essential services and to manage the failure of a credit institution in an orderly way.

EU Member States were required to implement the BRRD in national law by 1 January 2015, save that the bail in tool (which will enable the recapitalisation of a failed or failing credit institution through the imposition of losses on certain of its creditors through the write-down of their claims or the conversion of the claims into the failed or failing credit institution’s equity) were to apply from 1 January 2016. The bail-in tool as proposed in the BRRD applies to all “eligible liabilities” (as defined in the BRRD) irrespective of when they were issued.

The BRRD was implemented in Portugal by a number of legislative acts, including Law no. 23-A/2015, of 26 March, which have amended the Portuguese Legal Framework of Credit Institutions and Financial Companies (hereinafter, “RGICSF”) (enacted by Decree-Law no. 298/92, of 31 December, as amended), including the requirements for the application of preventive measures, supervisory intervention and resolution tools to credit institutions and investment firms in Portugal.

Credit institutions and investment firms, such as the Originator and the Accounts Bank, are thus subject to the BRRD regime as implemented in the relevant EU Member States. If credit institutions or investment firms are part of contracts in a securitisation and one or more of the above-mentioned actions under the BRRD is taken in respect of such credit institutions or investment firms, this may impact the performance of their respective obligations under the relevant contracts.

OTHER RISKS

Risk arising from Portuguese Economic Situation

The date of 17 May 2014 marked the conclusion of the Portuguese Financial Assistance Programme and constituted an important moment for the evolution of the Portuguese economy. During its period of implementation, there was growing progress in the correction of a certain macroeconomic imbalances and measures of structural nature were adopted where needed. Notwithstanding this progress, the return of normal conditions in market funding to the Portuguese economy requires sustained product growth. Such product growth is also crucial to bringing about a reduction in the persistently high level of unemployment observed in the Portuguese economy.

Following its exit from the Financial Assistance Programme, Portugal became subject to Post-Programme Surveillance (“PPS”) by the European Commission (“EC”) and the European Central Bank (“ECB”) and to Post-Program Monitoring (“PPM”) by the International Monetary Fund (“IMF”).

As per the Portuguese Government’s State Budget for 2018 (SB 2018), the debt-to-GDP ratio was 130.1 (one hundred and thirty point one) per cent. of GDP in 2016, 1.3 p.p. higher than in 2015. In 2017, the debt-to-

GDP ratio was expected to resume a downward trajectory, reaching 126.2 (one hundred twenty-six point two) per cent. by the end of the year and 123.5 (one hundred twenty-three point five) per cent. by the end of 2018. However, the latest data released by the Bank of Portugal and the INE (Statistics Portugal) indicate that the debt-to-GDP ratio was lower than the government projected in the SB 2018, estimating a debt-to-GDP ratio of 125.6 (one hundred and twenty-five point six) per cent. of GDP in 2017, after 129.9 (one hundred and twenty-nine point nine) per cent. of GDP in 2016, suggesting that the debt-to-GDP ratio could stay in 2018 at a level also lower than that projected in the SB 2018. Public debt is projected to continue a gradual declining trend. Given the current high level of government debt, Portugal still appears to face high fiscal sustainability risks in the medium-term. However, in the long-term, Portugal faces low fiscal sustainability risks, also due to the positive structural primary balances from 2012, with the Portuguese Government predicting, in the SB 2018, a maintenance at 2.2 (two point two) per cent. in 2016, a small reduction to 2.1 (two point one) per cent. in 2017 and a rise to 2.3 (two point three) per cent. in 2018.

In addition, in 2017, GDP grew 2.7 (two point seven) per cent., the highest growth since 2000, of 3.8 (three point eight) per cent., and it is expected an increase of 2.3 (two point three) per cent. in 2018, both above those anticipated in the SB 2018 (increases of 2.6 (two point six) per cent. in 2017 and 2.2 (two point two) per cent. in 2018). The economic growth in 2017 reflected, as expected, only the domestic demand contribution, which posted a positive contribution of 2.9 (two point nine) p.p., with the acceleration of this contribution (+1.6 (one point six) p.p. in 2016), mainly reflecting the strong acceleration of investment (“GFCF”), but also of private consumption. Private consumption expanded by 2.2 (two point two) per cent., accelerating (+2.1 (two point one) per cent. in 2016) and public consumption by 0.1 (zero point one) per cent. (+ 0.6 (zero point six) per cent. in 2016), while GFCF rose by 9.0 (nine point zero) per cent., strongly accelerating the growth of 1.5 (one point five) per cent. in 2016, and the change in inventories had a negative contribution of 0.1 (zero point one) p.p. to growth, after having already made a negative contribution of 0.1 (zero point one) p.p. in 2016. Meanwhile, net exports showed a negative contribution of 0.2 (zero point two) p.p., penalizing growth for the fourth consecutive year (although in 2016, in a marginal way: -0.01 (zero point zero one) p.p.), with this negative contribution of net exports in 2017 reflecting increases of 7.9 (seven point nine) per cent. in exports (+ 4.4 (four point four) per cent. in 2016) and 7.9 (seven point nine) per cent. of imports (+ 4.2 (four point two) per cent. in 2016). It should be noted that, although net exports in 2017 have once again penalized growth, the economic recovery has continued to be sustained by exports, which ended the year of 2017 47.7 (forty-seven point seven) per cent. above pre-adjustment program levels (2010). Exports of services, notably tourism, have continued to grow at a steady pace, as several Portuguese destinations consolidate their prestige in international markets.

Concerning the challenges facing the economy in 2018, internally, the main challenges are: i) the still weak situation of the banking system; ii) the persistence of some political risks (an heterogeneous majority in the parliament supports a minority government) due to the possibility of a return to political instability (but that it should decrease as the legislature moves forward), in a context in which the country should continue committed to the additional consolidation objectives of the public finances demanded by Brussels for the medium term, policies that do not have the support of the left-leaning parties supporting the Government. On the positive side, the labour market recovery may continue to exceed expectations, supporting higher growth in domestic demand. Externally, the economy remains vulnerable to the evolution of world demand, which as a central scenario is expected to continue to rise, but is also fraught with risks. The upside risks are mainly due to: i) the low oil price (despite the average price of 2018 should be higher than previously forecast), which should continue to favour the terms of trade; ii) the possibility of the world economy being able to accelerate more than anticipated. On the negative side, it should be noted that: i) too rapid appreciation of the euro could be detrimental to the competitiveness of the economy; ii) the effects of the recent instability in the financial markets on the conditions of financing of the Portuguese economy; iii) the effects of the reduction of the ECB's monetary policy expansionary environment on Portuguese debt yields; iv) the high geopolitical risk arising from the following factors: a) the uncertainty about the situation in Catalonia; b) the uncertainty of the Brexit process; c) uncertainty regarding the American economic policy that Donald Trump will implement; d) geopolitical uncertainty in the Middle East (e.g. Syria), the Far East (e.g. North Korea) and Eastern Europe (Russia / Ukraine) and US / Russia relations.

The year 2017 in Portugal was marked by a strong decrease in the risk of the country, which was evident in the reduction of the spread of 10-year Portuguese bonds. This development has contributed to the flow of favourable news, which has been known since the beginning of the year. The GDP in 2016 grew (+ 1.6 (one point six) per cent.) more than expected and the unemployment rate (11.1 (eleven point one) per cent.) fell more than anticipated, with better prospects for meeting the budget targets, which were also surpassed deficit of 2.0 (two point zero) per cent. of GDP, the lowest (but in 2017, the deficit may still have been lower, -1.2 (one point two) per cent. of GDP) of this series of INE (started in 1999) and, moreover, of all democratic history of Portugal (the previous lower deficit was -1.0 (one point zero) per cent. of GDP, according to longer annual series in 1974). Contributing to this country risk reduction were also other favourable developments that have been known throughout the year 2017, such as the country's exit from the Excessive Deficit Procedure (EDP), positive developments in unemployment, observed economic growth and favourable prospects for the achievement of budgetary targets. Standard& Poor's upgraded Portugal's credit rating to BBB- in September 2017 and Fitch upgraded Portugal's credit rating to BBB in December 2017. Standard & Poor's have published Portugal's revised rating specifying a favourable credit outlook and Fitch have published Portugal's revised rating specifying a positive credit outlook.

The Portuguese economy's current situation continues to reveal some risks related to fiscal consolidation and the lack of availability of credit. These risks continue to limit the financing of well-established companies in the country, but less than before.

The Issuer cannot foresee what impact any economic or related fiscal developments and policies or other additional measures may have on the conditions of the real estate market or otherwise on the Portuguese economy, and accordingly on the Borrowers, the Noteholders and prospective investors.

Risks arising from economic conditions in the eurozone

Concerns relating to credit risks (including those of sovereigns and those of entities which are exposed to sovereigns) continue. In particular, concerns have been raised with respect to current economic, monetary and political conditions in the eurozone. If such concerns persist and/or such conditions further deteriorate (including as may be demonstrated by any relevant credit rating agency action, any default or restructuring of indebtedness by one or more states or institutions and/or any changes to, including any break-up of, the eurozone), then these matters may cause further severe stress in the financial system generally and/or may adversely affect one or more of the Transaction Parties (including the Originator and/or the Servicers) and/or any Borrower in respect of the Receivables. Given the current uncertainties and the range of possible outcomes, no assurance can be given as to the impact of any of the matters described above and no assurance can be given that such matters would not adversely affect the rights of the Noteholders, the market value of the Notes and/or the ability of the Issuer to satisfy its obligations under the Notes.

United Kingdom's exit from the European Union

On 23 June 2016, the United Kingdom ("UK") held the UK Referendum. As mentioned above, the result of the referendum's vote was to leave the EU, which creates several uncertainties within the UK, and regarding its relationship with the EU. On 29 March 2017, the UK served notice in accordance with article 50 of the Treaty on European Union of its intention to withdraw from the EU. The notification of withdrawal started a two-year process during which the terms of the UK's exit will be negotiated, although this period may be extended in certain circumstances. The departure of the United Kingdom is expected to occur at 23.00 (GMT) of the 29th of March of 2019.

The result and the resulting negotiations are likely to generate further increased volatility in the markets and economic uncertainty which could adversely affect one or more of the Transaction Parties (including the Originator) and the level of recoveries from the Receivables or any Properties. Until the terms and timing of the UK's exit from the EU are confirmed, it is not possible to determine the full impact that the referendum, the UK's departure from the EU and/or any related matters may have on general economic conditions in the UK.

Given the current uncertainties and the range of possible outcomes, no assurance can be given as to the impact of any of the matters described above and no assurance can be given that such matters would not adversely affect the rights of the Noteholders, the market value of the Notes and/or the ability of the Issuer to satisfy its obligations under the Notes.

Change of Law

The structure of the transaction and, inter alia, the issue of the Notes and ratings assigned to the Rated Notes are based on law, tax rules, rates, procedures and administrative practice in effect at the date hereof, and having due regard to the expected tax treatment of all relevant entities under such law and practice. No assurance can be given that law, tax rules, rates, procedures or administration practice will not change after the date of this Prospectus or that such change will not adversely impact the structure of the transaction and the treatment of the Notes including the expected payments of interest and repayment of principal in respect of the Notes.

Limited Provision of Information

Except if otherwise specifically provided in the Transaction Documents, the Issuer will not be under any obligation to disclose to the Noteholders any financial or other information received by it in relation to the Receivables or to notify them of the contents of any notice received by it in respect of the Receivables, which includes no obligation to keep any Noteholder or any other person informed as to matters arising in relation to the Receivables, except for the information provided in the Investor Report concerning the Receivables and the Notes which will be made available to the Noteholders on or about each Interest Payment Date.

Projections, forecasts and estimates are forward-looking statements and do not assure projected or forecasted results to be attained

Forward looking statements, including estimates, any other projections and forecasts in this document are necessarily speculative in nature and some or all of the assumptions underlying the forward-looking statements may not materialise or may vary significantly from actual results. Accordingly, the projections are only an estimate and there can be no assurance that any projected or forecasted results will be attained. Actual results may vary from the projections, and the variations may be material.

Some important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in any forward looking statements include changes in interest rates; market, financial or legal uncertainties; and political changes, among others. Consequently, the inclusion of forward looking statements in this Prospectus should not be regarded as a representation by the Issuer, the Originator, the Lead Manager, the Servicers, or any of their respective affiliates or any other person or entity, of the results that actually will be achieved by the Issuer.

None of the Issuer, the Originator, the Lead Manager, the Servicers, or any of their respective affiliates, has any obligation to update or otherwise revise any projections, forecasts or estimates, including any revisions to reflect changes in economic conditions or other circumstances arising after the date of this Prospectus or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, even if the underlying assumptions do not hold true.

Potential Conflict of Interest

Each of the Transaction Parties (other than the Issuer), the Lead Manager and its affiliates in the course of each of their respective businesses may provide services to other Transaction Parties, to the Lead Manager and to third parties and in the course of the provision of such services it is possible that conflicts of interest may arise between such Transaction Parties, the Lead Manager and its affiliates or between such Transaction Parties, the Lead Manager and its affiliates and third parties. Each of the Transaction Parties (other than the Issuer), the Lead Manager and its affiliates may provide such services and enter into arrangements with any person without regard to or constraint as a result of any such conflicts of interest arising as a result of it being a Transaction Party or Lead Manager in respect of the transaction.

There can be no assurance that no conflicts of interest will arise and that, when any conflicts of interest arise, the Transaction Parties (other than the Issuer), the Lead Manager and its affiliates will act in the best interests of the Issuer or that conflicts of interest will be resolved in the favour of the Issuer. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the Notes will not be adversely affected in case of any conflicts of interest that arise between such parties or between them and third parties.

Adequacy of the Investment

The Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors. Each potential investor in the Notes must determine the suitability of that investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor should:

- (a) have sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the relevant Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the relevant Notes and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Prospectus or any applicable supplement;
- (b) have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the relevant Notes and the impact such investment will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (c) have sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Notes, including where the currency for principal or interest payments is different from the currency in which such investor's financial activities are principally denominated;
- (d) understand thoroughly the terms of the relevant Notes and be familiar with the behaviour of any relevant indices and financial markets; and
- (e) be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

Legal investment considerations may restrict certain investments

The investment activities of certain investors are subject to legal investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. Each potential investor should consult its legal advisers to determine whether and to what extent (i) Notes are legal investments for it, (ii) Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowing and (iii) other restrictions apply to its purchase or pledge of any Notes. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisers or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules.

The Issuer believes that the risks described above are certain of the principal risks inherent in the transaction for Noteholders but the inability of the Issuer to pay interest or repay principal on the Notes may occur for other reasons and, accordingly, the Issuer does not represent that the above statements of the risks of holding the Notes are comprehensive. While the various structural elements described in this Prospectus are intended to lessen some of these risks for Noteholders there can be no assurance that these measures will be sufficient or effective to ensure payment to the Noteholders of interest or principal on the Notes on a timely basis or at all.

The Statistical Information should not be construed as either projections or predictions or as legal, tax, financial, investment or accounting advice. The average life of or the potential yields on any security cannot be predicted, because the actual rate of repayment on the underlying assets, as well as a number of other relevant factors, cannot be determined. No assurance can be given that the assumptions on which the possible average lives of or yields on the financial instruments are made will prove to be realistic. Therefore, information about possible average lives of, or yields on, the Securities must be viewed with considerable caution. Any historical information contained in this Prospectus is not indicative of future performance. Opinions and estimates (including statements or forecasts) constitute judgment as of the date indicated, are subject to change without notice and involve a number of assumptions which may not prove valid.

Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other important factors that could cause actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements are based on numerous assumptions regarding present and future business strategies and the relevant future business environment. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this Prospectus and the Lead Manager expressly disclaims to the fullest extent permitted by law any obligation or undertaking to disseminate any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements contained herein to reflect any change in expectations with regard thereto or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based. “TARGET2” means the Trans-European Automated Real-time Gross Settlement Express Transfer payment system which utilises a single shared platform and which was launched on 19 November 2007.

Unpaid Interest: Any unpaid amount on the Notes shall accrue additional interest at the Interest Rate applicable from time to time to the relevant Class of Notes until such unpaid amount is paid in full, as follows:

- (f) if there are any Deferred Interest Amount Arrears in respect of any class of Notes other than the Class A Notes on any Interest Payment Date (other than the Final Legal Maturity Date), such amounts shall not be regarded as due on such date and shall accrue interest during the Interest Period in which such Interest Payment Date falls;
- (g) any Deferred Interest Amount Arrears shall bear interest during the period from (and including) the Interest Payment Date upon which such Deferred Interest Amount Arrears is deferred to (and excluding) the date upon which the obligations of the Issuer to pay any Deferred Interest Amount Arrears is discharged. Interest on such Deferred Interest Amount Arrears shall accrue from day to day at the Interest Rate from time to time applicable to the relevant Class of Notes and shall be due and payable in accordance with Condition 7 (Notes Interest Amount) or on such other date or dates as the Common Representative may specify by written notice to the Issuer.

For the purposes of the above, “Deferred Interest Amount Arrears” means in respect of each Class of Notes on any Interest Payment Date, any Interest Amount in respect of such class which is due but not paid as

Final Redemption: Unless the Notes have previously been redeemed in full as described in Condition 9 (Final Redemption, Mandatory Redemption in Part and Optional Redemption), the Notes will be redeemed by the Issuer on the Final Legal Maturity Date at their Principal Amount Outstanding.

If any of the Notes in a Class cannot be redeemed in full on the Final Legal Maturity Date as a result of the Issuer having insufficient amounts of Available Distribution Amount on the Final Legal Maturity Date for such purpose, the amount of any principal then unpaid in respect of such Notes shall be cancelled.

Final Legal Maturity Date: The Interest Payment Date falling on November 2037.

Authorised Investments: The Issuer has the right to make certain interim investments of money standing to the credit of the Payment Account, and the Issuer will do so if and when such Authorised Investment has been duly approved by a prior resolution of the Servicing Committee. The investments must comply with the requirements set out in Regulation no. 12/2002 of the CMVM and meet such other requirements, including appropriate ratings, as set out in the Accounts Agreement, depending on the term of the investment and the term of the investment instrument.

Taxation in respect of the Notes: Repayment of principal, if applicable, and payment of interest and other amounts due under the Notes will be subject to income taxes, including applicable withholding taxes (if any), and other taxes (if any) and neither the Issuer nor any other person will be obliged to pay additional amounts in relation thereto.

Income generated by the holding (distributions) or transfer (capital gains) of the Notes is generally subject to Portuguese tax for securitisation debt notes (“obrigações”) if the holder is a Portuguese resident or has a permanent establishment in Portugal to which the income might be attributable. Pursuant to Decree-Law 193/2005, any payments of interest made in respect of the Notes to Noteholders who are not Portuguese residents and do not have a permanent establishment in Portugal to which the income might be attributable will be exempt from Portuguese income tax provided the requirements and procedures for the evidence of non-residence are complied with. The above-mentioned exemption from income tax does not apply to non-resident individuals or companies if the individual’s or company’s country of residence is any of the jurisdictions listed as tax havens in Ministerial Order no. 150/2004, of 13 February 2004 (as amended) and, in the case of application of Decree-Law 193/2005, with which Portugal does not have a double tax treaty in force or a tax information exchange agreement in force.

Regulatory Capital Requirements:

Articles 405 to 410 of Regulation (EU) No. 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms and amending Regulation (EU) No. 648/2012 (the “CRR”), as supplemented by Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) No. 625/2014, of 13 March 2014, and including any regulatory technical standards and any implementing technical standards issued by the European Banking Authority or any successor body, from time to time, and Bank of Portugal Notice (Aviso) 9/2010 (“Notice 9/2010”) place an obligation on a credit institution or investment firm that is subject to the CRR (a “CRR Institution”) which assumes exposure to the credit risk in a securitisation transaction (as defined in article 4(1)(61) of the CRR) to ensure that the originator, sponsor or original lender has explicitly disclosed that it will retain, on an ongoing basis, a material net economic interest in the securitisation of not less than 5 (five) per cent. of the nominal amount of the securitised exposures. There shall be no arrangements, on the Closing Date or thereafter pursuant to which such material net economic interest (by selling or hedging it or otherwise) will decline over time materially faster than such securitised exposures, although it may be reduced over time by, amongst other things, amortisation and allocation of losses or defaults on the underlying securitised exposures.

(See “Risk Factors” — “Compliance with articles 405 to 410 of the CRR, articles 51 and 52 of the AIFMR, articles 254 and 256 of the Solvency II Implementing Rules and Bank of Portugal Notice 9/2010”, and “Changes to European Securitisation Framework”).

Also, the provisions of Section 5 of Chapter III of Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) No. 231/2013 of 19 December 2012 supplementing Directive 2011/61/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council with regard to exemptions, general operating conditions, depositaries, leverage, transparency and supervision, referred to as the Alternative Investment Fund Manager Regulation (the “AIFMR”) and the provisions of Chapter VIII of Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2015/35, of 10 October 2014 (the “Solvency II Implementing Rules”) provide for due diligence requirements to be undertaken by, respectively, alternative investment fund managers required to be authorised under the AIFMD and insurance or reinsurance undertakings which assume exposure to the credit risk of a securitisation, as well as apply to them, respectively, restrictions on the investment in securities and other financial instruments originated through securitisation, in relation to risk retention requirements. While such requirements are similar to those which apply pursuant to articles 405 to 410 of the CRR, they are not identical and, in particular, additional due diligence obligations apply to the relevant alternative investment funds managers and insurance or reinsurance undertakings.

Articles 405 to 410 of the CRR, articles 51 and 52 of the AIFMR, articles 254 and 256 of the Solvency II Implementing Rules and Notice 9/2010 also place an obligation on CRR Institutions, alternative investment fund managers and insurance and reinsurance undertakings, respectively, before investing in a securitisation transaction and thereafter, to analyse, understand and stress test their securitisation positions, and monitor on an ongoing basis and in timely manner performance information on the exposures underlying their securitisation positions.

No Purchase of Notes by the Issuer:

The Issuer may not at any time purchase any of the Notes.

Rating:

The Rated Notes are expected on issue to be assigned the following ratings by the Rating Agencies:

	DBRS	Moody's
Class A Notes	BBB(sf)	Baa3(sf)
Class B Notes	B(low)(sf)	Caa3(sf)

A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision, suspension or withdrawal at any time by the Rating Agencies.

The ratings take into consideration the characteristics of the Receivables and the structural, legal and tax aspects associated with the Class A Notes and the Class B Notes, including the nature of the underlying assets.

Optional Redemption in Whole:

Subject to the provisions of the Securitisation Law in force (and notably article 45(2)(a) thereof, since generally all the Receivables are non-performing credits), and of Condition 9 (Final Redemption, Mandatory Redemption in Part and Optional Redemption), the Issuer may redeem all (but not some only) of the Notes in each Class at their Principal Amount Outstanding together with accrued interest on any Interest Payment Date:

- (a) when, on the Calculation Date immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date, the Adjusted Aggregate Principal Outstanding Balance of the Receivables is equal to or less than 10 (ten) per cent. of the Adjusted Aggregate Principal Outstanding Balance of all of the Receivables as at the Collateral Determination Date; or
- (b) after the date on which, by virtue of a change in Tax law of the Issuer's Jurisdiction (or the application or official interpretation of such Tax law), the Issuer would be required to make a Tax Deduction from any payment in respect of the Notes (other than by reason of the relevant Noteholder having some connection with the Portuguese Republic, other than the holding of the Notes); or

- (c) after the date on which, by virtue of a change in the Tax law of the Issuer's Jurisdiction (or the application or official interpretation of such Tax law), the Issuer would not be entitled to relief for the purposes of such Tax law for any material amount which it is obliged to pay, or the Issuer would be treated as receiving for the purposes of such Tax law any material amount which it is not entitled to receive under the Transaction Documents; or
- (d) after the date of a change in the Tax law of the Issuer's Jurisdiction (or the application or official interpretation of such Tax law) which would cause the total amount payable in respect of any of the Notes to cease to be receivable by the Noteholders including as a result of any of the Borrowers being obliged to make a Tax Deduction in respect of any payment in relation to any Receivables or the Issuer being obliged to make a Tax Deduction in respect of any payment in relation to any Note, provided that, if on such Interest Payment Date the funds available to the Issuer are not sufficient to redeem the Class J Notes at their Principal Amount Outstanding, the Class J Notes shall be deemed to be redeemed in full and all the claims of the Class J Noteholders for any shortfall in the Principal Amount Outstanding of the Class J Notes shall be extinguished.

Redemption in whole of the Notes by the Issuer referred to in any of the items above may only occur provided that the relevant assignment of credits by the Issuer under article 45 of the Securitisation Law fully complies with the Bid Process and is monitored by the Monitoring Agent and approved by the Servicing Committee.

For the purposes of (a) above, "Adjusted Aggregate Principal Outstanding Balance" means the Aggregate Principal Outstanding Balance multiplied by the Discount Factor, and "Discount Factor" means the result of the division of the Purchase Price by the Aggregate Principal Outstanding Balance of the Receivables as at the Collateral Determination Date.

Junior Noteholder Put Option:

Subject to the provisions of the Securitisation Law in force and of Condition 9 (Final Redemption, Mandatory Redemption in Part and Optional Redemption), the Issuer may redeem all (but not some only) of the Notes in each Class at their Principal Amount Outstanding together with accrued interest on any Interest Payment Date, provided that the following conditions are met (the "Put Option Conditions"):

- (a) the Issuer has received from the majority of the Class J Noteholders a written resolution confirming that the Class J Noteholders are exercising their option (the "Junior Noteholder Put Option") to decide to have all (but not some only) of the Notes redeemed at their Principal Amount Outstanding;

- (b) the Issuer has received confirmation from the Transaction Manager that it will have the necessary available funds in the Available Distribution Amount to discharge all its outstanding liabilities in respect of the Notes and all amounts required under the relevant Payment Priorities to be paid in priority or pari passu with the Notes;
- (c) such confirmation from the Transaction Manager as described in item (b) above is evidence acceptable to the Common Representative that the Available Distribution Amount is sufficient to redeem all (but not some only) of the Notes in accordance with the relevant Payment Priorities; and
- (d) the Class J Noteholders exercising the Junior Noteholder Put Option have established to the satisfaction of the Issuer that they hold the relevant Class J Notes on the date on which the Junior Noteholder Put Option is exercised and that they will be the holders of such Class J Notes on the Put Option Date;
- (e) the exercise of the Junior Noteholder Put Option by the Class J Noteholder is valid to discharge all of the Issuer's obligations under or in connection with the Notes towards the Noteholders and the Transaction Creditors pursuant to Condition 9 (Final Redemption, Mandatory Redemption in part and Optional Redemption) and confirmation that funds are available to the Issuer to meet its payment obligations of a higher or equal priority;
- (f) the exercise of the Junior Noteholder Put Option satisfies all the applicable legal requirements, including the ones arising under the Securitisation Law, notably under article 45 thereof;
- (g) the assignment of the Receivables Portfolio for the purposes of the exercise of the Junior Noteholder Put Option complies with the Bid Process and is monitored by the Monitoring Agent and approved by the Servicing Committee, and subject to the reception of a certificate (in form and substance satisfactory to it) signed on behalf of the Transaction Manager confirming that all Put Option Conditions have been or will be duly met up to the relevant Interest Payment Date, the Issuer shall give not more than 60 (sixty) nor less than 30 (thirty) days' notice to the Common Representative, the Transaction Manager, the Principal Paying Agent, the Noteholders, the Cap Counterparty and the Rating Agencies of the exercise of the Junior Noteholder Put Option.

It is expressly stated and agreed that the exercise of the Junior Noteholder Put Option by the Class J Noteholder shall be conditional upon there being sufficient funds to redeem the Notes, and the Issuer shall have no obligation whatsoever to actually redeem the Notes in the event that there are no such sufficient funds, and the Issuer shall not be obliged to use any efforts to procure that such sufficient funds are made available to it. In case the Notes are not redeemed on the relevant

Interest Payment Date, the exercise of the Put Option will become ineffective, which shall not affect the Class J Noteholders' right to exercise further Junior Noteholder Put Option in accordance with the terms of Condition 9 (Final Redemption, Mandatory Redemption in part and Optional Redemption).

Under the provisions of Condition 9 (Final Redemption, Mandatory Redemption in part and Optional Redemption), the Class A Noteholders and the Class B Noteholders acknowledge, agree and confirm that, subject to the satisfaction of the Put Option Conditions, the Issuer may redeem all (but not some only) of the Notes upon the exercise of the Junior Noteholder Put Option.

OVERVIEW OF THE TRANSACTION

- Purchase of Receivables: Under the terms of the Receivables Sale Agreement and pursuant to article 4(1) of the Securitisation Law, the Originator has assigned to the Issuer and the Issuer has, subject to satisfaction of the applicable conditions precedent, purchased from the Originator a portfolio of receivables (the “Receivables Portfolio”) on 2 November 2017 (the “Closing Date”).
- The Receivables: The Receivables assigned to the Issuer consist essentially of defaulted and non-performing term loans (i.e. loans where one or more interest or principal payments was not made when due, in accordance with the Portuguese law, which is the applicable contract law), including consumer loans, consumer revolving credit facilities (open loans) or credit card facilities, residential secured loans, overdrafts, corporate secured loans and unsecured loans granted by the Originator to a Borrower, together with such rights, interest and claims of the Originator under the corresponding Receivables Agreement.
- The Receivables Portfolio also includes certain unsecured loans that represent a small portion of the portfolio and the corresponding cash flows are therefore expected to be minimal when compared to those that are expected to be generated by the Secured Receivables. The structuring of the Évora transaction required the Originator’s group to purchase the Asset Manager and to subsequently sell it to Évora Asset Management Holdings DAC. Such structuring also required the Originator to grant a €70,500.00 (seventy thousand and five hundred euros) unsecured loan, pursuant to a loan agreement (the “Loan Agreement”), which allowed Évora Asset Management Holdings DAC, as borrower, to purchase the shares of the Asset Manager. The Originator assigned to the Issuer, as part of the Receivables Portfolio, the receivables arising under such loan (See “Characteristics of the Receivables Portfolio”).
- The Receivables are interest-bearing receivables. The Receivables Agreements are denominated in euro and governed by Portuguese law. Borrowers are corporates or individuals domiciled in the Portuguese jurisdiction.
- Consideration for Purchase of the Receivables Portfolio: In consideration for the assignment of the Receivables Portfolio on the Closing Date, the Issuer has paid the Purchase Price (as defined below - see “Overview of Certain Transaction Documents – Receivables Sale Agreement”) to the Originator.
- “Purchase Price” means the amount paid by the Issuer to the Originator in consideration for the Receivables Portfolio pursuant to the Receivables Sale Agreement, corresponding to €172,047,847.79 (one hundred seventy-two million, forty-seven thousand, eight hundred and forty-seven euros and seventy nine cents).

Use of Proceeds: On or about the Closing Date, the Issuer applied the gross proceeds of the Notes solely towards the payment of the Purchase Price of the Receivables included in the Receivables Portfolio and the payment of the Cap Premium to the Cap Counterparty.

Ancillary Receivables Rights: The sale and assignment of the Receivables Portfolio included, both pursuant to Portuguese law and the Receivables Sale Agreement, the sale and transfer of the Ancillary Receivables Rights held by the Originator.

“Ancillary Receivables Rights” means, in respect to each Receivable:

- (a) all monies and proceeds other than principal payable or to become payable under, in respect of or pursuant to such Receivable including, without limitation, any sum owed by way of interest charges, late payment charges, extension or collection fees and any security granted in relation to the Receivable including, without limitation pledges and other real or personal security of any description securing the payment of the relevant Receivable;
- (b) the benefit of all rights, title, interests, privileges and related rights concerning the Receivables, including, without limitation, any sum owed by way of principal, interest and overdue interest, ancillary rights and any security or collateral, but not any obligations, covenants, undertakings, representations, warranties and indemnities in favour of the Seller contained in or relating to such Receivable including, without limitation, those contained in the relevant Receivables Agreement;
- (c) all causes and rights of action (present and future) against any person relating to such Receivable including, without limitation, such causes and rights of action arising under the Receivables Agreement and including the benefit of all powers and remedies for enforcing or protecting the Seller’s right, title, interest and benefit in respect of such Receivable;
- (d) all Records in respect thereof;
- (e) all Collections in respect thereof; and
- (f) all other proceeds of any of the foregoing, but excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any amounts resulting from court deposits (depósitos de preço) made by the Originator in relation to the Receivables in the context of the relevant pending Court Proceedings.

Eligibility Criteria: On the Closing Date, the Originator and Seller has represented and warranted that the Receivables comprised within the Receivables Portfolio comply with the eligibility criteria contained in Schedule 1, Part B (Receivables Representations and Warranties of the Seller) of the Receivables Sale Agreement.

Servicing of the Receivables Portfolio:

Pursuant to the terms of the Secured Servicing Agreement and the Unsecured Servicing Agreement, as applicable, each Servicer (Whitestar as Secured Servicer and HG PT as Unsecured Servicer, respectively) has agreed to administer and service, on behalf of the Issuer, the relevant Receivables sold and assigned by the Originator to the Issuer and, in particular, to:

- (a) collect the Receivables due in respect thereof;
- (b) administer relationships with Borrowers;
- (c) undertake and carry on enforcement proceedings in respect of any Borrowers which have defaulted on their obligations under the relevant Receivables Agreement.

Asset Management of certain Receivables:

Under the terms of the Asset Management Agreement, the Asset Manager has agreed to provide certain asset management services in relation to certain Receivables, including, but not limited to:

- (a) undertake and carry on enforcement proceedings in respect of the Receivables assigned to the Asset Manager;
- (b) repossession and disposal of any Properties related to such assigned Receivables;
- (c) deliver the realisation proceeds of such Properties to the assignor of such Receivables.

Under the Secured Servicing Agreement and the Asset Management Agreement, the Secured Servicer shall assist the Asset Manager in respect of the above.

Assignment of Receivables and Seller Allocated Properties to Asset Manager:

For the purposes of real estate repossession and disposal under the Asset Management Agreement, and in accordance with article 45(2)(a) of the Securitisation Law, certain Secured Receivables have been assigned by means of public deed to the Asset Manager on the Closing Date and further Receivables may be assigned to the Asset Manager on subsequent dates. As at the present date, no further assignments have occurred.

Under the terms of the Asset Management Agreement, the Seller acknowledges that the Seller Allocated Properties relate to Receivables which were assigned to the Issuer and that, under the terms of the Receivables Sale Agreement, belong de facto to the Issuer, even though they may still be registered in the name of the Seller. Consequently, the Seller Allocated Properties have been/will be transferred by the Seller to the Asset Manager.

In order for the assignment of the Receivables to the Asset Manager to be effective, under the terms of the Asset Management Agreement, the Asset Manager shall acquire the relevant Receivables and thus: (i) assignment notices will be sent to borrowers by the Issuer; (ii) relevant filings with the Portuguese land registry office will be executed, and (iii) the relevant empowerment application (incidente de habilitação) in the relevant court proceedings for the purposes of bidding and acquiring the Properties will be effected. With regard to the Secured Receivables already assigned to the Asset Manager, all assignment notices have been sent, all filings with the Portuguese land registry office have been submitted and all relevant empowerment application have been filed.

Upon judicial award of the Property related to such Receivable, the Asset Manager shall dispose such Property and shall deliver the amount corresponding to the realisation proceeds of such Properties to the Issuer, which shall be treated as Collections.

Under the Secured Servicing Agreement and the Asset Management Agreement, the Secured Servicer shall assist the Asset Manager in respect of the above.

Servicing Committee:

The Class B Noteholders and Class J Noteholders shall appoint a committee (the “Servicing Committee”) which shall exercise powers, authorities, and discretion in relation to certain specific matters related to the servicing of the Receivables Portfolio and in accordance with the Servicing Committee Rules, the Conditions and the other Transaction Documents.

Prospective Noteholders should be aware that each member of the Servicing Committee will represent the interest of the relevant Class B or Class J Noteholders by which it has been appointed.

Pursuant to the Servicing Committee Rules, the Servicing Committee is empowered to analyse and resolve on a variety of matters, inter alia:

- a) the approval of the organisation of a competitive bid process to sell the Receivables Portfolio or any Receivable;
- b) the authorisation to terminate the appointment of any Servicer or the Asset Manager and replace any of them with another entity, provided the Class A Noteholders are notified and do not oppose the decision;
- c) the authorisation to amend any Receivables Servicing Agreement or the Asset Management Agreement, provided the Class A Noteholders are notified and do not oppose the decision;
- d) the approval of the sale of any Receivables to third parties pursuant to the Receivables Servicing Agreement, under specific conditions.

For further information on the attributions of the Servicing Committee please see section “Overview of Certain Transaction Documents – Servicing Committee Rules”.

Under the Servicing Committee Rules and the Monitoring Agent Appointment Agreement, certain matters shall be submitted to the Monitoring Agent, together with a report of the relevant Servicer containing such Servicer’s reasoned opinion, for the relevant submission to the Servicing Committee.

This includes (i) a written communication sent by the relevant Servicer to the Servicing Committee and the Monitoring Agent, in case the Receivables Recovery Expenses have reached the Maximum Amount, and additional expenses are requested and deemed necessary by such Servicer for the recovery of the claims in respect of the Receivables, after which the Servicing Committee will promptly resolve on the matter and the Monitoring Agent will immediately inform the relevant Servicer on the outcome of such resolution; and (ii) in relation to a given Receivable, any enforcement or settlement which do not comply with the applicable Set of Procedures (as identified in the relevant Receivables Servicing Agreement), but which deemed to be acceptable by the relevant Servicer.

In respect of (ii) above, upon submission to the Servicing Committee by the Monitoring Agent and decision of the Servicing Committee (in accordance with the Servicing Committee Rules), the relevant Servicer may, in the name and on behalf of the Issuer, assign to a third-party purchaser such Receivable, subject to the following cumulative requirements:

- (a) confirmation is provided to the Issuer from such Servicer that the relevant assignment of such Receivable to a third-party purchaser is, according to a cautious and reasonable assessment performed with the upmost professional care, in accordance with clause 5 (Standard of Care and Performance) of the relevant Receivables Servicing Agreement, the most convenient and effective opportunity under an economic perspective for the recovery and collection of the monies arising thereunder;
- (b) the relevant assignment of such Receivable to a third-party purchaser is a credit assignment agreement (contrato de cessão de créditos) under article 577 of the Portuguese Civil Code and article 45(2)(a) of the Securitisation Law;
- (c) the transfer of the relevant Receivable is effective between the Issuer and the third-party purchaser upon payment of the relevant purchase price;
- (d) (i) the purchase price of the relevant Receivable shall not be lower than Target Price of such Receivable and (ii) the relevant sale of Receivables does not exceed 2% (two per cent.) of the Target Price in respect of the Receivables Portfolio (provided that in case the requirement specified in (ii) is not fulfilled, the Monitoring Agent may, upon the prior approval and instruction of the Servicing Committee, waive this requirement and inform that the relevant assignment of the Receivable is authorised, in accordance with the relevant Receivables Servicing Agreement);
- (e) the proceeds of such assignment shall be deemed Transferred Receivables Available Proceeds for the purposes of the Available Distribution Amount.

In accordance with the Transaction Documents, the Issuer, the Common

Representative, the Servicers, the Monitoring Agent and the other Transaction Parties have:

- i) acknowledged to be fully aware and to accept without reservations the Servicing Committee Rules;
- ii) agreed that any resolutions duly taken by the Servicing Committee under and in accordance with the terms of the Servicing Committee Rules shall be binding and enforceable on each of them.

Monitoring Agent:

Under the Monitoring Agent Appointment Agreement, the Monitoring Agent will agree to perform certain services on behalf of the Issuer in relation to the servicing of the Receivables Portfolio, namely:

- (a) to supervise the servicing of the Receivables Portfolio by the Servicers;
- (b) to determine whether a Subordination Event has occurred, in accordance with the provisions of the relevant Receivables Servicing Agreement;
- (c) to monitor any Bid Process for the sale of the Receivables Portfolio;
- (d) to liaise with and to submit to the Servicing Committee all specific matters required to be analysed and resolved by the Servicing Committee under the terms of the Servicing Committee Rules.

Subordination Event:

Means any of the following, in respect of a given Interest Payments Date:

- (a) the Cumulative Collection Ratio as indicated in the Investor Report immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date is lower than 90% (ninety per cent.); or
- (b) the NPV Cumulative Profitability Ratio as indicated in the Investor Report immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date is lower than 90% (ninety per cent.); or
- (c) the amount paid by the Issuer as interest on the Class A Notes is lower than the relevant Interest Amount due on the Class A Notes, upon which the Monitoring Agent shall send a notice of occurrence of a Subordination Event to the Issuer, the Servicers, the Lead Manager, the Common Representative, the Cap Counterparty, the Transaction Manager and the Servicing Committee. For the sake of clarity, the occurrence of a Subordination Event shall be assessed in respect of each Interest Payment Date separately.

For the above purposes, in respect of (b):

References to “Investor Report” are references to any Investor Report issued by the Transaction Manager.

“Cumulative Collection Ratio” means, in respect of an Interest Payment Date the percentage aggregate ratio, as indicated in the immediately preceding Investor Report between: (i) the aggregate Net Collections received on or after the Closing Date and (ii) the aggregate Net Expected Collections expected to be received on or after the Closing Date.

“Net Collections” means, for a given Collection Period, the difference between (i) the gross Collections in each relevant Collection Period, and (ii) the Receivables Recovery Expenses. For the purpose of this definition, “Collections” includes only those Realisation Values which have been effectively collected and delivered by the Asset Manager to the Issuer (and not Realisation Values still to be collected, such as cash in court);

“Net Expected Collections” means, for a given Collection Period, the difference between (i) the expected gross Collections and (ii) the expected Receivables Recovery Expenses for such Receivables, both up to the end of the immediately preceding Collection Period in accordance with the relevant Business Plan (which is attached as Schedule 8 (Business Plan) to each Receivables Servicing Agreement). For the purpose of this definition, “Collections” includes only those Realisation Values which have been effectively collected and delivered by the Asset Manager to the Issuer (and not Realisation Values still to be collected, such as cash in court). The amount of the Net Expected Collections is attached as Schedule 6 (Net Expected Collections) to the Master Framework Agreement;

“NPV Cumulative Profitability Ratio” means, in respect of each Interest Payment Date, the aggregate ratio indicated in the immediately preceding Investor Report between (i) the sum of the NPV of the Net Collections received on or after the Closing Date of all Debt Relationships which are Exhausted Debt Relationships, and (ii) the sum of the Target Price of all Debt Relationships which are Exhausted Debt Relationships;

“NPV” means the amount calculated according to the following formula:

$$\text{NPV}(X) = X / ((1+i)^{(t/360)})$$

where:

“i”=Discount Factor

“t”=means the number of days passed between the date on which the X amount is collected or paid and the Closing Date, assuming that all the Collections are received on the last day of the Collection Period in which they occur or are anticipated to occur.

“Discount Factor” means 3.5% (three point five per cent.).

“Target Price” means the NPV of Net Collections to be received on or after the Closing Date in respect of a Debt Relationship as calculated at a rate equal to a Discount Factor and on the basis of the Business Plan, as determined prior to the Closing Date and set out in Schedule 8 (Business Plan) of the relevant Receivables Servicing Agreement, for the Receivables to be serviced by the relevant Servicer.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Target Price in respect of a Debt Relationship is set out in Schedule 8 (Business Plan) of the relevant Receivables Servicing Agreement, which has been determined as the NPV of the net collections as of each Interest Payment Date on the basis of the relevant Business Plan on the Closing Date.

“Debt Relationship” means the aggregate of all Receivables pertaining to the same Borrower.

“Exhausted Debt Relationship” means a Debt Relationship which the relevant Servicer considers to be exhausted (either following being collected in full or sold or written off or for any other reason, including for having received an instruction from the Servicing Committee to classify it as exhausted), in accordance with the conditions foreseen in the relevant Receivables Servicing Agreement.

Servicer Reporting:

Whitestar and HG PT, in their capacity of Secured Servicer and Unsecured Servicer, respectively, will each be required to deliver to the Transaction Manager and Report Recipients (i.e., the Issuer, the Noteholders, the Common Representative, whenever appointed, the Monitoring Agent, the Arranger and the Rating Agencies, if applicable) no later than 10 (ten) Business Days after the end of the relevant Collection Period, a report in the form agreed in the relevant Receivables Servicing Agreement (each a “Servicer Report”) relating to the period from the last date covered by the previous Servicer Report.

Each Servicer Report will form part of an investor report in the form to be agreed with the Issuer and the Transaction Manager under the Paying Agency and Transaction Management Agreement (the “Investor Report”) to be delivered to the Issuer, the Sole Noteholder (or the Common Representative (whenever appointed), the Lead Manager, the Rating Agencies, the Cap Counterparty and the Agents no later than 6 (six) Business Days prior to each Interest Payment Date.

The Investor Report and Servicers Reports will be made available on Bloomberg. Each Investor Report shall also be available at the specified offices of the Common Representative and the Principal Paying Agent, the registered office of the Issuer and on the Transaction Manager’s website currently located at sf.citidirect.com.

Collections Accounts:

The Secured Collections Account and the Unsecured Collections Account have been opened, on or about the Closing Date, with the Collection Accounts Bank in the name of the Issuer and the Servicers shall operate each corresponding account in accordance with the relevant Receivables Servicing Agreement, including by not giving any instruction which would cause the relevant Collection Account to become overdrawn.

Subject to the exception below, any amount credited to a Collections Account on a Business Day will be transferred by the relevant Servicer to the General Collections Account (i) on the same Business Day, if the relevant amount has been received by 11:00 am (Lisbon time) of such Business Day, or (ii) if relevant amount has been received thereafter, on the following Business Day.

If the relevant Servicer identifies an amount paid into the Collections Account as an Incorrect Payment on the same Business Day in which it was paid, the Servicer shall not be required to transfer that amount to the General Collections Account but may transfer it to the relevant recipient (to whom the Incorrect Payment amount is owed), provided that on that same Business Day the Servicer notifies the Issuer, the Accounts Bank and the Monitoring Agent, attaching sufficient proof that it was an Incorrect Payment.

The Secured Expenses Account and the Unsecured Expenses Accounts (each an “Expenses Account”) have been opened, on or about the Closing Date, with the Expenses Accounts Bank in the name of the Issuer and the Servicers shall operate each corresponding account in accordance with the relevant Receivables Servicing Agreement, including by not giving any instruction which would cause the relevant Expenses Account to become overdrawn.

On or about the Closing Date, the Secured Expenses Account have been credited with an amount up to €3,000,000.00 and the Unsecured Expenses Account with an amount up to €280,000.00. Such amounts have been funded from Interim Collections due to the Issuer by the Originator and paid by the latter into the Payment Account, out of which such amounts have been credited to the Expenses Account.

The Secured Expenses Account and the Unsecured Expenses Account are subject to specific required amounts (each an “Expenses Account Required Amount”), to be replenished from time to time, as follows:

“Secured Expenses Account Required Amount” means, as of the Closing Date, €1,000,000.00 (one million euros) and from and including the Interest Payment Date falling in November 2018, €300,000.00 (three thousand euros).

“Unsecured Expenses Account Required Amount” means, as of the Closing Date, €100,000.00 (one hundred thousand euros).

In case the balance of the Secured Expenses Account or the Unsecured Expenses Account, as applicable, is less than 50% (fifty per cent.) of the Secured Expenses Account Required Amount or the Unsecured Expenses Account Required Amount, as applicable, the relevant Servicer may request the Issuer that the Accounts Bank is instructed for a transfer to be made from the General Collections Account to replenish the balance of the Secured Expenses Account or the Unsecured Expenses Account, as applicable, up to the Secured Expenses Account Required Amount or the Unsecured Expenses Account Required Amount, as applicable. The relevant Servicer may request this at any time, except from the period between and including a Calculation Date and an Interest Payment Date. If, during such time, payments need to be made out of the Expenses Account, the Servicer may request a transfer from the General Collection Account in the exact amount of such required payments.

If there are insufficient funds standing to the credit of the General Collections Account to replenish the relevant Expenses Account to the respective Expenses Account Required Amount, the Issuer, or the Transaction Manager on its behalf, instructs the Accounts Bank to transfer funds from the Cash Reserve Account to replenish the relevant Expenses Account to such Expenses Account Required Amount, provided that any request shall only be made after an Interest Payment (or the Closing Date, where the first Interest Period is running) and to be paid before the next Calculation Date.

On 5:00 pm London time of the Business Day immediately preceding a Calculation Date, each Servicer shall inform the Issuer and the Transaction Manager of the amount standing to the credit of the relevant Expenses Account. The shortfall (if any) between the actual balance of the relevant Expenses Account and the relevant Expenses Account Required Amount as of a Calculation Date will be transferred from the Payment Account to the relevant Expenses Account on the following Interest Payment Date, as an Issuer Expense, in accordance with the applicable Payments Priorities.

All Receivables Recovery Expenses relating to Secured Receivables shall be paid by Whitestar as Secured Servicer by using the amounts standing to the credit of the Secured Expenses Account, which shall be used by such Servicer to cover up-front the Receivables Recovery Expenses incurred by such Servicer while acting under the Secured Receivables Servicing Agreement. Exceptionally, Incorrect Payment amounts, as provided under "Incorrect Payments" below, may be transferred from the Secured Expenses Account to the Secured Collections Account, for onwards delivery by the Secured Servicer to the relevant recipient.

All Receivables Recovery Expenses relating to Unsecured Receivables shall be paid by HG PT as Unsecured Servicer by using the amounts standing to the credit of the Unsecured Expenses Account, which shall be used by such Servicer to cover up-front the Receivables Recovery Expenses incurred by such Servicer while acting under the Unsecured Receivables Servicing Agreement. Exceptionally, Incorrect Payment amounts, as provided under "Incorrect Payments" below, may be transferred from the Unsecured Expenses Account to the Unsecured Collections Account, for onwards delivery by the Secured Servicer to the relevant recipient.

General Collections Account:

The General Collections Account has been opened, on or about the Closing Date, with the Accounts Bank in the name of the Issuer and shall be operated by the Issuer or the Transaction Manager on behalf of the Issuer in accordance with the Accounts Agreement, including by not giving any instruction which would cause the General Collection Account to become overdrawn.

The total amount standing to the credit of the General Collections Account as of the end of a Collection Period shall be credited to the Payment Account on the following Business Day. Accordingly, the amount to be transferred to the Payment Account on each such Business Day shall equal the Collections transferred to the General Collections Account on the relevant Collection Period less any amounts debited, in such Collection Period, from the General Collections Account to the Collections Accounts (in respect of any Incorrect Payments) or to any Expenses Account (to replenish it to the relevant Expenses Account Required Amount or as otherwise required to fund expenses payable between a Calculation Date and an Interest Payment Date).

A downgrade of the rating of the Accounts Bank by any of the Rating Agencies below the Minimum Rating will require the Issuer, with the Transaction Manager's assistance, to, within 30 calendar days, procure a successor accounts bank meeting the Minimum Rating in order to transfer the General Collections Account and the funds standing to the credit thereof to such bank within such time.

"Minimum Ratings" means, with respect to the Accounts Bank, in the case of DBRS, the higher of a rating one notch below the entity's long-term Critical Obligations Rating (COR) as determined by DBRS and a DBRS Long-Term Rating of BBB (low) or an entity's short-term, unsecured, unsubordinated and unguaranteed debt obligations being rated R-2 (middle) by DBRS, or, in the absence, a DBRS Equivalent Rating of BBB (low) and R-2 (middle) and in the case of Moody's, such entity's long-term, unsecured, unsubordinated and unguaranteed debt obligations being rated "Baa2" and such entity's short-term, unsecured, unsubordinated and unguaranteed debt obligations being rated "P2" by Moody's, or such other rating or ratings as may be agreed by the Rating Agencies from time to time as would maintain the then current ratings of the Rated Notes and the expression "Minimum Rating" shall (where appropriate) be construed accordingly.

Payment Account:

The Payment Account has been opened, on or about the Closing Date, with the Accounts Bank in the name of the Issuer and the Transaction Manager shall operate the Payment Account in accordance with the Accounts Agreement and the Paying Agency and Transaction Management Agreement, including by not giving any instruction which would cause the Payment Account to become overdrawn.

Funds will be debited from and credited to the Payment Account in accordance with the payment instructions of the Transaction Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, in accordance with the terms of the Paying Agency and Transaction Management Agreement and the Accounts Agreement.

A downgrade of the rating of the Accounts Bank by any of the Rating Agencies below the Minimum Rating will require the Issuer, with the Transaction Manager's assistance, to, within 30 calendar days, procure a successor accounts bank meeting the Minimum Rating in order to transfer the Payment Account and the funds standing to the credit thereof to such bank within such time.

Incorrect Payments:

If the relevant Servicer identifies an amount paid into a Collections Account as an Incorrect Payment on the same Business Day in which it was paid, the Servicer shall not be required to transfer that amount to the General Collections Account but may transfer it to the relevant recipient (to whom the Incorrect Payment amount is owed), provided that on that same Business Day the Servicer notifies the Issuer, the Accounts Bank and the Monitoring Agent, attaching sufficient proof that it was an Incorrect Payment.

Except as provided above, upon having identified an Incorrect Payment, the relevant Servicer shall promptly and in any case within 5 Business Days after such identification has taken place submit the relevant justified request to the Issuer, the Transaction Manager and the Monitoring Agent, in the form contained in Schedule 9 (Draft of Incorrect Payment Notification) to the relevant Servicing Agreement. If duly submitted, the Issuer or the Transaction Manager on its behalf will instruct the Accounts Bank to transfer the relevant Incorrect Payment amount from the General Collections Account to the relevant Collections Account (and upon such transfer the relevant Servicer shall deliver the Incorrect Payment amount to the relevant recipient).

If no sufficient funds are available at the General Collections to transfer the Incorrect Payment amount to the relevant Collections Account, the relevant Servicer may instruct the Expenses Accounts Bank to transfer the relevant amount from the relevant Expenses Account to the Collections Account (and upon such transfer the relevant Servicer shall deliver the Incorrect Payment amount to the relevant recipient).

Asset Management Account:

The Asset Management Account has been opened, on or about the Closing Date, with the Asset Management Account Bank in the name of the Asset Manager and the Asset Manager shall operate the Asset Management Account in accordance with the Asset Management Agreement, including by not giving any instruction which would cause the Asset Management Account to become overdrawn.

Transfers of amounts received in the Asset Management Account:

Any amounts paid into the Asset Management Account and relating to Properties shall on that same Business Day be transferred to the Payment Account, as directed by the Asset Manager.

Class R Note:

The Cash Reserve Account has been opened, on or about the Closing Date, with the Accounts Bank in the name of the Issuer, in accordance with the Accounts Agreement, into which an amount equal to €4,275,000.00 (four million two hundred and seventy-five thousand euros) (corresponding to the Cash Reserve Account Required Amount as of the Closing Date) has been transferred from the proceeds of the issue of the Class R Note.

“Cash Reserve Account Required Amount” means, on the Closing Date, €4,275,000.00 (four million two hundred and seventy five thousand euros) and, on each Interest Payment Date, an amount equal to 3% (three per cent.) of the Principal Amount Outstanding of the Rated Notes as of the Business Day following the immediately preceding Interest Payment Date (or, in respect of the First Interest Payment Date, on the Closing Date), provided that the Cash Reserve Account Required Amount will be equal to 0 (zero) on the earlier of:

- a) the Interest Payment Date on which the Class A Notes can be redeemed in full through the application of the Cash Reserve Amount or any other Available Distribution Amount, and
- b) the Final Legal Maturity Date or on the date on which all of the Notes are subject to any early redemption in whole, as applicable;

Funds will be debited and credited to the Cash Reserve Account in accordance with the payment instructions of the Transaction Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, in accordance with the terms of the Paying Agency and Transaction Management Agreement and the Accounts Agreement, including by not giving any instruction which would cause the Cash Reserve Account to become overdrawn.

A downgrade of the rating of the Accounts Bank by any of the Rating Agencies below the Minimum Rating will require the Issuer, with the Transaction Manager’s assistance, to, within 30 calendar days, procure a successor accounts bank meeting the Minimum Rating in order to transfer the Cash Reserve Account and the funds standing to the credit thereof to such bank within such time.

Replenishment of Cash Reserve Account:

On each Interest Payment Date, (i) all amounts standing to the credit of the Cash Reserve Account shall be deemed as Available Distribution Amount and distributed in accordance with the relevant Payment Priorities, and (ii) to the extent that monies are available for that purpose, amounts will be credited to the Cash Reserve Account in accordance with the Pre-Enforcement Payment Priorities up to the Cash Reserve Account Required Amount on such Interest Payment Date.

Cap Collateral Account:

- (a) all amounts credited or transferred, in respect of the Receivables Portfolio and in respect of the Collection Period immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date, into the Payment Account;
- (b) all amounts due and payable to the Issuer in respect of such Interest Payment Date under the terms of the Cap Transaction (if and to the extent paid) other than (1) any Collateral Amounts, any termination payment required to be made under the Cap Transaction, any collateral payable or transferable (as the case may be) under the Cap Transaction and any Replacement Cap Premium paid to the Issuer (which will not be available to the Issuer to make payments to its creditors generally, but may only be applied in accordance with the Cap Collateral Account Priority of Payments) and (2) any Cap Tax Credit Amounts (which amounts shall be paid when due in accordance with the Cap Transaction, without regard to the Cap Collateral Account Priority of Payments or any Payments Priorities). For the sake of clarity, no funds standing to the credit of the Cap Collateral Account will be part of the Available Distribution Amount;
- (c) all other amounts credited or transferred during the Collection Period immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date into the Payment Account;
- (d) all interest accrued in each of the Transaction Accounts and credited to such Transaction Accounts (except for the Cap Collateral Account) during the Collection Period immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date;

- (k) any amounts (other than the amounts already allocated under other items of the Available Distribution Amount) received by the Issuer from any party to the Transaction Documents during the Collection Period immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date, but excluding, for the avoidance of doubt:

- (a) the proceeds deriving from the transfer in whole or in part (if any) of the Receivables Portfolio pursuant to the Receivables Servicing Agreement, credited to the Payment Account, but which have not yet become Transferred Receivables Available Proceeds;

“Transferred Receivables Available Proceeds” means the proceeds deriving from the transfer in whole or in part (if any) of any Receivable (net of any indemnity amounts paid to the relevant third-party purchasers such as Receivables) pursuant to the Receivables Servicing Agreement, credited to the Payment Account, and in respect of which the latest Servicer Report indicates that more than six calendar months have elapsed from the date of relevant receipt by the Issuer. For the avoidance of doubt (to avoid any double-counting), any such Transferred Receivables Available Proceeds shall only fall under paragraph (i) of the definition of Available Distribution Amount and not any other paragraph thereunder.

Cap Transaction:

On or about the Issue Date, the Issuer has entered into a cap transaction (the “Cap Transaction”) with the Cap Counterparty.

Such Cap Transaction is governed by the 1992 International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. (“ISDA”) Master Agreement (Multicurrency – Cross Border) (the “Master Agreement”), the Schedule thereto (the “Schedule”) and the 1995 ISDA Credit Support Annex thereto (the “Credit Support Annex”) and a cap confirmation (the “Cap Confirmation”) and together with the Master Agreement, the Schedule and the Credit Support Annex, the “Cap Transaction”).

The Issuer entered into the Cap Transaction in order to hedge its floating interest rate exposure in relation to the Rated Notes. Under the Cap Transaction, the Cap Counterparty will be required to make a payment to the Issuer if for such Interest Payment Date, the rate of Six Month EURIBOR payable on the Notes exceeds the rate set out in the Cap Transaction. In return, the Issuer has paid a premium to the Cap Counterparty on or around the Issue Date.

The notional of the Cap Transaction will be the scheduled notional amount contained therein for the relevant Interest Period.

See “Overview of Certain Transaction Documents – Cap Transaction”.

Priorities of Payments:

Prior to the delivery of an Enforcement Notice, the Issuer is required to apply the Available Distribution Amount in accordance with the Pre-Enforcement Payment Priorities, provided that after the delivery of an Enforcement Notice, then all amounts received or recovered by the Issuer and/or the Common Representative will be applied in accordance with the Post-Enforcement Payment Priorities.

Pre-Enforcement Payment Priorities:

Prior to (i) the delivery of an Enforcement Notice, (ii) a redemption in whole of the Notes for taxation reasons pursuant to Condition 9.2 (Optional Redemption in whole for Taxation Reasons), or (iii) an optional redemption pursuant to Condition 9.3 (Junior Noteholder Put Option), the Available Distribution Amount shall be applied on each Interest Payment Date in making or providing for the following payments, in the following order of priority (the “Pre-Enforcement Payment Priorities”) (but in each case only to the extent that all payments or provisions of a higher priority that fall due to be paid or provided for on such Interest Payment Date have been made in full):

- (i) first, in or towards payment of the Issuer’s liability to Tax, in relation to this Transaction, if any;
- (ii) second, in or towards payment of the Common Representative’s Fees and the Common Representative’s Liabilities in relation to this Transaction;
- (iii) third, in or towards payment of the Issuer Expenses, pari passu and on a pro rata basis, to the extent not yet paid under items (i) and (ii) above;
- (iv) fourth, in or towards payment of interest due and payable on the Class R Note pursuant to the Class R Note Conditions;
- (v) fifth, in or towards payment, pari passu and on a pro rata basis, of the Interest Amount in respect of the Class A Notes on such Interest Payment Date, but so that interest past due will be paid before current interest;

- (vi) sixth, in or towards crediting of the Cash Reserve Account up to an amount equal to the Cash Reserve Account Required Amount;
- (vii) seventh, in or towards payment of principal due and payable on the Class R Note pursuant to the Class R Note Conditions, which payment shall be limited to the lower of (a) the principal amount outstanding under the Class R Note and (b) the amount by which the funds standing to the credit of the Cash Reserve Account as of the preceding Calculation Date exceed the Cash Reserve Account Required Amount under item (vi) above, provided that if such amount is negative, then this limb (b) shall be deemed zero;
- (viii) eighth, in or towards the payment, pari passu and on a pro rata basis, of the Interest Amount in respect of the Class B Notes, provided that a Subordination Event has not occurred in respect to such Interest Payment Date;
- (ix) ninth, in or towards payment, pari passu and on a pro rata basis, of the Principal Amount Outstanding of the Class A Notes until the Class A Notes have been redeemed in full;
- (x) tenth, upon occurrence of a Subordination Event in respect to such Interest Payment Date, in or towards payment, pari passu and on a pro rata basis, of the Interest Amount in respect of the Class B Notes;

- (xii) twelfth, in or towards payment of any amounts due and payable by the Issuer pursuant to the Subscription Agreement to the Notes Subscriber (including any amounts due and payable as indemnity);

- (xv) fifteenth, in or towards payment, pari passu and on a pro rata basis, of the Class J Return Amount.

For purposes of calculating the adjusted pro-rata between the Secured Servicer Junior Performance Fee and the Unsecured Servicer Junior Performance Fee and the Principal Amount Outstanding of the Class J Notes under item fourteenth of the Pre-Enforcement Payment Priorities above, the proportionate allocation shall be made by considering the calculation of principal amount outstanding of the Class J Notes as equal to: (i) the sum of the Target Price at Closing Date (as provided under Schedule 11 to the Receivables Servicing Agreements), less (ii) the principal notional of the Senior Notes at Closing, less (iii) the principal notional of the Mezzanine Notes at Closing Date and less (iv) the sum of all principal payments paid to the Class J Notes.

Provided, however, that should the Transaction Manager not receive the Servicer Report within 12 (twelve) Business Days after the end of the relevant Collection Period:

- (i) it shall prepare the Investor Report in respect of the immediately following Interest Payment Date by applying the Available Distribution Amount in an amount not higher than:
 - (a) the amounts standing to the credit of the Cash Reserve Account on the immediately preceding Interest Payment Date (after application of the Pre-Enforcement Payment Priorities on such Interest Payment Date), plus
 - (b) the aggregate amount corresponding to the profit and accrued interest received (up to the sixth Business Day preceding each relevant Interest Payment Date) under the Authorised Investments made out of the funds standing to the credit of the Payment Account since the last Calculation Date up to the relevant Calculation Date in accordance with the provisions of the Accounts Agreement and the Paying Agency and the Transaction Management Agreement, towards payment only of items from (i) to (v) (but excluding the Servicer Senior Fees due to the Servicer under item (iii) of the Pre-Enforcement Payment Priorities), and

- (ii) any amount that would otherwise have been payable under items from (vi) to (xv) of the Pre-Enforcement Payment Priorities will not be included in the relevant Investor Report and shall not be payable on the relevant Interest Payment Date and shall be payable (together with the relevant the Servicer Senior Fees) in accordance with the applicable Payment Priorities on the first following Interest Payment Date on which there are enough Available Distribution Amount and on which details for the relevant calculations will be timely provided to the Transaction Manager.

Post-Enforcement Payment

Following (i) the delivery of an Enforcement Notice, (ii) a redemption in whole of the Notes for taxation reasons pursuant to Condition 9.2 (Optional Redemption in whole for Taxation Reasons), or (iii) an optional redemption pursuant to Condition 9.3 (Junior Noteholder Put Option), all amounts received or recovered by the Issuer and/or the Common Representative will be applied by the Common Representative or the Transaction Manager or (if applicable) the Principal Paying Agent (in both cases on behalf of the Common Representative) in making the following payments in the following order of priority (the “Post-Enforcement Payment Priorities”) but in each case only to the extent that all payments of a higher priority have been made in full:

the Issuer will be authorised to search for potential purchasers of all (or part only) of the Receivables Portfolio, in order to enable the relevant Notes to be redeemed. For the sake of clarity, the foregoing is without prejudice to any disposals of Receivables to the Asset Manager in accordance with the Asset Management Agreement.

The Bid Process procedure shall be carried out in compliance with the best practices of the industry and in line with transparency standards, in order to maximize the purchase price of the Receivables Portfolio and the Issuer will be able to sell the Receivables Portfolio to the selected party only if the proceeds deriving from the sale of the Receivables Portfolio shall be sufficient to allow the Issuer, on the following Payment Date, to redeem:

Receivables Sale Agreement

Assignment of the Receivables Portfolio

Under the terms of the Receivables Sale Agreement the Originator sold and assigned to the Issuer, and the Issuer purchased and received from the Seller, the Receivables Portfolio, on the Closing Date.

Consideration for Purchase of the Receivables Portfolio

The total consideration paid by the Issuer to the Originator, on the Closing Date, for the purchase of the Receivables Portfolio corresponded to €172,047,847.79 (one hundred seventy-two million, forty-seven thousand, eight hundred and forty-seven euros and seventy-nine cents) (the “Purchase Price”) and was funded through the issuance of the Notes by the Issuer.

The sale and assignment of the Receivables Portfolio included, besides the secured and unsecured Receivables, the sale and transfer of the Ancillary Receivables Rights held by the Originator, with the exclusion of any amounts resulting from court deposits (“depósitos de preço”) made by the Originator in relation to the Receivables in the context of the relevant pending Court Proceedings.

Effectiveness of the Assignment

The assignment of the Receivables Portfolio by the Seller to the Issuer is governed by the Securitisation Law (see “Selected Aspects of Portuguese Law relevant to the Loans and the transfer of the Loans”).

In accordance with article 6(1) and article 7(2) both of the Securitisation Law, the assignment of the Assigned Rights, on the Closing Date, was effective to transfer full, unencumbered benefit of and right, title and interest (present or future) to the Assigned Rights to the Issuer and no further act, condition or thing will be required to be done in connection therewith to enable the Issuer to require payment of the Receivables arising thereunder to the Issuer or to enforce such right in court other than: (a) the delivery by the Originator of all Receivable Assignment Notices to the relevant Borrowers concerning the relevant assignments from the Originator to the Issuer (which were dispatched on or about the Closing Date); (b) the delivery by the Originator to the Issuer of written evidence of such dispatch of the relevant notices within 6 (six) Business Days as of the Closing Date; and, (c) the submission by the Issuer (or the Servicer on its behalf) of a request for registration of the assignment of any related Mortgage to the Issuer at the relevant Portuguese land registry office; and (c) the filing by the Issuer of the application for assignment of the procedural position and creditor substitution (incidente de habilitação) (which the Issuer shall apply for).

As at the date hereof, the process of updating the mortgages registration, to the name of the Issuer and/or the Asset Manager, as applicable, has been initiated by means of filing all relevant requests with the competent Portuguese land registry offices. The timing for completion of such registrations is uncertain since this depends on the performance of the Portuguese land registry office’s officials. Furthermore, assignment of the procedural position and creditor substitution (incidente de habilitação), either by the Issuer or the Asset Manager, as applicable, has been filed for all judicial files with each relevant Portuguese Court, but it cannot be anticipated when all requests will be duly approved since this depends on the performance of the Portuguese Courts.

Representations and Warranties as to the Receivables

On the Closing Date, the Seller made certain representations and warranties (Seller's Representations and Warranties, which include certain representations and warranties in respect of the Receivables Portfolio as contained in Schedule 1, Part B (Receivables Representations and Warranties of the Seller) of the Receivables Sale Agreement – the “Eligibility Criteria”), as follows:

1. Valid Obligations

Each Receivable is a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Borrower and of the respective guarantors, if any, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as such enforcement may be limited by applicable bankruptcy laws and other laws affecting creditor's rights in general.

2. Information relating to the Receivables Portfolio

All the information disclosed by the Seller to the Issuer prior to the Closing Date regarding each of the Receivables included in the Receivables Portfolio, including all information and data in relation to the Receivables Portfolio, and subsequent amendments thereto delivered by the Seller to the Issuer, was at the time of such delivery, true, complete, accurate, up to date and not misleading in any material respect.

3. Receivables Portfolio

The particulars as listed in both Schedule 4A and Schedule 4B of the Receivables Sale Agreement are true, complete, accurate and not misleading in respect of each of the corresponding Receivables and the reference numbers stated therein enable each Receivable to be identified in the records of the Seller, and, if applicable, in the relevant Real Estate Registry Office and the relevant courts on which the lawsuits corresponding to the enforcement of the Receivables are pending. The amount which the Issuer is entitled to claim in respect of each Receivable immediately following completion of the assignment of such Receivable, together with amounts standing in the respective VDC (valores diversos cobrados) accounts, if any, is not less than the Current Outstanding Principal Balance set out in respect of such Receivable in Schedule 4 (Receivables Portfolio) to the Receivables Sale Agreement.

4. Receivables

- (i) Each Receivable was originated by the Seller (or by Finibanco, S.A., the business of which has been purchased by the Seller) as principal in the ordinary course of business in accordance with all applicable laws and was originated in euro or Portuguese Escudos and is denominated in euro.
- (ii) Each Receivable is governed by Portuguese law.
- (iii) The Seller is under no obligation to make further amounts available or to release retentions or to pay fees or other sums relating to any Receivable or related security in respect thereof to any Borrower.
- (iv) Neither (a) the entry by the Seller into the Receivables Sale Agreement, nor (b) the disclosure by the Seller of the information disclosed by it in respect of the Receivables pursuant to the Receivables Sale Agreement affects or will adversely affect any Receivables or the Encumbrances in respect thereof.

5. Identity of Borrowers

At the date on which the Receivables were originally granted by the Seller (or by Finibanco, S.A., the business of which has been purchased by the Seller) to the Borrowers, the Borrowers named in the Receivables were either companies with registered office in Portugal (4024), in the United Kingdom (1), in the United States of America (1) and in Ireland (1) or private individuals resident in Portugal aged at least 18 years (or being an emancipated minor) at the date that he or she executed the relevant

6. Mortgages' Security

Each Mortgage which is foreseen in the relevant Receivables Agreement to exist, exists; and each Mortgage, when existing, secures the repayment of the principal component of the relevant Loan and up to 3 (three) years of all present or future accrued interest on such Receivable, to the extent applicable, and registered ancillary expenses corresponding to such Receivables, and the Seller has not consented to the cancellation or reduction in the amount of any Mortgage.

7. Security Ranking

Each Mortgage, when existing, as set out in Schedule 4A (Secured Receivables) of the Receivables Sale Agreement constitutes a valid, enforceable and subsisting mortgage, where identified, over the relevant Property, each duly registered with the competent Real Estate Registration Office in favour of the Seller constituting security for the performance of payment obligations under the Receivables, in the terms described in the information provided under Schedule 4A (Secured Receivables), and without prejudice to security created by laws affecting creditors' rights in general.

8. No Continuing Obligations

To the extent Court Proceedings have been commenced in relation to the non-performing Receivables included in the Receivables Portfolio, the relevant Receivable Agreements substantiating such non-performing Receivables have been accelerated (vencimento antecipado) or actions have been taken to accelerate (vencimento antecipado) the Receivables, or have been otherwise terminated.

9. No Further Disbursements

As to the performing Receivables included in the Receivables Portfolio, the Seller has no obligation to provide for any further advances or additional disbursements under the relevant Receivable Agreements substantiating such performing Receivables.

10. Property Location

Each of the Properties is located in Portugal.

11. Perfection of Title

All steps necessary to perfect the Seller's title to each Receivable, Mortgage and any other Ancillary Receivables Rights were duly taken and all related costs and fees have been paid for and no matter attributable to the Seller exists which would prevent the registration or recording of the Assigned Rights in the name of the Issuer promptly after the Closing Date. The Seller is not aware of any acts or circumstances that could otherwise prevent the registration or recording of the Assigned Rights in the name of the Issuer.

12. Records

The Seller has kept or procured the keeping of all documents, books, accounts and records required for the exercise of its respective rights in relation to the Receivables.

13. Complete Documentation

The Seller has delivered or will deliver to the Issuer all the documents relating to the Receivables, and will not keep any documents which may in any manner prevent the Issuer from exercising its rights in relation to the Receivables being assigned.

14. Good Title

The Seller has good title to each Receivable free from any Encumbrance and has not received any notice from any Borrower stating otherwise.

15. No Sale of Assigned Rights

The Seller has not, in whole or in part, assigned (whether outright or by way of security), transferred, sold, conveyed, discounted, novated, charged, pledged, disposed of, waived or dealt with the benefit of, or right, title and interest to, any of the Receivables in any way whatsoever and has not permitted any of the same to be seized, attached or subrogated and to the best of its knowledge after reasonable enquiry no such seizure, attachment or subrogation has been asserted by any party with respect to such Receivables, nor has the Seller entered into any arrangements with any Borrower or any other person which could materially restrict the Seller's (or, following the Closing Date, the Purchaser's) ability to enforce the terms of the Receivables or any Assigned Rights.

16. No Amendment or Waiver

Since the Collateral Determination Date and unless approved by the Issuer in writing, the Seller has not modified or amended any of the documents that create or secure the Receivables, nor waived any rights nor released any collateral (except by written documents disclosed to the Issuer).

17. Assignability

The Seller is not required to obtain any consent or approval and there is no restriction to assign the Receivables to the Issuer or enter into the transactions specified in the Receivables Sale Agreement or the Transaction Documents, which consent or approval has not been obtained. In particular, the Seller may freely assign or otherwise transfer its interests in the Receivables without breaching any term or condition applying to them.

18. Data Protection

In the transmission and treatment of personal data relating to the Receivables, the Seller has complied with all applicable laws and performed all the registrations required for the treatment and transmission of personal data.

19. Consumer Protection and Other Laws

The Seller has complied with all relevant applicable laws including the Portuguese consumer protection law, when originating, contracting and servicing the Receivables.

20. Set-off

As from the Collateral Determination Date onwards, no Receivable is subject to any right of set-off imposed by the respective Borrowers against the Seller. The Seller has complied with all its relevant contractual obligations in respect of the Receivables and therefore there should be no grounds for successful claims against the Seller in respect of same obligations. The Seller has not received any notice or claim in writing from any Borrower with contents that are contradictory with the terms of this paragraph 20 (Set-off), in particular where any rights of set-off, rescission or counter-claim under or in connection with any of the Receivables are stated or threatened to be made.

21. Judicial Proceedings

To the best of the Seller's knowledge, to the extent Court Proceedings have been commenced in relation to the Receivables included in the Receivables Portfolio, all such Court Proceedings relating to each Receivable have been commenced and pursued properly and the Seller has not failed to take any action necessary for the recovery of amounts due under or in respect of any Receivable or for the enforcement of any Encumbrance relating thereto, when applicable. No notification has been received by the Seller to the effect that the Receivables have been subject to any dispute, defence or counterclaim raised by the relevant Borrowers or other interested parties. All applicable stamp duties and registration taxes, if any, and all other associated costs, in relation to any Court Proceedings relating to the Receivables have been paid in full as they have become due and all professional fees and expenses, court fees and other expenses incurred or accrued up to (and including) the Closing Date have been paid as and when they have become due and payable or will be paid as and when they become due and payable.

22. Corruption and Money Laundering

The Seller has not engaged in any activity or conduct related to the Assigned Rights that has or will result in a violation of (i) any Anti-Corruption Laws; or (ii) Anti-Terrorism and Money Laundering Laws; or (iii) any applicable laws relating to economic or trade sanctions in any case as applicable to it.

23. Servicing

The Receivables have been serviced at all times in accordance with the practices of a Prudent Lender.

24. Interest Rates

Interest on each Receivable has been charged on each Receivable in accordance with the provisions of the Receivable. The Seller has not entered into any arrangement with any Borrower the effect of which would restrict the ability of the Seller to determine the rates of interest in relation to any Receivable or restrict the ability of the Seller to enforce the terms of any Receivable.

25. Fraud

No fraud has been committed by the Seller in respect of any Receivable, any Mortgage and any other Ancillary Receivables Rights.

Breach of Seller's Representations and Warranties

Notwithstanding the obligation of the Seller under the Receivables Sale Agreement to immediately notify the Issuer, upon becoming aware thereof of any breach of the Seller's Representation and Warranties, the Issuer may notify the Seller of a breach of any Seller's Representation and Warranties, at any time after it becomes aware of such breach and in any event no later than 30 (thirty) Business Days after becoming aware of such breach.

In the event that a breach of a Seller's Representations and Warranties occurs, the Issuer's claim shall be notified to the Seller in writing, within 24 (twenty-four) months after the Closing Date.

In the event that there is a breach of any of the Seller's Representation and Warranties in connection with a Receivable, which could (in the reasonable opinion of the Issuer) have a Material Adverse Effect on the existence, validity or enforceability (or the cost of such enforceability) of the Receivables, then:

- (a) if such breach is capable of remedy, the Seller shall, within 30 (thirty) Business Days after receipt of written notice of such breach from the Issuer, remedy such breach;
- (b) if such breach is not capable of remedy, or, if capable of remedy, is not remedied within the 30 (thirty) Business Day period referred to in the preceding paragraph, the Seller shall be under the obligation to repurchase the Affected Receivable in accordance with the terms provided for in article 45(2) of the Securitisation Law and shall be liable to pay any damages to the Issuer (the "Damages") equal to the sum of (A) the lower of (1) the purchase price of the Affected Receivable (as provided for under Schedule 10 (Purchase Price Breakdown) of the Receivables Sale Agreement and (2) the gross total recoveries of the Affected Receivable as projected in the Business Plan attached as Schedule 8 (Business Plan) of the relevant Receivables Servicing Agreement, (B) plus interest thereon at a rate per annum from the Closing Date until the date of payment of the Damages which is equal to the lesser of (i) six Month Euribor (as defined in the Conditions of the Notes) plus 3.5% (three point five per cent.) and (ii) 6% (six per cent.), (C) plus any duly grounded, justified and duly evidenced amounts spent directly or indirectly by the Issuer, in connection therewith, and (D) less any amount already received by the Issuer in respect of such Affected Receivable.

The Seller shall, on demand, within 10 (ten) Business Days after receipt of the corresponding notice, pay the amount of such Damages to a bank account specified by the Issuer.

Upon payment of any Damages by the Seller to the Issuer, the Issuer shall, at the Seller's request, retransfer the relevant Affected Receivable to the Seller (or a third party nominated by the Seller), via the execution of a Receivables retransfer agreement substantially in the form set forth in Schedule 7 (Form of Receivables Retransfer Agreement) to the Receivables Sale Agreement, with no consideration payable by the Issuer, except that the Seller must pay all costs of any such retransfer, if any.

Transfer of Realisation Value of Properties

Under the Receivables Sale Agreement, the Seller undertook that any realisation value (which is a Collection in relation to each relevant Receivable) related to any Property received from the court arising from a cash bid from any third party in the context of any Court Proceeding shall be promptly transferred to the Issuer by crediting it to the Secured Collections Account, within a maximum period of 5 (five) Business Days after such amount having been paid to the Seller and the Servicer having informed the Seller that it should expect to receive such amount as of a given date (or the Seller otherwise having been notified by the court of such payment).

Set-Off

Pursuant to the terms of the Receivables Sale Agreement if, in relation to any Assigned Rights included in the Receivables Portfolio, as a result of:

- (a) the exercise of any right of set-off or rescission in respect of any debt (present or future, actual or contingent) due or owing by the Seller to a Borrower or alleged to be so due and owing;
- (b) any other defence, counterclaim or other similar right or action against the Seller; or
- (c) a final and effective decision issued by a competent court, which determines the reduction of the total amount payable by such Borrowers in respect of such Assigned Rights;

any amount due or to become due in respect of any of such Assigned Rights is reduced by any amount and/or any losses, costs or expenses are suffered or incurred by the Issuer in relation thereto, the Seller shall, on demand, pay to the Issuer, within 10 (ten) Business Days after receipt of the demand, an amount equal to such reduction in respect of such Assigned Rights, and/or such losses, costs or expenses, in immediately available funds to such bank account as it is notified by the Issuer.

Applicable law and jurisdiction

The Receivables Sale Agreement and all matters arising from or connected with it shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Portugal. The courts of Lisbon have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any Dispute arising out of or in connection with the Receivables Sale Agreement, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination.

Secured Receivables Servicing Agreement

Appointment of the Secured Servicer

Pursuant to the terms of the Secured Receivables Servicing Agreement, the Issuer appointed the Secured Servicer to be the Secured Servicer and as its lawful non-exclusive agent, in its name and on its behalf, to act as servicer in relation to the Secured Receivables forming part of the Receivables Portfolio and identified in Schedule 4A (Secured Receivables) of the Receivables Sale Agreement.

The Secured Servicer was also appointed by the Asset Manager to assist the Asset Manager in respect of the Secured Receivables assigned to the Asset Manager and the Properties related therewith, in accordance with the terms foreseen in the Secured Receivables Servicing Agreement and in the Asset Management Agreement.

Collections and Expenses Accounts

Please refer to “Overview of the Transaction” – “Collection Accounts” / “Expenses Accounts”.

Secured Servicer Fee

The Secured Servicer shall be entitled to receive from the Issuer a servicing fee, to be paid on each Interest Payment Date, corresponding to a performance on-going fee, corresponding to a percentage of the gross Collections received by, or to be transferred to, the Issuer and the Asset Manager after the 27th July 2017, inclusive, in respect of the relevant Collection Period, as follows (the “Secured Servicer Performance Fee”):

- (a) for individual secured loans – 5.5% (five point five per cent.) (provided that, if the NPV Cumulative Collection Ratio is below 100% (one hundred per cent.), this will be 4.5% (four point five per cent));
- (b) for corporate secured loans – 7.5% (seven point five per cent.) (provided that, if the NPV Cumulative Collection Ratio is below 100% (one hundred per cent), this will be 4.5% (four point five per cent.)); and
- (c) for unsecured loans or exposure relating to secured loans – 15.5% (fifteen point five per cent.).

The payment of the Secured Servicer Performance Fee will on each Interest Payment Date be subject to the Secured Servicer’s performance under the Secured Receivables Servicing Agreement vis-à-vis the Business Plan, measured as the value of recovered Collections over the expected Collections to be recovered as determined in the Business Plan, as follows:

NPV Cumulative Collection Ratio	Applicable Share of Secured Servicer Senior Performance Fee	Applicable Share of Secured Servicer Mezzanine Performance Fee	Applicable Share of Secured Servicer Junior Performance Fee
>=90% - <100%	85%	5%	10%
>=100%	100%	0%	0%

Where, in this section:

“NPV Cumulative Collection Ratio” means, in respect of each Interest Payment Date, the ratio indicated in the immediately preceding Secured Servicer Report between (i) the sum of the Net Present Value of the Net Collections received on or after the Closing Date, and (ii) the sum of the Net Present Value of the Net Expected Collections of Receivables expected to be received on or after the Closing Date;

“Net Expected Collections” means, for a given Collection Period, the difference between (i) the expected gross Collections and (ii) the expected Receivables Recovery Expenses for such Receivables, in accordance with the relevant Business Plan (which is attached as Schedule 8 (Business Plan) to the Secure Receivables Servicing Agreement). For the purpose of this definition, “Collections” includes only those Realisation Values which have been effectively collected and delivered by the Asset Manager to the Issuer (and not Realisation Values still to be collected, such as cash in court). The amount of the Net Expected Collections is attached as Schedule 6 (Net Expected Collections) to the Master Framework Agreement;

“Net Collections” means, for a given Collection Period, the difference between (i) the gross Collections received during the period elapsed between the Collateral Determination Date and the Closing Date or in each relevant Collection Period, as the case may be, and (ii) the Receivables Recovery Expenses. For the purpose of this definition, “Collections” includes only those Realisation Values which have been effectively collected and delivered by the Asset Manager to the Issuer (and not Realisation Values still to be collected, such as cash in court).

“Net Present Value” means the amount calculated according the following formula:

$$NPV(X) = X / ((1+i)^{(t/360)})$$

where:

“i”= Discount Factor

“t”= means the number of days passed between the date on which the X amount is collected or paid and the Closing Date, assuming that all the Collections are received on the last day of the Collection Period in which they occur or are anticipated to occur.

“Discount Factor” means 3.5% (three point five per cent.).

On the Closing Date, an amount equal to €3,000,000.00 (three million euros) will be transferred to the Secured Expenses Account out of the Interim Collections received by the Seller during the period elapsed between the Collateral Determination Date and 15 (fifteen) Business Days before the Closing Date and paid to the issuer in accordance with Clause 4.3.1 of the Receivables Sale Agreement.

“i”= Discount Factor

“t”= means the number of days passed between the date on which the X amount is collected or paid and the Closing Date, assuming that all the Collections are received on the last day of the Collection Period in which they occur or are anticipated to occur.

Transfer of Seller Allocated Properties by the Seller to the Asset Manager

Pursuant to the Asset Management Agreement, the Seller acknowledges and accepts that (i) the Seller Allocated Properties relate to Receivables which were assigned to the Issuer by the Seller and paid by the Issuer to the Seller on the Closing Date and under the terms of the Receivables Sale Agreement, and (ii) therefore, the Seller Allocated Properties, although registered in the name of the Seller, belong de facto, after the execution of the Receivables Sale Agreement, to the Issuer and shall therefore be transferred to the Issuer (or to the Asset Manager acting on behalf of the Issuer) as soon as reasonably possible.

For the sake of clarity, and pursuant to the foregoing, (i) the Seller Allocated Properties shall be transferred by the Seller to the Asset Manager at the value for which the Seller has received such Seller Allocated Properties (which, in the case of properties awarded by courts, corresponds to the relevant “valor de adjudicação”), albeit (ii) the Seller’s consideration for the transfer of any Seller Allocated Properties to the Asset Manager has already been paid by the Issuer to the Seller as part of the purchase price paid by the Issuer to the Seller for the Receivables Portfolio under the Receivables Sale Agreement.

Any Seller Allocated Property transferred by the Seller to the Asset Manager under the terms of the Asset Management Agreement and pursuant to the Receivables Sale Agreement, shall be in accordance with the following terms:

- (a) such transfer shall occur as soon as reasonably possible from (i) the award of the relevant Seller Allocated Property to the Seller under the relevant enforcement Court Proceeding or (ii) transfer of the relevant Seller Allocated Property to the Seller via payment in lieu (dação em cumprimento) by the relevant Borrower; and
- (b) such transfer of Seller Allocated Properties shall be made substantially in the terms set forth in Schedule 6 (Form of Deed of Transfer of Seller Allocated Properties by the Seller to the Asset Manager) to the Asset Management Agreement.

The Seller shall give written notice to the Asset Manager, no later than 5 (five) Business Days prior to the Transfer Date, with confirmation and identification of the Seller Allocated Properties that will be assigned on the relevant Transfer Date.

Provided the conditions to the transfer of the Seller Allocated Property are met, the Seller and the Asset Manager shall enter into the relevant Transfer Deed on the Transfer Date and the execution of such Transfer Deed shall be effective to transfer to the Asset Manager full, unencumbered benefit of and right, title and interest (present or future) to the Seller Allocated Properties transferred on the relevant Transfer Date.

As at 31 May 2018, the Seller Allocated Properties assigned to the Asset Manager amount to approx. 2.09% in relation to the Secured Receivables forming part of the Receivables Portfolio.

Deferred Purchase Price

On the Issue Date, some of the Secured Receivables have been assigned to the Asset Manager, and the remaining Secured Receivables may be assigned to the Asset Manager during the life of the Notes and the Class R Note.

In respect of the Secured Receivables assigned by the Issuer to the Asset Manager on the Closing Date, and in accordance with the Asset Management Agreement and the letter agreement dated the Closing Date between the parties to the Asset Management Agreement, the relevant purchase price was equal to the aggregate amount of €72,366,771.76 (seventy two million, three hundred and sixty six thousand and seven hundred and seventy one euros and seventy six cents) plus accrued interest up to the date of payment at an annual rate of 4% (four per cent.). Such purchase price will be payable by the Asset Manager to the Issuer on a deferred basis upon the Asset Manager raising funds to make such payment.

In respect of the Secured Receivables assigned by the Issuer to the Asset Manager after the Closing Date, the relevant purchase price payable to the Issuer will be equal to the Gross Recovery Value (as defined below) plus accrued interest up to the date of payment at an annual rate of 4% (four per cent.). Such purchase price will be payable by the Asset Manager to the Issuer on a deferred basis upon the Asset Manager raising funds to make such payment.

In respect of each Seller Allocated Property assigned on or after the Closing Date under the Asset Management Agreement, the relevant purchase price will be equal to the Gross Recovery Value (as defined below) plus accrued interest up to the date of payment at an annual rate of 4% (four per cent.) (the “Transfer Price”). Such Transfer Price will be payable by the Asset Manager to the Issuer on a deferred basis upon the Asset Manager raising funds to make such payment.

The Realisation Value of the Properties collateralising the Receivables included in the Receivables Portfolio and of the Seller Allocated Properties shall be transferred to the Asset Management Account by the Asset Manager and will be treated as Collections for the purposes of the payments of the Notes and the Class R Note in accordance with the Payment Priorities up to the Transfer Price.

The Realisation Value generated by the sale of the Properties or by the transfer of the Seller Allocated Properties, as the case may be, may not reach the agreed price for the assignment of the corresponding Receivables. On the Final Discharge Date or, if following final enforcement of the obligations of the Asset Manager, the Sole Noteholder (or the Common Representative, if and when appointed) certifies, in its sole discretion, that the Asset Manager has insufficient funds to pay in full all of its obligations to any of the Seller, the Secured Servicer or the Shareholder, then such Party shall have no further claim against the Asset Manager in respect of any such unpaid amounts and such unpaid amounts shall be discharged in full.

As at 31 May 2018, the Secured Receivables assigned to the Asset Manager constitute 903 security interests over properties with the total expected collections of €69,229,027.35, which corresponds to 34.7% of the overall expected collections in relation to the secured part of the Receivables Portfolio. As at 31 May 2018, the Seller Allocated Properties assigned to the Asset Manager amount to approx. 2.09% in relation to the Secured Receivables forming part of the Receivables Portfolio. “Gross Recovery Value” means the recovery amounts for each of the Receivables forecasted by the Secured Servicer, as identified in Schedule 12 (Gross Recovery Value) of the Asset Management Agreement.

Effectiveness of the Assignment

The assignment of the Assigned Rights, on the Closing Date (or such other assignment date), is effective to transfer full, unencumbered benefit of and right, title and interest (present or future) to the Assigned Rights to the Asset Manager and no further act, condition or thing will be required to be done in connection therewith to enable the Asset Manager to require payment of the Receivables arising thereunder to the Asset Manager or to enforce such right in court other than: (a) the delivery by the Issuer and the Originator of the relevant assignment notice to the relevant Borrowers (which were dispatched on or about the Closing Date or have been dispatched, in respect of the assignment from the Originator to the Issuer, on 8 November 2017 and, in respect of the assignment from the Issuer to the Asset Manager on 10 November 2017); (b) the registration of the assignment of any related Mortgage to the Asset Manager at the relevant Portuguese land registry office (which the Asset Manager shall request); and (c) the filing by the Asset Manager of the application for assignment of the procedural position and creditor substitution (incidente de habilitação) (which the Asset Manager shall apply for).

As at the date hereof, the process of updating the mortgages registration, to the name of the Issuer and/or the Asset Manager, as applicable, has been initiated by means of filing all relevant requests with the competent Portuguese land registry offices. The timing for completion of such registrations is uncertain since this depends on the performance of the Portuguese land registry office’s officials. Furthermore, assignment of the procedural position and creditor substitution (incidente de habilitação), either by the Issuer or the Asset Manager, as applicable, has been filed for all judicial files with each relevant Portuguese Court, but it cannot be anticipated when all requests will be duly approved since this depends on the performance of the Portuguese Courts.

Appointment of Secured Servicer

In accordance with the Asset Management Agreement, the Secured Servicer shall assist the Asset Manager in the performance of its asset management duties.

Collection of Realisation Value

When in the context of the recovery and enforcement processes in respect of Secured Receivables the Asset Manager acquires Properties (or otherwise the Originator transfers Properties to the Asset Manager which correspond to recoveries of assigned Receivables), the Asset Manager will, with the assistance of the Secured Servicer, place and sell the Properties in the market, and upon collection of the relevant sale price, the applicable deferred purchase price will be paid by the Asset Manager to the Issuer.

Services to be provided by the Asset Manager

The Asset Manager shall, in accordance with the terms of the Asset Management Agreement and in compliance with all applicable laws, decree-laws, statutes, constitutions, decrees, judgements, treaties, regulations, directives, by-laws, orders or any other legislative measures of any government, supranational, local government, statutory or regulatory body or court, including but not limited to the Anti-Corruption Laws, the Anti-Terrorism and Money Laundering Laws, provide the following services:

- (a) for the purposes of Clause 8 (Assignment of Receivables by the Issuer to the Asset Manager) of the Asset Management Agreement, assist the Issuer in ensuring all Receivables, relevant rights and title are validly and effectively transferred from the Issuer to the Asset Manager, free from any liens and encumbrances;

- (e) credit in the Asset Management Account all Property Recoveries and ensure that such Property Recoveries are promptly transferred to the Payment Account, in accordance with Clause 18 (Accounts) of the Asset Management Agreement;
- (f) cooperate with the Issuer and all of its related parties concerning to the Properties in effecting the sharing of information relating to the Asset Manager's duties thereunder;
- (g) perform any service, as reasonably requested from time to time by the Issuer, ancillary or in connection to the asset management services and in connection with the Property Recoveries.

Asset Manager Fees, Costs and Expenses

Subject to and in accordance with the Payments Priorities, the Asset Manager shall be entitled to receive from the Issuer an asset management fee corresponding to €10,000.00 (ten thousand) per annum, to be paid semi-annually on each Interest Payment Date.

Subject to and in accordance with the Payments Priorities, the Shareholder shall be entitled to receive from the Issuer a shareholder fee corresponding to €32,000.00 (thirty-two thousand euros) per annum, to be paid on each Interest Payment Date falling in May each year.

All Property Recovery Expenses will be borne by the Issuer and paid by Issuer (or by the Secured Servicer on its behalf) out of funds standing to the credit of the Secured Expenses Account; in case there are any other expenses which need to be directly paid by the Asset Manager, the Issuer (or the Secured Servicer on its behalf) shall prefund the Asset Manager for such expenses out of funds standing to the credit of the Secured Expenses Account.

Any costs and expenses incurred by the Issuer in relation to Asset Management Agreement shall be considered and treated as Issuer Expenses.

Termination of Appointment

Unless earlier terminated pursuant to the Asset Management Agreement, the appointment of the Asset Manager under the Asset Management Agreement shall terminate (but without affecting any accrued rights and Liabilities under Asset Management Agreement) on the Final Discharge Date.

The Issuer may only terminate the Asset Management Agreement under Clause 21.2 (Voluntary Termination by the Issuer) of the Asset Management Agreement, if and when the Secured Receivables Servicing Agreement is terminated in accordance with its own terms and conditions and provided that: (i) it has been so instructed by the Sole Noteholder (or the Common Representative, if and when appointed), or (ii) following consultation with the Sole Noteholder (or the Common Representative, if and when appointed), and subject to the Servicing Committee Rules, once the Successor Asset Manager is appointed under Clause 27 (Appointment of Successor Asset Manager) to the Asset Management Agreement, unless the Transaction Documents have been amended in order for this securitisation transaction to continue without an asset manager structure being in place (a “Voluntary Termination Event” as defined in the Asset Management Agreement).

The Issuer may, if so instructed by the Sole Noteholder (or the Common Representative if and when appointed), or following consultation with the Sole Noteholder (or the Common Representative, if and when appointed) and subject to the Servicing Committee Rules, terminate Asset Management Agreement immediately after the occurrence of one of the following events (a “Breach Event”):

- (a) Non-payment: default occurs or default is made by the Asset Manager in ensuring the payment on the due date of any payment required to be made under the Asset Management Agreement and such default continues unremedied for a period of 5 (five) Business Days following the scheduled payment date; or
- (b) Breach of other obligations: without prejudice to paragraph (a) (Non-payment) above:

For purposes of securing the Asset Manager's obligations under the Asset Management Agreement, the Asset Manager's sole shareholder has created a financial pledge over its shares in favour of the Issuer, by means of a Share Pledge Agreement entered into or about the Closing Date.

The Asset Management Agreement includes a number of provisions in relation to the corporate status of the Asset Manager, including where parties to the Asset Management Agreement agree to refrain from initiating legal proceedings against the Asset Manager, to limited recourse principles, that the Asset Manager shall not engage in additional activities, provide encumbrances over its assets or contract debt, and the right of use by the Secured Party over the pledged Shares.

Share Sale and Purchase Agreement and Loan Agreement

The structuring of the Évora Finance transaction required CEMG's group to purchase the total share capital of the Asset Manager and hold it until an Irish SPV would be specifically incorporated to purchase the Asset Manager and hold its shares under Évora Finance transaction.

Under the Share Sale and Purchase Agreement, the CEMG's group implemented its plan and sold the Asset Manager to the Irish SPV (Évora Asset Management Holdings DAC). In order to fund the purchase of the share capital of the Asset Manager and the expenses in connection thereto, CEMG granted an unsecured loan to Évora Asset Management Holdings DAC, for a maximum amount of €70,500.00 (seventy thousand and five hundred euros), pursuant to the Loan Agreement. Servicing Committee Rules

In connection with the issue of the Notes a Servicing Committee has been established, which members were appointed on 20 March 2018 by the Class B Noteholders and the Class J Noteholders in accordance with Clause 4 of Annex I of Schedule 3 (Servicing Committee Rules), of the Monitoring Agent Appointment Agreement. The Issuer and the Common Representative (on behalf of itself and on behalf of the Noteholders) have acknowledged the terms of operation of the Servicing Committee, including on its appointment, attributions and voting process.

Composition

The Servicing Committee shall be comprised by (the “Required Number of Members”):

- (a) 5 (five) members appointed by the Class B Noteholders and 5 (five) members appointed by the Class J Noteholders; or
- (b) if only one Class B Noteholder holds the entirety of the Class B Notes and/or one Class J Noteholder holds the entirety of the Junior Notes, 1 (one) member appointed by such Class B Noteholder and/or Class J Noteholder; or
- (c) if only one Noteholder holds the entirety of the Class B Notes and the Junior Notes, 1 (one) member appointed by such Noteholder.

Members of the Servicing Committee shall be individuals, independent from each of the Servicers and the Monitoring Agent (or any affiliates of the Servicers and the Monitoring Agent), and shall not be in a group (grupo) or control (domínio) relationship with the Issuer or the Originator, as such terms are defined in article 21 of the Portuguese Securities Code.

Each member of the Servicing Committee will represent solely the interests of the relevant Class B Noteholders or Class J Noteholders by which it has been appointed.

Appointment of initial members

Pursuant to the Servicing Committee Rules, each Class B Noteholder and each Class J Noteholder may propose the appointment of one member of the Servicing Committee, provided that the Class B Noteholders and the Class J Noteholders hold a certain minimum percentage of 20% of the outstanding amount of each Class of Notes (“Minimum Holding”). In case such Class B Noteholder and Class J Noteholder hold integral multiples of such Minimum Holding amount, it shall propose one additional member for each multiple of such percentage.

The Monitoring Agent shall declare the appointment of the initial members of the Servicing Committee, namely the appointment of one member for each Class B and Class J Noteholder holding at least the mentioned Minimum Holding amount in the respective Classes of Notes, except in those cases where the Noteholders hold integral multiples of the Minimum Holding amount, where as a result one additional member shall be appointed for each integral multiple. On 20 March 2018, the Monitoring Agent has declared the initial appointment of the Servicing Committee members, by giving confirmation to the Relevant Noteholders, the Common Representative and the Issuer, in accordance with the foregoing procedures.

If, following the declaration of appointment, the Required Number of Members in respect of each class of Noteholders has not been reached, the Monitoring Agent shall declare the appointment, without any discretion thereon, of one additional member (until such required number is reached) proposed by each relevant Noteholder holding the higher percentage of outstanding amount of each Class of Notes, below the Minimum Holding.

If the aforementioned mechanism fails to reach the Required Number of Members, the Monitoring Agent shall request that each relevant Noteholder that has already appointed a member of the Servicing Committee to indicate an additional member up to reach the Required Number of Members (starting from the Relevant Noteholders holding the higher outstanding amount of each class of notes and proceeding in decreasing order).

Thereafter, the Monitoring Agent shall give confirmation of such appointment to the Relevant Noteholders, the Common Representative and the Issuer, and provide the identification of the appointed member of the Servicing Committee.

Any Relevant Noteholder who becomes the owner of one or more of the relevant Minimum Holdings may propose the appointment of one or more (as the case may be) members of the Servicing Committee and replace any member appointed by it.

Term of the appointment

Pursuant to the Servicing Committee Rules, each member of the Servicing Committee shall remain in office for a period of one year as from the relevant appointment, which shall be deemed automatically renewed for equal periods, unless terminated or replaced in accordance with the requirements and procedures set forth in the Servicing Committee Rules.

Termination of members of the Servicing Committee

The appointment of each member of the Servicing Committee shall be deemed automatically terminated if at any time the Relevant Noteholder by which it has been proposed ceases to possess, for any reason:

- (a) at least the Lower Percentage applicable at the relevant date, or
- (b) in the case of a Relevant Noteholder who appointed more than one member of the Servicing Committee, at least each integral multiple of the applicable Minimum Holding, provided that if such Relevant Noteholder ceases to hold the relevant Minimum Holding for some but not all of the members appointed, it should instruct the Monitoring Agent on which member between those originally appointed shall be considered terminated; otherwise, the Monitoring Agent shall randomly select the member appointed by such Relevant Noteholder to be considered as terminated, which decision shall be final and binding.

In addition, any Relevant Noteholder holding the Minimum Holding may revoke the appointment of the member of the Servicing Committee that it has appointed, by giving notice in writing to such member of the Servicing Committee, the Monitoring Agent and the other members of the Servicing Committee of the removal of the relevant member and the appointment of the successor thereto, which shall be effective upon the appointment of the successor member of the Servicing Committee by the Relevant Noteholder. Any member of the Servicing Committee may resign from the Servicing Committee at any time by delivering written notice to each other member of the Servicing Committee, the Monitoring Agent, the Relevant Noteholder by which it has been appointed, and the Common Representative.

Voting process

The Servicing Committee shall be convened by the Monitoring Agent to resolve on the specific matters within the attributions of the Servicing Committee or any other matters that the Monitoring Agent deems appropriate, at its own discretion, taking into account the specific attributions of the Servicing Committee.

The Monitoring Agent shall also convene the Servicing Committee upon written request by at least one of its members, and the nature of the subject matter of the requested resolution is likely to be considered appropriate to convene such meeting and also upon a written request by any of the Servicers, the Common Representative and the Issuer.

In any case: (i) the Servicing Committee shall be duly constituted by the majority of its current members or in case of adjournment due to lack of quorum, by the lower of the majority of its current members and 2 (two) members of the Servicing Committee; (ii) each member of the Committee shall have one vote, and (iii) resolutions are validly passed if the majority of the votes of the members attending the meeting or, in case of a written resolution, casting their votes in writing, have been cast in favour of it. In case the Servicing Committee consists of 1 (one) member only, the quorums do not apply. In case any of the Class B Noteholders or the Class J Noteholders are represented by one member only, such sole member shall count as 5 (five) members in terms of quorum for validly holding the meeting and validly passing a resolution, and shall have 5 (five) votes.

In addition, the Servicing Committee Rules set forth specific provisions to prevent conflicts of interest of the members of the Servicing Committee.

Attributions

Pursuant to the terms of the Co-ordination Agreement, the Common Representative Appointment Agreement, the Conditions and the relevant provisions of the Securitisation Law, the Common Representative shall, following the delivery of an Enforcement Notice, act in the name and on behalf of the Issuer in connection with the Transaction Documents and in accordance with the Co-ordination Agreement.

Pursuant to the terms of the Co-ordination Agreement, the Common Representative will have the benefit of the Seller's Representations and Warranties, the Asset Manager's Representations and Warranties and each Servicer's Representations and Warranties, in the Receivables Sale Agreement, the Asset Management Agreement and the Receivables Servicing Agreements, respectively. The Issuer authorised the Common Representative to exercise the rights provided for in the Co-ordination Agreement and the Originator, the Asset Manager and the Servicers acknowledged such authorisation therein.

Applicable law and jurisdiction

The Co-ordination Agreement and all non-contractual obligations arising out or in connection therewith are governed by and construed in accordance with Portuguese law. The Courts of Lisbon will have exclusive jurisdiction to hear any disputes that may arise in connection therewith.

Paying Agency and Transaction Management Agreement

On the Closing Date, the Issuer, the Common Representative, the Transaction Manager and Principal Paying Agent, the Portuguese Paying Agent and the Servicers entered into the Paying Agency and Transaction Management Agreement pursuant to which the Transaction Manager, the Principal Paying Agent and the Portuguese Paying Agent were appointed by the Issuer to perform transaction management's duties and paying agency functions, as applicable, including:

In the case of the Transaction Manager:

- (a) operating the Payment Account and the Cash Reserve Account in accordance with the terms of the Notes and the Class R Note and the Transaction Documents;
- (b) providing the Issuer and the Common Representative with certain cash management, calculation, notification and reporting information in relation to the Payment Account and the Cash Reserve Account;
- (c) maintaining adequate records to reflect all transactions carried out by or in respect of the Payment Account and the Cash Reserve Account;

In the case of the Principal Paying Agent, it shall, inter alia, upon receiving the relevant amounts from the Issuer, make payments to the Noteholders or to the Class R Noteholder, in accordance with the procedures of Interbolsa.

In the case of the Portuguese Paying Agent, it shall, inter alia, inform, on behalf of the Issuer, Interbolsa of the relevant amounts payable on each Interest Payment Date under each Note or the Class R Note, in accordance with the Interbolsa regulations and the time foreseen therein.

All references in this Prospectus to payments or other procedures to be made by the Issuer shall, whenever the same are obligations of the Transaction Manager under the Paying Agency and Transaction Management Agreement, be understood as payments or procedures that shall be performed by the Transaction Manager on behalf of the Issuer.

The Transaction Manager's, Principal Paying Agent's and Portuguese Paying Agent's fees will be payable in accordance with the relevant Payments Priorities on each Interest Payment Date or such other date on which the Payments Priorities apply.

Applicable law and jurisdiction

The Paying Agency and Transaction Management Agreement and all non-contractual obligations arising out or in connection therewith are governed by and construed in accordance with Portuguese law. The courts of Portugal have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine any disputes that may arise in connection therewith, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination.

Cap Transaction

Interest Rate Cap Transaction

On or about the Issue Date, the Issuer entered into the Cap Transaction with J.P. Morgan AG under a 1992 ISDA Master Agreement (Multicurrency-Cross Border) (the "ISDA Master Agreement"), together with a Schedule thereto (the "Schedule"), a 1995 ISDA credit support annex (the "Credit Support Annex") and a cap confirmation (the "Cap Confirmation" and each, together with the ISDA Master Agreement, the Schedule and the Credit Support Annex, the "Cap Transaction"). The Cap Transaction was entered into in order to hedge against the potential interest rate exposure of the Issuer in relation to its floating rate interest obligations under the Rated Notes.

Main features

The Cap Confirmation specified a Notional Amount for each Calculation Period, being the initial Calculation Period € 141,000,000, which is to be continuously reduced thereafter, as specified in Section D of the Cap Confirmation. The Issuer paid, on the Closing Date, to the Cap Counterparty a Fixed Amount of € 5,830,000, and the Cap Counterparty will pay to the Issuer, on each Interest Payment Date, an amount, if positive, equal to the EUR-EURIBOR-Reuters floating rate that exceeds the cap rate of 0.50% over the notional amount.

If the Cap Counterparty (or its guarantor or credit support provider, as applicable) is downgraded below any of the required credit ratings set out in Cap Transaction, the Cap Counterparty will be required to carry out, within the time frame specified in the Cap Transaction, one or more remedial measures at its own cost which include the following:

- (a) transfer all of its rights and obligations under the Cap Transaction to an appropriately rated entity;
- (b) arrange for an appropriately rated entity to become co-obligor or guarantor in respect of its obligations under the Cap Transaction; and
- (c) post collateral to support its obligations under the Cap Transaction.

Any such collateral will be credited to the Cap Collateral Account, together with any interest or distributions on, and any liquidation or other proceeds of, that collateral and will not be available for the Issuer to make payments to the Transaction Creditors generally, but must be applied in accordance with the Cap Collateral Account Priority of Payments described in Condition 8.2.3 (Cap Collateral Account Priority of Payments).

The occurrence of certain termination events and events of default contained in the Cap Transaction may cause the termination of the Cap Transaction prior to its stated termination date. Such events include (1) redemption of the Rated Notes pursuant to Condition 9.2 (Optional Redemption in Whole for Taxation Reasons), Condition 9.3 (Junior Noteholder Put Option) or Condition 9.4 (Redemption in Whole at the Option of the Issuer); (2) amendment of any Transaction Document without the prior written consent of the Cap Counterparty if such amendment affects the amount, timing or priority of any payments due from such Cap Counterparty to the Issuer or from the Issuer to such Cap Counterparty, (3) failure by the Cap Counterparty to take certain remedial measures required under the Cap Transaction following a Cap Counterparty Rating Event; and (4) acceleration of the Notes following service of an Enforcement Notice.

Pursuant to the Cap Confirmation, on or around the Issue Date the Issuer was required to pay to the Cap Counterparty a premium and the Cap Counterparty will only make a payment to the Issuer on an Interest Payment Date if the floating rate payable on the Rated Notes in respect of such Interest Payment Date exceeds the strike price indicated in the Cap Confirmation. The notional amount for calculating any such payment will be the scheduled amortising amount indicated for the relevant Interest Period in the Cap Confirmation.

The Cap Counterparty will be required to make payments pursuant to the Cap Transaction without any withholding or deduction of taxes unless required by law. If any such withholding or deduction is required by law, the Cap Counterparty will, subject to certain conditions, be required to pay such additional amount as is necessary to ensure that the net amount actually received by the Issuer will equal the full amount the Issuer would have received had no such withholding or deduction been required. Such a change in tax law may result in the termination of the Cap Transaction. The Issuer will not be required to gross up under the Cap Transaction. Any Cap Tax Credit Amounts payable by the Issuer shall be paid directly to the Cap Counterparty following receipt without regard to the Cap Collateral Account Priority of Payments or the Payment Priorities and shall not form part of the Available Distribution Amount.

Applicable law and jurisdiction

The Cap Transaction and any non-contractual obligation arising out of, or in connection with it are governed by and construed in accordance with English law. The courts of England shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear any disputes that may arise in connection therewith.

First ranking security under English law

Considering the terms of operation of the Cap Collateral Account, the only relevant Transaction Party which (to the extent so foreseen in the Cap Collateral Account Priority of Payments) can claim from the Issuer amounts standing to the credit of the Cap Collateral Account is the Cap Counterparty, who will thus be the only Transaction Party actually enjoying of the special creditor privileged entitlement (privilégio creditório especial) foreseen in article 63 of the Securitisation Law over any such funds. A Cap Collateral Account Charge, governed by English law, has been executed outside of Portugal on behalf of the Cap Counterparty and the Issuer, whereby the above special creditor privileged entitlement is acknowledged and English law first ranking security is created accordingly to the benefit of the Cap Counterparty over the Cap Collateral Account.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The gross proceeds of the issue of the Notes and the Class R Note amounted to €176,323,000.00 (one hundred and seventy-six thousand million, three hundred and twenty-three thousand euros).

On or about the Closing Date, the Issuer applied the gross proceeds of the Notes solely towards the payment of the Purchase Price of the Receivables included in the Receivables Portfolio and the payment of the Cap Premium to the Cap Counterparty.

On or about the Closing Date, the Issuer applied the gross proceeds of the Class R Note for the sole purposes of funding the Cash Reserve Account up to the Cash Reserve Account Required Amount.

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE RECEIVABLES PORTFOLIO

The information set out below has been prepared on the basis of the outstanding principal balances of the Receivables Portfolio (i) as at 31 August 2017 (please see tables under “1. Characteristics of the Receivables Portfolio – as at 31 August 2017” below, which pertain to the Receivables Portfolio as of the relevant date for the purposes of the attribution by CMVM of the asset identification code under article 62 of the Securitisation Law, i.e. code 201711HFCTCMGNXXS0098, attributed on 31 October 2017) and (ii) as at 31 March 2018 (please see tables under “2. Characteristics of the Receivables Portfolio – as at 31 March 2018” below).

The Receivables Portfolio

As at 31 August 2017 and as at 31 March 2018, the Receivables Portfolio had the characteristics indicated in the respective tables below.

This securitisation was structured in a way to ensure that the Receivables described in the tables below generate the amount of funds necessary to service any payments due and payable on the Notes and the Class R Note. Therefore, the underlying assets collateralizing the Notes and the Class R Note possess the characteristics that demonstrate capacity to generate such necessary funds.

The information below is derived from information provided by the Originator and backed by the Seller’s Representations and Warranties, and thus has not been audited by the Issuer, the Servicers, the Common Representative or the Lead Manager, and no independent entity has audited such information for, or addressed an audit report to, the Noteholders.

Whenever in the tables below “CEMG Original Valuation Amount” and “CEMG Valuation” are mentioned, this refers to the valuation performed by or for CEMG, at, as applicable, the time of origination in accordance with the requirements of the applicable banking regulations, and the time when the properties were last subject to revaluation by or for CEMG, in accordance with the criteria of such banking regulations; no revaluation of properties was undertaken by or for CEMG for the specific reasons of this transaction.

Whenever in the tables below “Appraisal” is mentioned, this refers to drive-by and desktop appraisals performed by or for Whitestar in the context of its portfolio review. These appraisals do not meet the criteria and a similar standard to the evaluations performed by or for the Originator, as explained under the paragraph above. Furthermore, no other party has undertaken, for the specific reasons of this transaction, evaluations of properties meeting such criteria and standard as mentioned under the paragraph above.

As at 31 May 2018, the Secured Receivables assigned to the Asset Manager constitute 903 security interests over properties with the total expected collections of €69,229,027.35, which corresponds to 34.7% of the overall expected collections in relation to the secured part of the Receivables Portfolio.

In respect of the tables below that have been prepared as of 31 March 2018, there have been changes to the pool of the Receivables Portfolio (including as resulting from its performance – see below the section “Performance of the Receivables Portfolio”), but the actual contents of the Receivables Portfolio as of the date of this Prospectus will not be materially different from as of 31 March 2018.

WEIGHTED AVERAGE LIFE OF THE NOTES

The actual weighted average life (“WAL”) of the Notes cannot be stated or predicted, as the actual amount and timing of recoveries under the Receivables is unpredictable due to the non-performing nature of the Receivables, and a number of other relevant factors are unknown at the date hereof. The weighted average lives of the Notes will be influenced by, among other things, the ability to negotiate restructurings or discounted pay-offs with the Borrowers, the timing of foreclosure proceedings in Portuguese courts and the market circumstances under which Properties (or other Borrower assets) will be sold.

The WAL indicated below shows the expected average life of the Class A Notes and has been prepared on the basis of certain assumptions as described below regarding the characteristics of the Receivables in the Receivables Portfolio and the performance thereof. The WAL information for Class A Notes assumes, among other things, that:

- a) the issuance date of the Notes is 2 November 2017;
- b) the modelled interest payment dates (“IPD”) do not take into consideration public holidays;
- c) Class A Notes WAL is estimated as of 12 June 2018;
- d) the reference rate (EURIBOR 6 month) applicable to the payment date falling in November 2018 is equal to -0.271%, in line with the calculations made by the Accounts Bank;
- e) in relation to the payment dates following the payment date falling in November 2018, a 6-month forward EURIBOR curve was used as reference rate as of 12 June 2018;
- f) the Servicers’ business plan base case expected gross recoveries and expected recovery costs as per Tables A1, A2, B1 and B2 of the section “Business Plans for the Receivables Portfolio” are the inputs used in the model to calculate the WAL;
- g) for each scenario depicted under the WAL table below, a constant haircut is applied to both expected gross recoveries and expected costs;
- h) the servicing fees and servicing fee deferral have been assessed in accordance with the terms of the Secured and Unsecured Receivables Servicing Agreements;
- i) the actual collections (as specified in Tables A2 and B2 of the section “Business Plans for the Receivables Portfolio”) have not been stressed for the purpose of the model as they did not correspond to the estimates carried out by the Servicers in the respective business plans but corresponded to the actual collections received;
- j) the work-out procedures and timings are those as specified in each Servicer’s business plan, whose assumptions depend on certain key assumptions, including, among others, the relevant Servicer’s work-out strategy expectations, the court location, the stage of legal proceeding, and the relevant Servicer’s portfolio review;
- k) the interest charged to the transaction accounts has not been considered for the purposes of the calculations;
- l) the interest cap has been taken into consideration to support interest rate payments on the Notes according to the 6-month forward EURIBOR curve with reference rate as of 12 June 2018;
- m) a Subordination Event is deemed to be actioned on scenarios where the Cumulative Collection Ratio is lower than 90% of business plan;
- n) the Class R Notes outstanding balance has been modelled according to the Pre-Enforcement Payments Priorities;
- o) the NPV Cumulative Profitability Ratio is assumed to be always greater than or equal to 90%.

The actual characteristics and performance of the Receivables in the Receivables Portfolio could differ from the assumptions used in constructing the WAL information set forth below. The WAL projections are hypothetical in nature and are provided only to give a general sense of how the principal cash flows might behave under the servicers' base case scenario. These estimates have certain inherent limitations and it can be expected that some or all of the assumptions underlying these projections could not materialise or could vary significantly from actual results. No representations can be made with regards to the accuracy of the estimates, nor with regards to their realisation.

	Haircuts (HC) from the Servicers' base case business plans*	WAL
Class A Notes	15% HC*	2.38 years
	10% HC	2.31 years
	5% HC	2.24 years
	0% HC (base case)	2.18 years
	-5% HC	2.11 years
	-10% HC	2.05 years
	-15% HC	1.99 years

* As further explained in the assumptions described in this section.

The average life of the Class A Notes is subject to factors that are largely out of the control of the Issuer. As a consequence, no assurance can be given that the above estimates will prove in any way to be realistic and therefore they must be considered with caution.

SUMMARY OF PORTFOLIO REVIEW

The following is a summary of the portfolio reviews performed prior to the Closing Date by Whitestar Asset Solutions, S.A. (“Whitestar”), HG PT, Unipessoal, Lda. (“Hipoges”) and the legal advisors to J.P. Morgan Securities plc as to Portuguese Law, Vieira de Almeida & Associados, Sociedade de Advogados, SP RL (“VdA”). For the sake of clarity, and as further detailed below, none of such portfolio reviews has been prepared at the request of the Issuer. This summary is not intended to be exhaustive and prospective investors should carry out their own investigations, searches or other actions in respect of the assets contained in the Receivables Portfolio and reach their own views prior to making any investment decision.

Whitestar Asser Solutions, S.A. with registered office at Edifício D. Sebastião, Rua Quinta do Quintã, no. 6, Quinta da Fonte, 2770-203 Paço de Arcos, parish of Oeiras e S. Julião da Barra, Paço de Arcos e Caxias, municipality of Oeiras, acts as the Servicer of the Secured Receivables, having no material interest in the Issuer save as specified in the section “The Parties” above. Whitestar performed an assessment which is summarised below under the section headed “1. Secured Receivables”, at the request of Caixa Económica Montepio Geral as initial Seller.

HG PT, Unipessoal Lda., with registered office at Avenida Duque de Loulé, no. 106, 2nd floor, 1050-093 Lisbon, acts as the Servicer of the Unsecured Receivables and has no material interest in the Issuer. Hipoges performed an assessment which is summarised below, under the section headed “2. Unsecured Receivables”, at the request of Caixa Económica Montepio Geral as initial Seller.

Vieira de Almeida e Associados, Sociedade de Advogados SP, RL, with registered office at Rua Dom Luis I, 28, 1200-151 Lisbon, acting in the capacity of legal advisors to J.P. Morgan Securities plc, and having no material interest in the Issuer, performed an assessment which is summarised below, under the section headed “3. Legal Due Diligence”, at the request of J.P. Morgan Securities plc as the sole arranger and placement agent of the Évora Finance transaction.

The information below has been accurately reproduced from the abovementioned portfolio reviews and as far the Issuer is aware and was able to ascertain from the information published, no facts have been omitted which would render the reproduced information inaccurate or misleading.

1. Secured Receivables

Whitestar performed an assessment of a sample of the secured portfolio and reviews loan, financial, legal and property information (including the assessment on the existence of senior liens and retention rights), guarantors and general guarantees, real estate guarantees (garantias) and judicial file status (including any PER proceedings status, powers of attorney and cash-in-court). This exercise was concluded in October 2017. The review was performed based on the documentation and information provided by CEMG (which did not include documentation on approximately 15 per cent. of the clients in the secured portfolio), and on certain investigations and searches carried out by Whitestar, including, among others, court reviews, requests for permanent certificates of real estate registration, contacts with insolvency administrators and solicitors and additional valuation reports from CEMG. Where inconsistencies were found by Whitestar in relation to the data tape, Whitestar based its analysis on the supporting documentation and updated the data tape accordingly. Considering that the portfolio is dynamic with client, financial, legal and property status changing through the normal lifecycle of the assets, the portfolio review performed by Whitestar was based on the cut-off date of 31 May 2017 (the “Cut-off Date”). All the information provided in this section refers to the referred Cut-off Date, unless otherwise expressly indicated.

For the purposes of the portfolio review, Whitestar relied on and assumed, among others, that the information and documentation provided by CEMG to that effect was exact and true at the relevant date and that no information or relevant documentation was omitted by CEMG.

Whitestar performed a portfolio review of all corporate borrowers and, in respect of individual borrowers, of a sample representing 22 per cent. of the total individual borrowers and 35 per cent. of the outstanding principal amount owed by individual borrowers, selected according to pre-defined criteria. In respect of the remaining individual borrowers, Whitestar performed only a review of real estate and guarantees by analysing the corresponding real estate registration certificates.

In addition, Whitestar performed (i) external valuations on a sample of properties fulfilling pre-defined criteria, carried out by independent experts certified by CMVM, who analysed the available documentation supported by market research and, where necessary, inquiries to the city halls; and (ii) internal valuations in respect of the remaining assets, based on the available documentation and a desktop review using a “5-step model” on approximately 35 per cent. of the properties with higher exposure amounts.

The assessment performed by Whitestar and the indications resulting therefrom were taken into consideration by the Originator in defining the actual Secured Receivables that the Originator has assigned to the Issuer on the Closing Date, and was reflected in the business plan prepared by Whitestar.

For the purposes of its business plan (see “Business Plans for the Receivables Portfolio” – “Whitestar Business Plan”), Whitestar has determined different categories of possible mechanisms for recovery of the receivables, based on Whitestar’s track record since 2012 onwards and the resolution process that would be the most likely to occur considered on a case-by-case basis, including, among others, repossession, judicial sale and amicable resolutions. Whitestar has also concluded that certain properties may require additional capital expenditures (CAPEX) in order to allow them to become marketable, as they were not fully built or completed. In particular, this comprises two properties with an estimated CAPEX of € 23,000.

According to the business model built by Whitestar, the variation of cash-flows during the life of the Notes is estimated to be greater between the end of the first year and the end of the second year, during which period the convergence effects of both the amicable resolutions are more prone to happen during the early servicing days of the receivables portfolio (50 per cent.) of the amicable resolutions occur during the first 12 months of servicing). The cash-flows estimates were modelled to start cashing-in only once the resolution phase has taken place.

The events that affect directly the estimation of the cash-flows are the following: (a) the time to foreclosure the property depends on the judicial processing and the corresponding legal phase; (b) in amicable resolutions, the credit claim process until real estate ownership is faster and less costly than through the judicial process; (c) the timings for selling property follow a region/location and type of asset criteria from the last 5 years of track record at Whitestar (from a statistical perspective, the sale of real estate trend during the recovery life of the transaction is more likely to be aligned with the past 5 years of data); (d) on average, it takes 12 months to collect monies arising from properties sold in court.

For details on the business plans and performance of the Receivables Portfolio in light of the above described assessments and analysis, see sections “Business Plans for the Receivables Portfolio” and “Performance of the Receivables Portfolio”.

2 Unsecured Receivables

Hipoges performed an assessment of the unsecured portfolio, including boarding, data review and remediation regarding the legal documentation provided by CEMG and available information on borrower credit quality. This exercise was concluded in August 2017.

Hipoges performed a detailed assessment of the top 17 (seventeen) borrowers, representing an outstanding principal balance of approx. €31,000,000.00, covering approx. 17 per cent. of the total perimeter of the unsecured portfolio. This review included an in-depth examination of such borrowers’ exposures and an asset search on individual guarantors to identify attachable assets (real estate, salaries and movable assets).

In respect to the remaining borrowers, Hipoges built a financial model and a business plan based on internal recovery curves from comparable portfolios that were under management at that date (see “Business Plans for the Receivables Portfolio” – “Hipoges Business Plan”).

In addition to the portfolio review, Hipoges performed the boarding of all information provided, including, but not limited to, the upload of all the borrowers’ positions, contracts, court proceedings, and legal documentation received in connection thereto. Hipoges also performed a quality data review, data remediation and legal data review on all the borrowers included in the unsecured perimeter, which included the subrogation in all the court proceedings regarding the unsecured portfolio.

The work performed by Hipoges was taken into consideration by the Originator in defining the actual Unsecured Receivables that the Originator assigned to the Issuer on the Closing Date, and was reflected in the business plan prepared by Hipoges.

For details on the business plans and performance of the Receivables Portfolio in light of the above described assessments and analysis, see sections “Business Plans for the Receivables Portfolio” and “Performance of the Receivables Portfolio”.

3 Legal review

VdA, as legal advisors to J.P. Morgan Securities plc as to Portuguese Law, conducted a legal review of a sample of loan agreements, in order to ascertain the compliance of the receivables resulting therefrom with the legal eligibility criteria set forth in the Securitisation Law, in particular in relation to (i) the free transferability of credits, (ii) the pecuniary nature of credits, (iii) the inexistence of conditions in respect of the credits; and (iv) non-litigious nature of the credits.

The sample of loan agreement documentation reviewed was selected by CEMG, comprising legal documentation in respect of 113 loans (91 secured and 22 unsecured). According to information provided by CEMG, the selection was made on the basis of the following criteria: (i) the type of product; and (ii) the period of time during which the template loan for that type of product was available. The set of legal documentation under review did not exhaustively represent the entirety of the loans and relevant characteristics included in the Receivables Portfolio, and therefore the review/analysis of the loans is not necessarily valid or applicable to all the other loans/exposures in the Receivables Portfolio.

The legal review conducted by VdA was limited to the laws of Portugal as in force and effect as on 26 October 2017, and no independent investigation of, and no express or implicit opinion or judgement has been made on, the laws of any other jurisdictions.

The legal review has been prepared on the basis of a number of assumptions, including, but not limited to: (i) VdA has relied on the accuracy and completeness of the documentation and information provided and assumed that such documentation and information provided was and remained complete and up to date and was not misleading in any way; (ii) in relation to drafts (such as forms of agreements or others) or execution copies of documents, VdA has relied on the fact that they were true, complete and final versions of their respective contracts and that there were no variations whatsoever to the corresponding executed versions; (iii) VdA has assumed that all copies of documents and other materials provided were true, accurate and (unless otherwise indicated) complete copies of the originals and furthermore that all signatories, markings and stamps contained in such documents were genuine and legitimate, having been made by the corresponding persons in the capacities as indicated in such documents, enjoying due capacity and authority to execute such documents in the purported capacities. No review or investigation of the mortgage registrations with the relevant real estate registration office were made by VdA.

In addition, it has been flagged that due to limitations pertaining to the information and documentation made available, VdA was not able to confirm certain material aspects, such as the enforceability and validity of the security provided with respect to each loan or transfer restrictions.

It has also been pointed out that different loan agreements were not consistent among each other in terms of, among other contractual aspects, events of default and acceleration by the Originator, restrictions in respect of the creation of additional security over the particular secured asset, hardship (or grace) periods applying to borrowers, and confidentiality restrictions.

As a global overview of the analysed loan agreements, and in order to ascertain the viability of the securitisation of the receivables originated by CEMG in accordance with such loan agreements, VdA prepared a synopsis of the characteristics of such receivables, bearing in mind the legal eligibility criteria set forth in article 4 of the Securitisation Law. This synopsis, contained in the table below, intended to be a very brief summary of the information that was specified in the charts of each analysed loan agreement, thus facilitating the comparison of the most relevant legal issues contained therein, in particular, those that should be taken into consideration in the selection of the portfolio of credits, in accordance with the terms provided for in the Securitisation Law.

Legal Eligibility Criteria	Findings	Indications
The credits are freely transferable and there are no legal or contractual limitation to their assignment	The analysed loan agreements did not contain any limitation on the assignment by CEMG of receivables arising therefrom.	It was concluded that receivables arising for CEMG from the analysed loan agreements could be assigned for securitisation purposes under this criteria.
Pecuniary nature of the credits	All receivables that may be owing to CEMG by the underlying borrowers under the loan agreements were of a pecuniary nature.	It was concluded that receivables arising for CEMG from the analysed loan agreements could be assigned for securitisation purposes under this criteria.
The credits are not subject to condition	No credits resulting from the loan agreements were found to be subject to condition.	It was concluded that receivables arising for CEMG from the analysed loan agreements could be assigned for securitisation purposes under this criteria.
The credits are not subject to litigation, do not constitute collateral nor are judicially seized or apprehended	This matter could only be ascertained in light of the actual performance of the loan agreements.	It was in any case noted that the analysed loan agreements documentation did not contain any provision that would impair this criteria.

Based on the assumptions and subject to the limitations in the legal review, and subject to any remainder documentation relating to the loan agreements that were not provided complying with the applicable legal requirements, VdA has identified no reason for the loan agreement documentation that has been reviewed to prevent the underlying receivables from being assigned for securitisation purposes.

BUSINESS PLANS FOR THE RECEIVABLES PORTFOLIO

Below are the business plan extracts for the Receivables Portfolio, prepared by Whitestar and Hipoges, which act as Secured and Unsecured Servicer, respectively. The information below is not intended to be exhaustive of any possible projections or forecasts on the relevant assets and prospective investors should carry out their own investigations, searches or other actions in respect of the assets contained in the Receivables Portfolio and reach their own views prior to making any investment decision.

Whitestar Business Plan

The information set out below includes the business plan extracts for Whitestar (i) as at 2 November 2017 (please see tables under “1. Whitestar Business Plans – as at 2 November 2017” below, which pertain to the results of the portfolio review and the assumptions thereunder at the Closing Date and (ii) as at 30 April 2018 (please see tables under “2 Whitestar Business Plans – as at 30 April 2018” below, which pertain to the most recent portfolio review and the assumptions made thereunder).

The information included in this section is based upon the results of the portfolio review and the assumptions thereunder, which findings and assumptions influenced the contractual provisions, information and obligations set forth in the Receivables Sale Agreement and its respective Schedules. The information that influenced the terms of the Receivables Sale Agreement and therefore the business plan relates notably to (i) the accuracy of the disclosed ranking position of each collateral specified in the Receivables Sale Agreement and its respective Schedules, where applicable, and (ii) the assumption that the parties to the Receivables Sale Agreement will comply with all obligations under the terms of the Receivables Sale Agreement, including any obligation related with the remedy or contractual consequence of any such information not being true, complete or accurate.

To produce this Business Plan, Whitestar relied upon its internal historical performance which is backed by years of experience running over several similar portfolios. In the case of Evora Finance, Whitestar sampled the last 5 years of track record to calibrate the metrics and the assumptions made on the Business Plan, namely all the timings involved on the recovery process as well as on the sale of collaterals. The two tables below show costs (not comprehensive) associated to the recovery of a secured loan, notably judicial costs on both foreclosure and bankruptcy files, as well as costs related to a property.

This Whitestar Business Plan has been built in accordance with the methodology described above and on the basis of the above described assumptions. Projections, forecasts and estimates contained in the tables below are made by reference to the relevant date(s) therein indicated and are subject to change as provided for in the Transaction Documents. The same projections, forecasts and estimates involve a number of assumptions which may not materialise or may vary significantly.

On the basis of the abovementioned assumptions, Whitestar prepared a business plan that forecasts and summarises the future recoveries from the Secured Receivables of the Receivables Portfolio, under a base case scenario that is based on past performance experienced by Whitestar on similar portfolios, as well as certain other assumptions resulting from the portfolio review conducted by Whitestar on the Receivables Portfolio prior to the Closing Date (see section: “Summary of Portfolio Review”).

Past performance is not necessarily indicative of what the actual future results may be and the base case business plan prepared by Whitestar does not guarantee that recoveries from the Receivables will occur within the forecasted timing nor that they will occur with the expected recovery rate.

Table A1 below summarises the key business plan figures as at 2 November 2017, namely: (i) the expected gross collections; (ii) the expected recovery costs in respect of the Secured Receivables of the Receivables Portfolio; (iii) the expected net recoveries as a difference between (i) and (ii); (iv) the servicing fees payable to Whitestar under the Transaction Documents, in the event that the actual performance is in line with the projections of the business plan; and (v) the expected recoveries net of the base case servicing fees as a difference of item (iii) and item (iv) above.

Table A2 below summarises the key business plan figures as at 30 April 2018, namely: (i) the expected gross collections; (ii) the expected recovery costs in respect of the Secured Receivables of the Receivables Portfolio; and (iii) the expected differences in net recoveries between (i) and (ii);

The expected recovery costs under (ii) include a number of certain items in respect of the securitised non-performing loans work-out procedures; however, the expected recovery costs under (ii) exclude the expected servicing fees payable to Whitestar under the Transaction Documents.

In the event that the servicer’s performance is lower than what the base case business plan shows, then performance triggers and deferrability of fees may occur as stated in the Secured Receivables Servicing Agreement (see section “Overview of Certain Transaction Documents” of the Prospectus)

Hipoges Business Plan

The information set out below includes the business plan extracts for Hipoges (i) as at 2 November 2017 (please see tables under “1. Hipoges Business Plans – as at 2 November 2017” below, which pertain to the results of the portfolio review and the assumptions thereunder at the Closing Date and (ii) as at 30 April 2018 (please see tables under “2 Hipoges Business Plans – as at 30 April 2018” below, which pertains to the most recent portfolio review and the assumptions made thereunder.).

Assumptions:

Hipoges Iberia (“Hipoges”) was invited by Caixa Económica Montepio Geral (“CEMG”), to participate in a portfolio review and servicing process of an unsecured portfolio in the context and with the purpose of structuring of a securitized transaction. The unsecured part of the Receivables Portfolio to be securitised had approximately €176,000,000 of Outstanding Principal Balance.

Hipoges team has a considerable experience on Portuguese NPL and Real Estate market and has participated successfully in the past on several transactions on similar investment opportunities. As a common standard approach, Hipoges unsecured portfolios price is based on (i) historical collections on the relevant pool and/or, (ii) similar portfolios that Hipoges has under management.

In the context of this securitisation, considering that no data relating to historical collections has been provided to Hipoges as to the relevant unsecured receivables portfolio, Hipoges has used data from similar portfolios that it had under management at the relevant date in making its assessment of the Receivables Portfolio. Hipoges has built a recovery curve for the first twelve months of collections based on comparable data and apply the curves directly to the relevant portfolio. Hipoges used a smoothing approach technique to clean the values generated by low number of data points.

Once the recovery curves were determined, Hipoges calculated a reasonable decline rate based on the first year of estimated collections that result from the recovery rates. Hipoges has considered comparable portfolios and used it as reference to calculate the yearly decline.

The recovery curves projections have been always built based on separate analysis between individuals and corporate borrowers. During the process, Hipoges has sought to gather as much information as possible, and performed several ancillary activities to provide an accurate view of the whole portfolio.

Hipoges’ business plan has been built in accordance with the methodology described above and on the basis of the above described assumptions.

On the basis of the abovementioned assumptions, Hipoges prepared a business plan that forecasts and summarises the future recoveries from the Unsecured Receivables of the Receivables Portfolio under a base case scenario that is based on past performance experienced by Hipoges on similar portfolios, as well as certain other assumptions resulting from the portfolio review conducted by Hipoges on the Receivables Portfolio prior to the Closing Date.

Past performance is not necessarily indicative of what the actual future results may be and the base case business plan prepared by Hipoges does not guarantee that recoveries from the Receivables will occur within the forecasted timing nor that they will occur with the expected recovery rate.

Table B1 below summarises the key business plan figures as at 2 November 2017, namely: (i) the expected gross collections; (ii) the expected recovery costs in respect of the Unsecured Receivables of the Receivables Portfolio; (iii) the expected net recoveries as a difference between (i) and (ii); (iv) the servicing fees payable to Hipoges under the Transaction Documents, in the event that the actual performance is in line with the projections of the business plan; and (v) the expected recoveries net of the base case servicing fees as a difference of item (iii) and item (iv) above.

Table B2 below summarises the key business plan figures as at 30 April 2018, namely: (i) the expected gross collections; (ii) the expected recovery costs in respect of the Unsecured Receivables of the Receivables Portfolio; and (iii) the expected net recoveries as a difference between (i) and (ii).

The expected recovery costs under (ii) include a number of certain items in respect of the securitised non-performing loans work-out procedures; however, the expected recovery costs under (ii) exclude the expected servicing fees payable to Hipoges under the Transaction Documents.

In the event that the servicer's performance is lower than what the base case business plan shows, then performance triggers and deferrability of fees may occur as stated in the Unsecured Receivables Servicing Agreement (see section "Overview of Certain Transaction Documents" of the Prospectus).

(Numbers reported in the performance tables refer to gross collections)

With respect to the Secured Receivables, the Secured Servicer is performing above performance levels projected under the Business Plan relating to the Secured Receivables. This is due mostly to a high number of amicable resolutions. As of 30 April 2018, an amount of c. €2,700,000 of receivables repurchased by the Seller is included in Whitestar actual performance in relation to gross collections.

With respect to the Unsecured Receivables, the cumulative collections generated from the portfolio managed by Hipoges (as Unsecured Servicer) are below the collections projected in the Business Plan relating to the Unsecured Servicer due to delays in the processing of legal collections pursuant to Hefesto's substitution as court creditor (incidentes de habilitação) in the correspondent legal files and conservative approach to discount settlements. Hipoges is implementing recovery strategies that are expected to normalise recovery volumes towards Business Plan targets. As of 30 April 2018, an amount of c. €27,000 of receivables repurchased by the Seller is included in Hipoges actual performance in relation to gross collections.

Each Servicer has produced an interim report regarding the performance of the Receivables serviced by it, with reference to the end of the first collection period as of 30 April 2018. The above information has been extracted from such interim reports.

Each Servicer Report will form part of an Investor Report, which is to be delivered to the Issuer, the Sole Noteholder (or the Common Representative (whenever appointed), the Lead Manager, the Rating Agencies, the Cap Counterparty and the Agents no later than 6 (six) Business Days prior to each Interest Payment Date. The Investor Report and the Servicers Reports will be made available on Bloomberg.

Each Investor Report shall also be available at the specified offices of the Common Representative and the Principal Paying Agent, the registered office of the Issuer and on the Transaction Manager's website currently located at sf.citidirect.com.

Legislation Governing the Issuer's Activities

The Issuer's activities are governed by the Securitisation Law and supervised by the CMVM.

Insolvency of the Issuer

The Issuer is a special purpose vehicle and as such it is not permitted to carry out any activity other than the issue of securitisation notes and certain activities ancillary thereto including, but not limited to, the borrowing of funds in order to ensure that securitisation notes have the necessary liquidity support and the entering into of documentation in connection with each such issue of securitisation notes.

Accordingly, the Issuer will not have any creditors other than the Portuguese Republic in respect of tax liabilities, if any, the Noteholders and the Transaction Creditors, third parties which are creditors for Issuer Expenses, and noteholders and other creditors in relation to other series of securitisation notes issued or to be issued in the future by the Issuer from time to time.

The segregation principle imposed by the Securitisation Law and the related privileged nature of the noteholders' entitlements, on the one hand, together with the own funds requirements and the limited number of general creditors an STC may have, on the other, makes the insolvency of the Issuer a remote possibility. In any case, under the terms of the Securitisation Law, such remote insolvency would not prevent Noteholders from enjoying privileged entitlements to the Receivables.

Capital Requirements

The Securitisation Law imposes on the Issuer certain capitalisation requirements for supervisory purposes.

The level of capitalisation of the Issuer is determined by reference to the value outstanding of notes issued by the Issuer and traded (em circulação) at any given point in time. Apart from the minimum share capital, a securitisation company must meet further own funds levels depending upon the value outstanding of the securitisation notes issued. In this respect, (a) if the value outstanding of the notes issued and traded is €75 (seventy-five) million or less, the own funds of the Issuer shall be no less than 0.5 (zero point five) per cent. of the nominal amount outstanding of such notes, or (b) if the nominal amount outstanding of the notes issued and traded exceeds €75 (seventy-five) million, the own funds of the Issuer, in relation to the portion of the nominal amount outstanding of the notes in excess of €75 (seventy-five) million, shall be 0.1 (zero point one) per cent. of the value outstanding of such notes.

An STC can use its own funds to pursue its activities. However if, at any time, the STC's own funds fall below the percentages referred to above the STC must, within 3 (three) months, ensure that such percentages are met. CMVM will supervise the Issuer in order to ensure that it complies with the relevant capitalisation requirements.

The required level of capitalisation can be met, inter alia, through share capital, ancillary contributions (prestações acessórias) and reserves as adjusted by profit and losses.

The entire authorised share capital of the Issuer comprises 250,000 (two hundred and fifty thousand) issued and fully paid shares (the “Shares”) of €1 (one) each.

The Shareholder

All of the Shares are held directly by AGHL Portugal Investments Holdings, S.A., a Portuguese limited liability company with the sole registration and taxpayer number 513 482 270, which is the sole shareholder of the Issuer AGHL Portugal Investments Holdings, S.A., is fully owned by Arrow Global Investments Holdings Limited, which is fully owned by Arrow Global Guernsey Holdings Limited, which is in turn fully owned by Arrow Global One Limited, which is fully owned by Arrow Global Group PLC (a listed company).

There are not any special mechanisms in place to ensure that control is not abusively exercised. Risk of control abuse is mitigated by the provisions of the Securitisation Law and the remainder applicable legal and regulatory provisions and the supervision of the Issuer by the CMVM.

DESCRIPTION OF THE ORIGINATOR

Introduction to Caixa Económica Montepio Geral, Caixa Económica Bancária, S.A.

Caixa Económica Montepio Geral, Caixa Económica Bancária, S.A. (“CEMG” or the “Originator”) was created on 24 March 1844 for an indefinite period and until 14 September 2017 (the date when it was transformed into a public limited company) it was known as Caixa Económica Montepio Geral, a full-service savings bank in accordance with Decree-Law no. 190/2015, dated 10 September 2015 (“Savings Banks Act”).

Until 14 September 2017 it had a total equity (comprised of institutional capital and a participation fund) of €2,420,000,000.00. The institutional capital in an amount of €2,020,000,000.00 was fully owned by its founder Montepio Geral - Associação Mutualista (“MGAM”), whereas the participation units representative of the participation fund, for a total of €400,000,000.00, were admitted to listing in Euronext Lisbon (ISIN PTCMHUIM0015).

The transformation of CEMG from a savings bank annexed to MGAM into a full-service savings bank (caixa económica bancária), adopting the form of a Public Limited Company (Sociedade Anónima) (pursuant to the provisions of article 6 of the Savings Banks Act) was initiated following the Extraordinary General Meeting held on 22 November 2016 and resumed on 13 December 2016 and 6 January 2017.

The transformation of the Originator into a Public Limited Company (Sociedade Anónima) was approved in an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Originator, held on 4 April 2017, as well as the grant to the Executive Board of Directors of the Originator of all necessary powers to carry out all the necessary actions towards the implementation of the said transformation into a Public Limited Company (Sociedade Anónima). The Originator further informed in such Extraordinary General Meeting that it had been notified that the Bank of Portugal had given a favorable opinion regarding the compliance of the Information Report (“Relatório Informativo”) and the Originator’s draft Articles of Association leading to the transformation of this full-service savings bank (caixa económica bancária) into a Public Limited Liability Company (Sociedade Anónima).

On 14 September 2017, the Originator was transformed into a public limited company and the institutional capital and the participation units representative of the Participation Fund were converted into common shares, meaning that the current Originator’s capital totals €2,420,000,000.00 and it is fully represented by common shares.

MGAM (currently the sole shareholder) is a “private institution of social support” (i.e. a mutual benefits association) whose principal purposes are to promote and develop initiatives designed to ensure the social protection and welfare of its 632,477 mutual members (as at 31 December 2016), their families and other beneficiaries nominated by them. The welfare schemes MGAM offers include pensions and other retirement benefits, disability benefits, death grants, guarantees of the payment of housing charges, life annuities, study schemes and other schemes for young people and a wide variety of collective schemes. It also has co-operation agreements with a variety of companies in health and welfare sectors. Other activities include the support of members’ social functions, publication of a members’ magazine, sponsorship of cultural, artistic and social events and the awarding of prizes and scholarships.

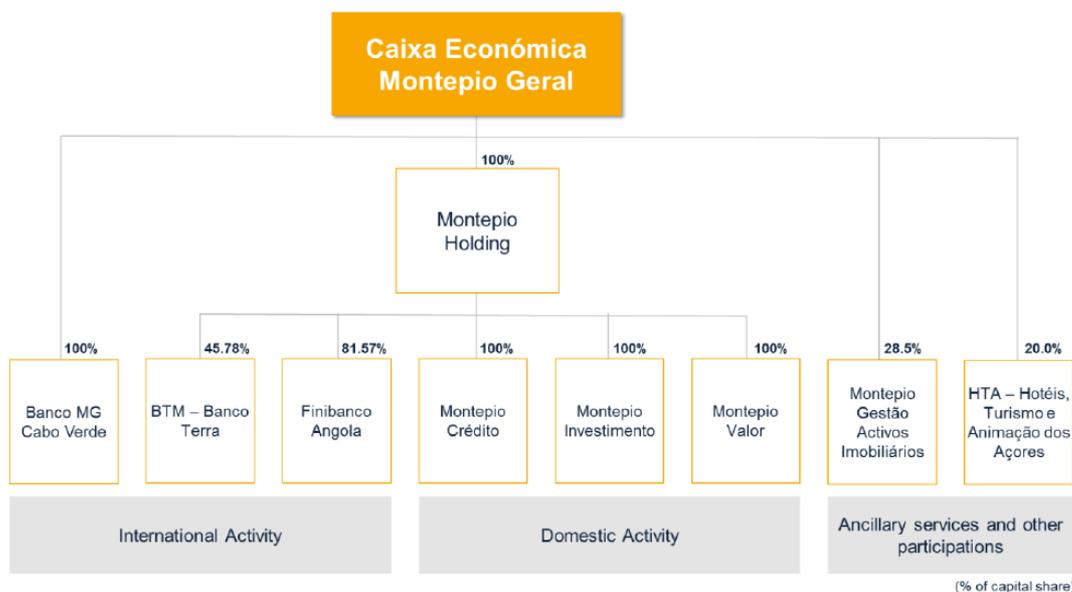

In accordance with the RGICSF, CEMG is a credit institution, authorised to operate as a “universal bank”, in accordance with Decree-Law no. 136/79, dated 18 May 1979 (as last amended by Decree-Law no. 188/2007, of May 2007) and it ranks sixth in the Portuguese banking system (as of 31 December 2017), as far as total net assets are concerned (source: Boletim Estatístico da Associação Portuguesa de Bancos). Following the entry into force of the Savings Banks Act, CEMG is characterized as a savings bank (caixa económica bancária), authorized in such capacity to pursue all the businesses permitted to banks in Portugal.

The Originator is managed in accordance with its Articles of Association and with the provisions of the Portuguese Companies Code. Moreover, it should be noted that pursuant to the transformation of the Originator into a Public Limited Company, and following the tender offer announced by MGAM on 4 July 2017 and the subsequent permanent order of purchase effective from 15 September 2017 to buy CEMG's outstanding shares, MGAM currently holds 100% (one hundred per cent.) of CEMG's share capital, being the sole shareholder and therefore holding all the voting rights.

The Extraordinary General Meeting of the Issuer held on 9 October 2017 decided for the loss of the status of public company (perda da qualidade de sociedade aberta) in accordance with article 27 of the Portuguese Securities Code (Código dos Valores Mobiliários), and the relevant request was filled to CMVM, which approved it on 13 October 2017.

The CEMG Group is integrated in the Montepio Group, owned by MGAM. The CEMG Group consists of, in addition to CEMG (on an individual basis), 3 domestic entities: Montepio Crédito, Instituição Financeira de Crédito, S.A.; Montepio Investimento, S.A.; and Montepio Valor, Sociedade Gestora de Fundos de Investimento, S.A. – incorporated under Montepio Holding, SGPS, S.A. and fully owned by CEMG. Still in the domestic market, CEMG has a small qualified holding in HTA-Hotéis, Turismo e Animação dos Açores, S.A., whose accounts are consolidated by the equity method. At an international level, CEMG holds majority holdings in Banco MG - Cabo Verde, Sociedade Unipessoal, S.A., in Finibanco Angola, S.A. and in BTM, SA in Mozambique. The CEMG Group also consolidates the Complementary Groupings of Companies: Montepio Gestão de Ativos Imobiliários, ACE (Consolidation by the Equity Method).

CEMG takes a major role in the implementation of the Group's business strategy, as it uses its nationwide branch network, comprising 325 branches in Portugal as at 30 September 2017 (327 branches as at 31 December 2016). CEMG's commercial network is further complemented by a network of electronic channels, together with its presence in various overseas Portuguese communities (including five representative offices outside of Portugal). CEMG is also present in Angola, through Finibanco Angola (CEMG holds an 81.4 (eighty-one point four) per cent. share interest in Finibanco Angola), which had a retail network of 25 (twenty-five) branches as at 30 September 2017. At the end of 2014, under its growth and geographical expansion strategy, CEMG acquired a qualifying holding of 45.5 (forty-five point five) per cent. in the capital of BTM, S.A. (45.8 (forty-five point eight) per cent. as of 30 September 2017), a Mozambican bank, adding 10 (ten) more branches to CEMG's international presence.

CEMG is a public limited company, not listed, and is registered at the Lisbon Commercial Registry Office (1st Section) under the same Registration and Tax Identification number 500 792 615 and is domiciled in Portugal, having its registered office at Rua Áurea, 219-241, 1100-062 Lisbon, Portugal, with telephone number +351 213 248 000.

Current Activities

CEMG operates as a universal bank offering a wide range of banking and financial products and services, such as mutual, real estate and pension funds, insurance (life and non-life), investment management services and the provision of credit cards, aimed at catering to all its customers' financial needs. CEMG has also been developing international operations, especially by the provision of foreign currency to its Portuguese customers, documentary credits and payment orders, focusing mainly on attracting deposits from non-resident Portuguese nationals. To this end, CEMG Group currently has also five representative offices in Paris, Toronto, Geneva, Frankfurt and Newark.

Since the end of 2014, the international activity of the CEMG Group is now represented by three entities – Banco Montepio Geral Cabo Verde, S.A., Finibanco Angola, S.A. and BTM, S.A..

CEMG is in a negotiation process with the aim of refocusing the approach to the African market with a view to the deconsolidation of current financial investments held in Finibanco S.A. and BTM, S.A., within the project “ARISE” in international partnership with Rabobank, NORFUND (the Norwegian sovereign wealth Fund) and FMO (Dutch development bank), within other alternatives which are in development.

The Issuer's strategic plan for 2016-2018 aims at ensuring sustainability and strengthening capital and liquidity levels, defining as priorities the reinforcement of the value proposition, the platform efficiency, the reinforcement of risk management, the recovery and management of liquidity, human capital management, capital management, and institutional positioning.

No Recourse to the Originator

Please take into account the risk factors entitled “Liability under the Notes is solely of the Issuer” and “Limited Recourse Nature of the Notes” referred to above in the Risk Factors section. These risk factors state that there is no recourse to the Originator in respect of payments on the notes or performance of the Receivables, since the Notes will be direct limited recourse obligations solely of the Issuer and do not establish any liability or obligation towards another entity. Nonetheless, there is the risk of breach by the Originator of the Representations and Warranties established under the Receivables Sale Agreement, or of its obligations towards the Issuer and the Asset Manager with respect to the transfer of the proceeds and properties after the Closing Date, as well as the risk of insolvency of the Originator, which may negatively impact the fulfilment of such obligations. Additionally, even if under the Transaction Documents the proceeds or Properties received by the Originator do not legally belong to it, it cannot be assured, in case of Originator insolvency, that the relevant court or insolvency administrator would follow such understanding (please see “Risk Factors – Formalities to be complied with after the Receivables assignment to the Issuer”).

INFORMATION ON CREDIT ORIGINATION POLICIES

Being a retail-based bank, CEMG has, since its origins, been extending credit facilities, not only to private individuals, but to companies as well and, in particular, small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs).

CEMG focuses on the quality of service provided to its customer base, along with the adoption of rigorous, ethical and transparent business practices.

The aforementioned facilities are extended to customers through CEMG's branch network, which comprises a total of 436 outlets in the Portuguese Republic.

Origination

CEMG's loans are originated at the branch level, through the relevant account manager. The origination and underwriting process begins with a direct contact with borrowers and there are not any loans originated through brokers.

Internal Procedures

Pursuant to CEMG's credit policy and regulation, defined in Regulamento e Política de Crédito, the Executive Board delegates its decision power in respect of credit granting in accordance with three different decision layers. This delegation is made taking into account factors such as relevant segment, credit sub-product, operation/client risk, financing amount, collateralization and exposure to the client.

Whereas the first layer corresponds to the commercial branch and client manager decision-making level, the second and third layers correspond to a more senior and collegial decision-making level and are composed by the Regional Dept. Commercial Division, and the Credit Analysis Division. The operations with higher materiality and/or risk are subject to Executive Board analysis and deliberation.

The specific decision-making competences within any single layer and the associated credit limits also depend upon the specific segment which is at stake. CEMG's credit policy is constituted by a five-level segment classification, composed of the individual client segment, the business segment, the international department segment, the derivatives segment and the credit card and facilities segment.

If the client is non-performing at the relevant date, the operation is rejected under the scoring model assumptions and, in cases where there are signs of potential non-performance, the decision on credit granting must be taken by the subsequently higher decision-making layer.

Regarding individual and corporate lending, the origination is carried out separately, on a commercial level, by specific segment networks/workers.

The internal procedures related to credit origination policy are fully documented in internal norms, and those are subject to regular review (at least yearly).

The procedures, rules and internal credit scoring are embedded in a workflow system that enables the automatic assignment of each credit process to the correct decision taker taking into account its segment, type of collateral, maturity and other relevant characteristics.

Underwriting

Underwriting rules are reviewed on a regular basis, covering the analysis of applications, pricing policy (on a risk-adjusted basis), decision-making, follow-up and credit recovery.

The credit applications are submitted by the customers at their local branches. At the branch, the standard information required in accordance with internal credit rules (i.e. the complete identification of the client, the form application with a full description of the purpose, term, amount and characteristics of the loan, the informative questionnaires to collect the relevant data with respect to the client's financial and credit track-record, the financial statements for the last three years, the certificates issued by the tax and social security authorities attesting that the client has fulfilled their obligations, the last annual income tax declaration and the copy of the client's ID and tax number) is collected, checked and submitted to the credit analysis process which, at a first stage automatically checks whether there is any relevant information on the customer stored in internal and/or external databases (credit events) and also checks the application against the main credit policies/rules (i.e. impact analysis of the financing on the company's cash-flows).

After validating the information, the branch submits the credit application for the risk analysis process.

The credit analysis process for individuals is comprised of an internally developed scoring model, which grades clients in 19 grade scale, according to the estimated probability of default. The Credit Scoring System automatically checks whether there are any incidents stored in the internal and/or external databases and also checks credit policies/rules (i.e. Loan-to-Value, Debt-to-Income);

For SME or Corporate, there is an internally developed rating model, which grades borrowers in a 19 (nineteen) grade scale, according to the estimated PD (probability of default). The models, developed using internal historical data (financial analysis based on the financial statements), enable CEMG to obtain a quantitative assessment subsequently reflected in the attribution of a risk category to the customer/operation, which, in the SME segment is supplemented by a qualitative assessment performed by the account manager and based on information collected at the branch level.

For higher risk and exposure amounts the risk profile analysis is complemented by a detailed analysis by a dedicated credit analyst.

Finally, after the conclusion of the credit analysis process, the loan application is filtered through the credit decision process.

The behavioural information classification also play an important role in the internal rating/scoring assignment. The behavioural scoring system evaluates the risk of each customer for different types of loans, calculating a score based on the customer's historical relationship data with CEMG, including factors such as loans granted, usage of current account facilities, deposit accounts and financial investments. The industry classification and the borrower's past performance in each sector constitute the last variable factored in the internal grade (score / rating).

The scorecards were developed in line with CEMG's portfolio and in accordance with statistical methods, which pinpoint the most predictive variables of counterparty defaults, given certain economic indicators and industry sectors.

The internal risk classification, combined with the assessment of risk mitigations, in the form of personal or asset-backed guarantees, constitute key aspects for the decision and pricing of the operations. The mitigation of risk via collateralisation of operations is taken into account, both through the severity of the loss (for example, in the case of asset-backed collateral), and through reduction of the exposure value, in situations involving financial collateral (where the market risk of the assets involved becomes relevant).

The levels at which pricing decisions are taken are defined according to risk adjusted return on equity (ROE), in accordance with the principle that the highest hierarchical levels are competent to approve operations with a lower risk adjusted ROE.

Credit rejection is determined by the occurrence of credit events in the financial system, breach of credit rules and whenever the incorporation of risk in pricing significantly increases the risk of adverse selection. Furthermore, risk categories are defined, with acceptance reserved to higher decision-making levels.

The final approval of loans is the responsibility of four levels of management, involving the branch and/or the account manager (the first decision-making stage), the Regional Department and Credit Analysis Department (the second stage), the Commercial Division and Credit Analysis Department (the third stage) and the Board (the fourth stage), depending on the client's risk profile and loan characteristics. Once a decision has been made by the competent decision level, the customer is formally notified by mail.

Appraisals

- In all cases an appraisal of the property is required before granting a loan secured by a property;
- External appraisers – Civil Engineers registered with the Portuguese Association of Engineers;
- The Real Estate Department comprises internal and external Appraisers, with the following tasks:
 - i. Centralisation of requests from the Branches;
 - ii. Distribution of the requests by the Appraisers;
- The Appraisers send the valuation reports via an online portal, which become immediately available, through the internal remote network, to assist the Branches;
- All relevant data is kept permanently a special database;
- Collateral valuation reports take into account several factors, namely: location, type of building, state of construction, land and construction values, dimension and areas, and insurance policy;
- For property values up to EUR2.5m, only 1 appraiser is required; otherwise 2 appraisers are required.

Risk Management and Internal Audit

Internal audit and development of internal control systems has been a priority of the Board of Directors of the Secured Servicer.

To incorporate this concern, during 2010 the Board of Directors created the Audit, Risk and Governance Department which lead to the existence of two new Committees: Audit Committee and Risk Committee, both with internal control mechanisms. Increasing business and structures required a systematic and disciplined approach to internal controls in order to help the Board of Directors to improve its governance by reducing risks.

Internal audit activities developed and implemented in WS are in line with the national and International recommendations and best practices by assessing suitability of existing controls versus the risks intended to be reduced as well as evaluating its functionality and effectiveness.

Main Activities

WS’s corporate purpose is, among other activities, to practice, for and on behalf of securitisation companies or other companies, all acts related with the identification and evaluation of assignable credits’ portfolios and any other acts adequate for the good management of the credits and, if that is the case, of the correspondent collateral, ensuring the collection and administrative services pertaining to the credits, as well as all relations with the respective debtors and all acts required for conserving, modifying and terminating the guarantees at stake.

WS has been acting as servicer in the context of securitisation transactions since its incorporation and has been authorized in such capacity by the CMVM.

In addition to its servicing activities, WS also provides loan advisory services, valuation of performing and non-performing whole loans and forecasting cash flows under different economic cycles, portfolio due diligences, real estate management services, outsourcing services, securitisation and structuring advisory and other advisory services related to all aspects of credit management.

WS total staff reached 525 (five hundred and twenty-five) employees and general staff, as at 31 December 2017.

WS manages several portfolios from national and international investors, which comprise, as at December 2017, approx. 590,000 (five hundred and ninety thousand) Borrowers, 680,000 (six hundred and eighty thousand) credits, totalizing €6.12B of Notional Outstanding. EAM – Évora Asset Management, S.A. (the “Asset Manager”) was incorporated on 12 November 2015 as a limited liability company and its commercial scope is the acquisition of real estate for subsequent resale and on the Issue Date meets such other requirements for operating as a company for purchase and resale of real state (sociedade de compra para revenda) and thus benefiting from the special tax regime applicable to such companies, in respect of acquisitions, holdings and disposals of real estate.

This means that, and subject to retention of such requirements each year, real estate assets acquired by the Asset Manager are exempt from Municipal Transaction Tax (Imposto Municipal sobre as Transações Onerosas de Imóveis – “IMT”). The IMT is based on a range of rates up to 6.5% (six point five per cent.) (depending on the nature and type of the asset) applicable to the higher of the acquisition price or the tax property value (valor patrimonial tributário) of the real estate asset. There are certain additional requirements for such IMT exemption, including that the relevant real estate asset must be resold to a third party (that is not also a company for purchase and resale) within 3 years from acquisition and in the same conditions as it was acquired.

Additionally, the Municipal Property Tax (Imposto Municipal sobre Imóveis – “IMI”), which otherwise could go up to 0.45% (zero point forty five per cent.) p.a. (depending on the relevant municipality) of the tax property value (valor patrimonial tributário) of the real estate asset, is suspended for 3 three years as from the relevant acquisition of the real estate asset. If the real estate asset is not resold within such timeframe, IMI will become due in subsequent years, until the resale has taken place.

The sole shareholder of the Asset Manager is Évora Asset Management Holdings DAC (the “Shareholder”) an Irish orphan bankruptcy remote Designated Activity Company. No Transaction Party is eligible to be appointed as a Qualifying Beneficiary of the Shareholder.

The ultimate beneficiary owner of Évora Asset Management Holdings DAC will be the Qualifying Beneficiary, once appointed. The purchase by Évora Asset Management Holdings DAC of the shares of the Asset Manager was funded through an unsecured loan granted by CEMG to Évora Asset Management Holdings DAC. On the Closing Date, the receivables arising under such loan were assigned to the Issuer and form part of the Receivables Portfolio.

The Asset Management Agreement includes a number of provisions in relation to the corporate status of the Asset Manager, including where parties to the Asset Management Agreement agree to refrain from initiating legal proceedings against the Asset Manager, to limited recourse principles, that the Asset Manager shall not engage in additional activities, provide encumbrances over its assets or contract debt.

SELECTED ASPECTS OF PORTUGUESE LAW RELEVANT TO THE RECEIVABLES PORTFOLIO

Securitisation Legal Framework

Securitisation Law

Decree-Law no. 453/99, of 5 November 1999, as amended by Decree-Law no. 82/2002, of 5 April 2002, Decree-Law no. 303/2003, of 5 December 2003, Decree-Law no. 52/2006, of 15 March 2006, and by Decree-Law no. 211-A/2008, of 3 November 2008 (together the “Securitisation Law”) has implemented a specific securitisation legal framework in Portugal, which contains a simplified process for the assignment of credits. The Securitisation Law regulates, amongst other things; (i) the establishment and activity of Portuguese Securitisation vehicles; (ii) the type of credits that may be securitised; (iii) the entities which may assign credits for Securitisation purposes; and (iv) the terms and conditions under which credits may be assigned for securitisation purposes. Some of the most important aspects of this legal framework include:

- (a) the establishment of special rules facilitating the assignment of credits (including mortgage loans) in the context of securitisation transactions;
- (b) the types of originators/assignors which may assign their credits pursuant to the Securitisation Law;
- (c) the types of credits that may be securitised and the legal eligibility criteria such credits have to comply with; and
- (d) the creation of 2 (two) different types of Securitisation vehicles: (i) Credit Securitisation Funds (“Fundos de Titularização de Créditos” – “FTC”), and (ii) Credit Securitisation Companies (“Sociedades de Titularização de Créditos” – “STC”).

Securitisation Tax Law

Decree-Law no. 219/2001 of 4 August 2001 as amended by Law no. 109-B/2001 of 27 December 2001, Decree-Law no. 303/2003 of 5 December 2003, Law no. 107-B/2003 of 31 December 2003 and by Law no. 53-A/2006, of 29 December 2006 (together the “Securitisation Tax Law”) established the tax regime applicable to the Securitisation of credits implemented under the Securitisation Law. The Securitisation Tax Law allows for a neutral fiscal treatment of Securitisation vehicles as well as tax exemptions regarding the amounts paid by the Securitisation vehicles to non-resident entities without a permanent establishment in Portuguese territory, although currently Decree Law no. 193/2005 will apply to Noteholders as this regime is more favourable from a tax point of view and applies to the debt securities in general, including on securitisation transactions. A withholding tax of 35 (thirty-five) per cent also applies on the interest amounts in the event that (i) such non-resident entity is located in a country or territory included in the list of countries determined by the Portuguese Tax Ministry pursuant to Ministerial Order (Portaria) 150/2004 of 13 February 2004, as amended, or whenever (ii) the interest payments are made to accounts opened in the name of one or several accountholders acting on behalf of third entities which are not disclosed.

STC Securitisation Companies

STCs are established for the exclusive purpose of carrying out securitisation transactions in accordance with the Securitisation Law. The following is a description of the main features of an STC.

Corporate Structure

STCs are commercial companies (sociedades anónimas) incorporated with limited liability, having a minimum share capital of €250,000.00. The shares in STCs can be held by one or more shareholders and are in registered form. STCs are subject to the supervision of the CMVM and their incorporation is subject to the prior authorisation by the CMVM. STCs are subject to ownership requirements. A prospective shareholder must obtain approval from the CMVM in order to establish an STC. Such approval is granted when the prospective shareholder shows that it is capable of providing the company with a sound and prudent management.

If qualified shareholdings (as defined in the RGICSF) in an STC are to be transferred to another shareholder or shareholders, prior authorisation of the CMVM of the prospective shareholder has to be obtained. The interest of the new shareholder in the STC has to be registered within 15 (fifteen) days of the purchase.

Regulatory Compliance

In order to ensure the sound and prudent management of STCs, the Securitisation Law provides that the members of the board of directors and the members of the board of auditors meet high standards of professional qualification and personal reputation.

The members of the board of directors and the members of the board of auditors must be registered with the CMVM.

Corporate Object

STCs can only be incorporated for the purpose of carrying out one or more securitisation transactions by means of the acquisition, management and transfer of receivables and the issue of securitisation notes for payment of the purchase price for the acquired receivables.

An STC may primarily finance its activities with its own funds and by issuing notes.

Without prejudice to the above, pursuant to the Securitisation Law, STCs are permitted to carry out certain financial activities, but only to the extent that such financial activities are (i) ancillary to the issuance of the securitisation notes, and (ii) aimed at ensuring that the appropriate levels of liquidity funds are available to the STC.

Types of credits which may be securitised and types of assignors

The Securitisation Law sets out details of the types of credits that may be securitised and the specific requirements which are to be met in order for such credits to be securitised.

The Securitisation Law allows a wide range of originators to assign their credits for securitisation purposes including the Portuguese Republic, public entities, credit institutions, financial companies, insurance companies, pension funds, pension fund management companies and other corporate entities whose accounts have been audited for the last 3 (three) consecutive years by an auditor registered with the CMVM.

Assignment of credits

Under the Securitisation Law, the sale of credits for securitisation is effected by way of assignment of credits. In this context the following should be noted:

Notice to Debtors

In general, an assignment of credits is effective against the relevant debtor after notification of assignment is made to such debtor.

Notification to the debtor is required to be made by means of a registered letter (to be sent to the debtor's address included in the relevant receivables contract) and such notification will be deemed to have occurred on the third business day following the date of posting of the registered letter.

An exception to this requirement applies when the assignment of credits is made under the Securitisation Law by, inter alios, credit institutions or financial companies, and such entities are the servicers of the credits in which case there is no requirement to notify the relevant debtor since such assignment is deemed to be effective in relation to such debtor when it is effective between assignor and assignee.

Accordingly, in the situation set out above, any payments made by the debtor to its original creditor after an assignment of credits has been made will effectively belong to the assignee who may, at any time and even in the context of the insolvency of the assignor, claim such payments from the assignor.

Assignment Formalities

There are no specific formality requirements for an assignment of credits under the Securitisation Law. A written private contract between the parties is sufficient for a valid assignment to occur (including an assignment of mortgage loans). Transfer by means of a notarial deed is not required. In the case of an assignment of mortgage loans, the signatures to the assignment contract must be certified by a notary public, the company secretary of each party or a lawyer qualified for such purpose (when the parties have appointed such a person) under the terms of the Securitisation Law and other laws applicable in Portugal, namely Decree-Law no. 76-A/2006, of 29 March 2006. Pursuant to the Securitisation Law, such certification is required for the registration of the assignment at the mortgage asset's relevant Portuguese Real Estate Registry Office.

In order to perfect an assignment of mortgage loans against third parties, the assignment must be followed by the corresponding registration (as described in the paragraph below) of the transfer of the mortgage loans in the Real Estate Registry Office.

The Portuguese real estate registration provisions allow for the registration of the assignment of any mortgage asset at any Portuguese Real Estate Registry Office, even if the said Portuguese Real Estate Registry Office is not the office where the mortgage asset is registered, both in person as well as online through the following website: www.predialonline.pt. The registration of the transfer of the mortgage loans requires the payment of a fee for each mortgage loan of approximately €200 (two hundred euros).

The Securitisation Law provides for the assignment of credits to be effective between the parties upon execution of the relevant assignment agreement. This means that in the event of insolvency of the assignor prior to registration of the assignment of credits, the credits will not form part of the insolvency estate of the assignor even if the assignee may have to claim its entitlement to the assigned credits before a competent court.

However, the assignment of the security is only effective against third parties acting in good faith further to registration of such assignment with the registry by or on behalf of the assignee. The Issuer is entitled under the Securitisation Law to request such registration.

Assignment and Insolvency

Unless an assignment of credits is effected in bad faith, such assignment under the Securitisation Law cannot be challenged for the benefit of the assignor's insolvency estate and any payments made to the assignor in respect of credits assigned prior to a declaration of insolvency will not form part of the assignor's insolvency estate even when the term of the credits falls after the date of declaration of insolvency of the assignor. In addition any amounts held by the servicer as a result of its collection of payments in respect of the credits assigned under the Securitisation Law will not form part of the servicer's insolvency estate.

Mortgages charging real estate under Portuguese law

Concept

A mortgage entitles the mortgagee, in the event of default of the relevant obligations, to be paid in preference to non-secured creditors from the proceeds of the sale of the relevant property, the subject of the mortgage.

Legal Form, Registry and Priority Rights

Until 31 December 2008, mortgages were only created by means of a notarial deed, which is a contract prepared and testified by, and executed before, a public notary and in compliance with certain formalities as to its creation (in some cases banks may have special template forms, pursuant to applicable legislation).

However, as from 1 January 2009, the entering into mortgage agreements is allowed under the following terms:

- public deed or private document, respectively, executed before, or certified by, a Notary;
- private document certified by a lawyer, bailiff (solicitador) or commerce associations; or
- public document executed before a Real Estate Registry Office.

The notarial deed, private document or public document for the creation of a mortgage are not sufficient for the full validity and enforceability of this type of security, and registration with the Real Estate Registry is required in order for a mortgage to be considered validly created.

Furthermore, registration also rules the ranking of creditors in the event that several mortgages are created over the same property. In this case, the ranking of rights among such creditors will correspond to the priority of mortgage registration (i.e., the creditor with a prior registered mortgage will rank ahead of the others).

Although mortgagees have priority over non-secured creditors, there are preferential rights which apply as a matter of law and which rank ahead of a mortgage, such as: (i) amounts due to the Portuguese Republic in respect of social security charges and taxes (except when insolvency of the obligor has been declared); and (ii) employees' credits in respect of unpaid salaries due by the mortgagor.

In accordance with the Portuguese Civil Code (Código Civil), the relevant originator, as lender of a mortgage loan, may require a borrower to provide additional security for a mortgage loan if the value of the property securing the mortgage loan is insufficient to cover the amount of the mortgage loan due to reasons which are not attributable to the lender.

Enforcement and court procedures

Enforcement of a mortgage over real property may only be made through a court procedure, whereby the mortgagee is entitled to demand the sale by a court of the property and be paid from the proceeds of such sale (after payment to the preferential creditors, if any).

The mortgagee may not take possession or become owner of the property (foreclosure) by virtue of enforcement of the mortgage, and is only entitled to be paid out of the proceeds of sale of the relevant property.

Should the mortgagee be willing to acquire the property, he may bid in the court sale along with (but with no preference) any other parties interested in the purchase of the property.

In case there are various creditors with mortgages over the same property, the proceeds of the sale of the property are distributed among the secured creditors in accordance with the registration priority and are allocated first to the payment of the first ranking secured creditor, with the remaining amount (if any) being allocated to the next ranking creditor.

Court procedures in relation to enforcement of mortgages over real property usually take 2 (two) to 4 (four) years on average for a final decision to be reached on the execution of a mortgage loan. Court fees payable in relation to the enforcement process are calculated on the basis of a fixed percentage of the value of the property. For additional information on the enforcement process, see below under "Enforcement Proceedings").

Risk of Set-Off by Borrowers

The Securitisation Law does not expressly deal with set-off. Accordingly, articles 847 to 856 of the Portuguese Civil Code are applicable.

The Securitisation Law has an impact on set-off risk to the extent that, by virtue of establishing that the assignment of credits by a credit institution, a financial company, an insurance company, pension funds and pension fund managers is effective against the debtor on the date of assignment of such credits without notification to the debtor being required (provided that the assignor is the servicer of the assigned credit), it effectively prevents a debtor from exercising any right of set-off against an assignee if such right did not exist against the assignor prior to the date of assignment.

Set-Off on Insolvency

Under article 99 of the Código de Insolvência e Recuperação de Empresas (the Code for the Insolvency and Recovery of Companies), implemented by Decree-Law no. 53/2004, of 18 March 2004, a debtor will only be able to exercise any right of set-off against a creditor after a declaration of insolvency of such creditor provided that, prior to the declaration of insolvency, (i) such set-off right existed, and (ii) the circumstances allowing set-off, as described in article 847 of the Portuguese Civil Code were met.

Data Protection Law

Law no. 67/98 of 26 October 1998 (“Law 67/98” or the “Data Protection Law”), which implemented Directive 95/46/EC, of 24 October 1995, as amended) provides for the protection of individuals regarding the processing and transfer of personal data.

Pursuant to Law 67/98, any processing of personal data requires express consent from the data subject, unless the processing is necessary in certain specific circumstances as provided under the relevant laws.

The entity collecting and processing personal data must obtain prior authorisation from the Portuguese Data Protection Authority (Comissão Nacional de Protecção de Dados or “CNPD”) before processing such data.

Transfer of personal data to an entity within a European Union Member State does not require to be authorised by the CNPD but must be notified to the relevant data subjects.

Assignment under the Securitisation Law

Assignments conducted under the Securitisation Law consist of assignment of credits and not of contractual positions. All the STC is acquiring is the entitlement to receive certain cash flows and not the contractual position of the Originator. Therefore, the assignment of the relevant receivables does not impose on the STC an obligation (if any) to perform further disbursements to the clients of the assignor as this will remain an obligation (if any) of the assignor.

Enforcement Proceedings

General Regime

Entitlement to file Enforcement Proceedings

In order to file for enforcement proceedings, the creditor must have an enforcement document (“título executivo”) that validates its request.

Such enforcement document defines the enforcement’s purposes and limits. Pursuant to Portuguese law, the following documents are considered valid enforcement titles:

- (a) Condemnatory decisions;
- (b) Documents issued or authenticated by notary or by any other entities with the same qualifications, originating or recognizing a valid obligation (this should be the case of the Receivable Agreements);
- (c) Credit instruments (“títulos de crédito”) such as cheques, promissory notes (“livranças”), etc.; or
- (d) Documents that the law determines to constitute enforcement titles such as, for example an injunction request that has been granted enforceable status.

Criteria for obtaining an enforcement measure in the context of Enforcement Proceedings

The obligation that originates the enforcement proceedings must be certain, due and of net value.

By certain the law requires that the object of the obligation is determined or determinable, meaning, that one must be able to identify what the object of the obligation is.

By due the law requires that the obligation is demandable. One can only file enforcement proceedings for the obligations in which the due date has already been met.

As for the requirement that the obligation is of net value it means that the obligation that is to be enforced in the proceedings has to have a determined amount or object.

As to the net value it is important to draw your attention to the fact that in case there is an interest rate to be applied to the amount of the obligation to be enforced, the interest shall be considered until the date that the amount in question is fully paid.

As to the debtor, the enforcement must be brought against the person who in the enforcement title is named as debtor.

The enforcement of a debt with an in rem security granted by a third party and enforceable against it, such as obligations to withhold income, pledges, mortgages, preferred claims, rights of retention, confiscation and seizure on third party assets will be brought directly against that third party if the enforcement agent wishes to enforce the guarantee.

When the enforcement has only been brought against the third party and it is known that the assets with the in rem security are insufficient, the enforcement creditor may, in the same process, request the continuation of the enforcement against the debtor who shall be order to satisfy the claim.

Jurisdiction

The enforcement shall be submitted before a Civil Court.

If the enforcement document is based on a court decision, the enforcement proceedings shall be requested in the court of first instance where the case was heard, unless in that location there is an enforcement court.

For the other enforcement documents the location of the court shall depend on what is to be enforced, but the general rule is that the competent court is the court for the domicile of the enforcement debtor. However, in case of a claim secured by a mortgage, the competence is of the court of the location of the property.

Main Bodies of the Enforcement Proceedings

There are two main bodies in the enforcement proceedings:

- (a) The enforcement agent;
- (b) The enforcement judge.

As to the enforcement agent, it is his duty to conduct the proceedings. He shall perform all the enforcement diligences, including summons, notifications and necessary publications under the supervision and control of the enforcement judge.

Enforcement agents are professionals with appropriate training who must be registered with the Enforcement Agents' Chamber and therefore a list with the identity of such enforcement agents is available at the internet platform Citius.

The appointment of enforcement agent is made by choice of the enforcement creditor in the enforcement request.

As to the enforcement judge, not only does he have a general duty to supervise and control the proceedings but also to issue a preliminary decision, to decide on the opposition to the enforcement and to the seizure order as well as to decide on the verification and rankings of the credits, to decide on any pleadings brought up by the enforcement creditor, the enforcement debtor or third parties interested.

The Proceedings

The proceedings include the following stages:

1. Enforcement request;
2. Opposition to the enforcement;
3. Enforcement measures – seizure;
4. Opposition to seizure by debtor / guarantor;
5. Calling of creditors with registered rights;
6. Judicial sale and payment to the enforcement creditors;
7. Termination of the enforcement.

Introduction Stage

Once the enforcement creditor has a proper title/document he may file the proceedings by submitting an enforcement request through the internet platform Citius (which is only available for lawyers duly registered in Portugal).

The request is a legal standard form where the enforcement creditor must include the following elements:

- (a) Indication of the enforcement's purpose;
- (b) Concise explanation of the facts where the request is based;
- (c) Net value of the credit;
- (d) Indication of any assets or information on the enforcement debtor's possessions that may be seized with the relevant documents;
- (e) Appointment of the enforcement agent;
- (f) Request to waive the prior summon of the enforcement debtor (if applicable).

Also, when filing for the enforcement proceedings the enforcement creditor must present the enforcement document and all the documents that may be considered important to find assets to seize.

The court shall refuse the request for:

- (a) Failure to include the aforementioned elements;
- (b) Absence of proper identification of the parties involved, their address and value attributed to the proceedings;
- (c) Failure to present the enforcement title or for plain insufficiency of the title;
- (d) Failure to present proof of payment of court initial fees;
- (e) The petition is not duly signed or written in Portuguese.

Once the enforcement request is received by the court there may be (i) a preliminary decision, a prior summon of the debtor and the seizure of the assets (ordinary process) or (ii) the proceedings may follow its course starting with a seizure (summary process);

In the preliminary decision the enforcement judge examines the enforcement title and may decide:

- (a) on an immediate rejection – if the enforcement title is not valid;

- (b) to invite the enforcement creditor to correct any irregularities of the enforcement request;
- (c) to order the summons of the enforcement debtor.

There is no preliminary decision (and the proceeding starts with the seizure) in the enforcement proceedings based on:

- (a) Decisions from judicial or arbitration courts;
- (b) Injunction request that has been granted enforceable status as stated in Decree-Law no. 269/98, of 1 September, as amended;
- (c) Documents issued or authenticated by notary that constitutes or recognizes a valid pecuniary obligation secured by a mortgage or a pledge;
- (d) Any pecuniary obligation that is in an amount equal or lower than €10,000.00 (ten thousand euros).

There is always a preliminary decision:

- (a) When the credit to be enforced depends on the verification of a certain condition or instalment by the enforcement creditor;
- (b) When the pecuniary obligation to be executed depends on the calculation of a net amount;
- (c) When the enforcement title is only against one debtor and such debtor states that other party is also liable for the debt;
- (d) In enforcement proceedings against subsidiary enforcement debtor's (such as guarantor or when there is a request to waive the prior summons).

Opposition to prior summons

Once the enforcement debtor is summoned, he must pay the amount to be enforced or in alternative present opposition to the enforcement within 20 (twenty) days from the date he was summoned.

The grounds to oppose the summons depend on the enforcement title.

If the enforcement title is a court decision, the enforcement debtor can only oppose to the enforcement proceedings with one of the following grounds:

- (a) Absence of enforcement title or its invalidity;
- (b) Forgery of the proceedings or the court decision;
- (c) Lack of grounds to proceeding with the enforcement;
- (d) Void of the summons or absence of summons;
- (e) Obligation to be enforced is not certain, demandable and of net value;
- (f) Prior sentence to the same obligation;
- (g) Any fact occurred after the sentence that preclude the right to enforce the sentence;
- (h) The existence of a credit of the debtor against the creditor which is possible to compensate;
- (i) If the title is a court decision that ratifies a confession or an agreement between the parties, any cause which may make such act invalid.

If the enforcement title is an arbitration court's sentence, the enforcement debtor may oppose to the proceedings with any of the above-mentioned grounds plus any grounds that may invalidate the said decision.

If the enforcement is based on any other title the enforcement creditor may oppose the enforcement with the any of the above-mentioned grounds along with any cause that may invalidate the enforcement creditor's right to enforce the obligation in question.

The enforcement judge receives the opposition and either rejects or accepts the opposition. Generally, the opposition, even if accepted by the enforcement judge, will not suspend the proceedings.

In case the opposition is accepted, parallel proceedings are opened to decide on the opposition (while enforcement continues) and the enforcement creditor may answer to the opposition within 20 (twenty) days from the day he was notified of the opposition.

If the opposition was presented after the prior summon of the debtor, the enforcement proceedings will only be suspended if the enforcement debtor pays a deposit in the amount to be enforced (such deposited amount will be used to pay the debt if the opposition presented is accepted and considered valid).

The enforcement judge will decide if the opposition is valid. If the judge decides to find it valid, it shall determine the termination of the proceedings, if not the enforcement shall continue, in case it had been suspended.

The enforcement measures

The obligation is enforced through the seizure of assets of the enforcement debtor. The law states that all the assets of the enforcement debtor that can be seized can be subject to enforcement proceedings. In cases specially provided by the law, third party assets can be seized if the enforcement has been brought against that third party.

If the debt enforced is secured by a mortgage or a pledge, the enforcement measures begin with the seizure of such asset.

The seizure is always limited to the assets necessary for the payment of the debt in question and the foreseeable costs of the enforcement. Hence, only objects and rights which can be evaluated in pecuniary terms can be seized. Assets which are not tradable cannot be seized and there are also some legal limits to seizure of some assets which can only be seized partially (like the salary of the debtor for example) or only in certain conditions.

It is convenient that the enforcement creditor indicates the mortgaged / pledged assets securing the debt in the enforcement petition. If no security exists or if he does not indicate the assets, in order to initiate the seizure, the enforcement agent takes all the proper measures to find assets that can be seized.

In order to find those assets, the enforcement agent may, if necessary, consult the records of social security and property registries. In case he is not able to locate assets that can be subject to seizure, the enforcement creditor is notified in order to identify other assets to be seized and the enforcement debtor is summoned to list assets capable of seizure.

The seizure shall proceed until there are enough assets to face the amount to be enforced. Once the assets are seized they are entrusted to someone who will be the depository, who shall administrate them with zeal and proper care. Currently, there are no depositaries created for these purposes and, therefore, the depository is typically the enforcement agent.

After every and each diligence of seizure the enforcement agent shall write a report. Also, the enforcement agent shall summon the enforcement debtor, the creditors that have a registered guarantee of the asset in question, the tax authorities and the social security.

Opposition to the seizure

If there is no prior summons, the enforcement starts with the seizure of the enforcement debtor's assets. At the seizure or within 20 (twenty) days of the seizure the enforcement debtor is notified to oppose to the enforcement in the terms mentioned above.

Also, with the seizure of the first asset, the enforcement debtor may oppose to the seizure within 20 (twenty) days with the following grounds:

- (a) Inadmissibility of the seizure of the assets or its extension;
- (b) Seizure of assets that should not be seized in the specific seizure diligence;
- (c) Seizure of assets that should not be seized for that specific obligation;

The seizure may be suspended upon the opposition to the seizure of the asset in question if the enforcement debtor pays for the proper deposit but in this case it shall only suspend the seizure of the asset in question.

Creditors with registered rights

The creditors with registered and known rights over the asset to be seized may claim their credits. The enforcement judge will then analyse the claimed credits and, if necessary, rank them in accordance.

Judicial sale and payment to the enforcement creditors

The payment to the enforcement creditor may be carried out by one of the following modes:

- (a) In cash;
- (b) Adjudication of the seized assets;
- (c) Assignment of earnings;
- (d) Payment in instalments;
- (e) Product of sale.

The payment in cash shall occur when the seized asset was cash, bank deposit or any pecuniary credit.

The adjudication of seized assets gives the enforcement creditor the possibility to choose to keep the seized assets as payment, even if partial.

However, it must be noted that the creditor (even if beneficiary of the mortgage asset) does not have the right to take possession or become owner of the asset (foreclosure) by virtue of enforcement of the mortgage, being only entitled to be paid in accordance with the payment procedures listed above.

Should the beneficiary be willing to acquire the actual asset, he may present a bid to acquire the asset. If, during the sale process, there is no offer in an amount higher than the proposal of the relevant creditor and there are no other creditors ranking senior to the mortgage creditor, the property is adjudicated to the creditor (receiving it as a payment in kind).

Nevertheless, if there are other creditors ranking senior to the mortgage creditor and the mortgage creditor is willing to acquire the actual mortgaged property, then it must deposit to the order of the court the amount in Euros that is required to repay such senior creditors, so that the mortgaged property may be attributed to such mortgage creditor (while ensuring higher ranking creditors are fully paid).

If the mortgage creditor presents a bid prior to the start of the sale process asking for the adjudication of the asset, and during the sale process there are other bids in higher amounts, the mortgage creditor may inform that it is willing to acquire for a higher price and, in such case, an auction takes place before the court.

The assignment of earnings takes place when, by request of the enforcement agent, the seized assets were real estate or any assets subject to registration. In that case, after hearing the enforcement debtor, if he does not request for the sale of the asset, the enforcement creditor may be paid by the income generated by the goods in question.

As to the sale, the following six alternatives may be considered:

- (a) Sale by closed letter;

- (b) Sale in stock markets;
- (c) Direct sale to persons or entities that are entitled to acquire the seized assets;
- (d) Sale by private negotiation;
- (e) Sale by auction;
- (f) Sale by public deposit;
- (g) Sale by electronic auction.

In fact, in parallel with the opposition and seizure process (and if no deposit has been made to suspend the proceeding), the enforcement agent may promote the judicial sale of the relevant assets, if necessary.

The sale process is decided by the enforcement agent but the law foresees that when the sale is of properties, it shall be preferentially made by means of electronic auction without any real estate companies involved.

If no offer is presented or no offer is accepted and there are no other creditors ranking above a secured creditor, the Enforcement Agent will move on to the sale by private negotiation process. However, the creditor holding a right in rem security (e.g. mortgage) may opt to request the adjudication of the property as payment of its credits. This option must be exercised by the creditor holding a right in rem security.

Likewise, in the process of sale by means of closed letters, there are no real estate companies involved. However, if the sale is made by means of direct negotiation (for example, when the sale by submission of closed letters has been frustrated) real estate companies may be contacted. In any case, the secured creditor must be consulted.

If the credit is secured by more than one mortgage, the enforcement agent may sell the assets individually or as a portfolio and when the mortgaged asset is put on sale, the enforcement agent indicates a reference amount that must be, at least, 85% (eighty-five per cent.) of the valuation amount defined by the Portuguese tax offices or the valuation amount determined by an external entity requested by the agent. The offers of amounts lower than such reference price are not accepted. If no higher offer is presented, the enforcement agent must promote the sale by other means and then accept the best offer (the 85% (eighty-five per cent.) threshold no longer applying). Whenever the proceeds of the sale of the mortgaged property are insufficient to repay the mortgaged creditor in full then such creditor will also be entitled to be paid as a common creditor out of the proceeds of sale of any other assets (if available) of the debtor that will need to be seized to this effect.

Such proceedings follow the same steps as outlined above in respect to the mortgage assets. If, in respect of the same debtor, there is more than one debt and more than one security / types of security, the claim presented by the creditor may cover all the debts and related security.

Special Recovery Proceeding (“Processo Especial de Revitalização”)

The special recovery proceedings is a stand-alone procedure outside of the scope of insolvency proceedings. It is a judicial proceeding based on out of court negotiations that shall be confirmed by the court. This proceeding aims to promote a rehabilitation of debtors facing financial difficulties (“Processo Especial de Revitalização” or “PER”) and was introduced in the CIRE by Law no. 16/2012 of 20 April 2012. The special recovery proceeding can be used by a debtor (an enterprise – empresa) that is in a difficult economic situation or in a situation of imminent insolvency, but proves it is economically viable (in essence, such debtor is in a distressed financial situation but an insolvency has not been declared by a court). A debtor that has already been declared insolvent cannot utilise the special recovery procedure (but may do so after the proceedings were initiated and up until the insolvency is declared by the court). Special recovery proceedings are designed to provide a moratorium on creditor action while a recovery plan is agreed.

The special recovery proceedings commences with the joint declaration of the debtor and one or more creditors, who are not specially related to the debtor and who make up, at least, 10% of the non-subordinated claims and with a proposal of a recovery plan accompanied, at least, with the description of the debtor's financial situation (addressed to the court that is competent to open insolvency proceedings in respect of the debtor). Once the formal requirements for opening the proceedings are verified the court will automatically open the proceedings. While, for the purpose of commencing special recovery proceedings, it is necessary for the debtor and one or more creditors, who are not specially related to the debtor and who make up, at least, 10% of the non-subordinated claims and with a proposal of a recovery plan accompanied, at least, with the description of the debtor's financial situation, other creditors may, at any time during the negotiations to agree the recovery plan, declare that they intend to participate in this proceeding by informing debtor of their intention to participate in the negotiations. Not all creditors will necessarily take part in the negotiations. However, once the plan has been approved and confirmed by the court it will, subject to the following exceptions for secured creditors, bind all creditors. Secured creditors are bound by the plan, but the priority of their security can only be affected with their specific consent. In practice the debtor will have canvassed significant creditors before applying to the court to commence the proceedings.

If special recovery proceedings are commenced the judge will immediately appoint a judicial administrator who will supervise and control the management of the debtor's estate during the negotiations between the debtor and the creditors. The fees of the judicial administrator will be paid by the debtor. The debtor's directors remain in office and do not lose their powers of management. The court will decide which specific powers the judicial administrator will have on a case by case basis. However, in general, the judicial administrator will be entrusted with the duty of supervising and providing guidance on the negotiations concerning the recovery plan and making sure the debtor does not cause any delay to its rehabilitation or carry out acts which serve no purpose to its rehabilitation. The debtor (acting through its directors if it is a legal entity) and the judicial administrator will negotiate the recovery plan with creditors that decide to take part in the negotiations.

The debtor's creditors must lodge a formal, written claim referred to as a "proof of debt". The judicial administrator will then review the claims and a list of all accepted claims will be published on the website Citius (the Portuguese judiciary online platform which includes an online section for insolvency notifications).

If the parties involved in the negotiations agree on the content of the recovery plan, the recovery plan is considered approved when more than two-thirds of all of the debtor's creditors (by value) vote in favour of the plan and more than half of those votes correspond to non-subordinated claims (by value) (creditors who abstain from voting are not counted). There is no creditors' meeting to vote on the recovery plan and so the votes of creditors are made in writing by post. The quorum is calculated according to the value of creditors' debts, which is calculated based on the list of claims published on the website Citius. Once approved by creditors, the plan must be validated by the court and, once validated by the court, it will bind all the creditors, even those that have not participated in the negotiations. The court will only validate the recovery plan if the majority rules that apply to an insolvency plan implemented through insolvency proceedings are observed. Once the plan is validated by the court, the special recovery proceeding ends and the recovery plan will be implemented and the company will continue with its business. Any discharge of debts will be governed by the recovery plan.

While negotiations are taking place in relation to the agreement of a recovery plan no legal action claiming the payment of a debt can be commenced and pending actions with the same purpose will be suspended. If the recovery plan is approved and validated by the judge, those actions will be considered terminated or continued (according to the provisions of the plan), and the payment of claims existing prior to the proceedings will be made according to the approved plan.

Provisions in contracts which result in the termination of the contract because of the opening of special recovery proceedings are valid and effective.

Special recovery proceedings are meant to be urgent restructuring proceedings and the proceedings lasts for a period of two months, which can be extended by a further month provided the judicial administrator and the debtor agree to the extension. This period starts counting from the publication of the debts' list on the website Citius.

If the recovery plan is not approved by all creditors, or no agreement can be reached on the recovery plan before it is put to the creditors' vote, the special recovery proceedings will be closed. If the debtor is not insolvent the closing of the proceeding leads to the extinction of all effects of the special recovery proceedings. In such cases, the debtor may proceed with its activity but it will be prevented from using the special recovery proceeding for a two-year period from the date that the first special recovery proceeding was closed. If the debtor is insolvent, the closing of the proceeding leads to the declaration of insolvency of the debtor and to the opening of insolvency proceedings.

The relevant decisions and notices within this proceeding are published on the website Citius. This will include the decision to open and close special recovery proceedings and the list of creditors' claims.

Insolvency Proceedings (“Processo de Insolvência”)

General Regime

The Portuguese insolvency and restructuring regime applicable to Portuguese companies (excluding public companies and financial and insurance companies) is governed by the CIRE which establishes the Portuguese insolvency regime.

There is only one type of insolvency proceedings (processo de insolvência) available, under which a company can be either (i) liquidated (either in accordance with a statutory/legal regime or through an insolvency plan) or (ii) rescued pursuant to an insolvency plan. The main purpose of these insolvency proceedings is the reimbursement of creditors and such proceedings can lead either to statutory liquidation proceedings or to the approval of an insolvency plan.

The same principles apply to the insolvency of natural persons, i.e., the insolvency proceedings may either lead to the liquidation of their assets or, to a payment plan according to which the payment of creditor's claims will occur.

Insolvency matters are heard in the Court of Commerce or in Sections of Commerce at a District Court. Where Courts of Commerce or Sections of Commerce at a District Court do not exist, corporate insolvency matters are also heard at standard District Courts. At present, there are only two Courts of Commerce (Lisboa and Vila Nova de Gaia) and two Sections of Commerce (at the District Courts of Aveiro and Sintra). Insolvency proceedings must be initiated at the Court of Commerce or District Court where the company has its head office, domicile or centre of main interests.

Insolvency is defined as a debtor's inability to meet its obligations as they fall due. If the debtor is a company, it will also be deemed to be insolvent when the aggregate value of its liabilities is higher than the value of its assets determined upon a fair assessment.

The debtor's insolvency will be imminent whenever the management recognises that all the efforts to avoid impending insolvency have been made without success and it is expected that, according to the regular course of company business, the company will soon become unable to meet its financial obligations as they fall due or that the debtor's liabilities will exceed its assets.

Commencement of proceedings

Insolvency proceedings may be initiated by the debtor or by a third party by filing an application for the opening of insolvency proceedings. Distinct procedural rules apply in accordance with who is filing the insolvency request to commence the proceedings.

The management of the company (manager, director or board of directors) must file for the opening of corporate insolvency proceedings whenever the legal requirements of insolvency are confirmed or may file for the opening of corporate insolvency proceedings whenever the insolvency of the debtor is imminent.

The decision to file for insolvency must be adopted by the debtor within 30 (thirty) days of the becoming insolvent or from the moment the debtor acting in accordance with its duties, should have become aware of the debtor's insolvency.

Where the debtor fails to comply with the obligation to file for insolvency, the debtor can be subject to personal liability for culpable insolvency. The CIRE foresees no similar liability in relation to the failure of the debtor to file for insolvency in cases of imminent insolvency.

An application to commence insolvency proceedings may also be initiated by any entity responsible for the debtor's debts, by any of the debtor's creditors or by the public prosecutor on behalf of the entities he or she legally represents. For this purpose, the applicant must show the grounds under which it is alleged that the debtor is insolvent, based on the verification of any of the evidentiary facts mentioned above, as well as the type and amount of the debt owed to it by the debtor, providing evidence to substantiate this.

Court's decision

By filing an insolvency request for the opening of corporate insolvency proceedings the debtor is acknowledging the fact that it is insolvent or that insolvency is imminent. Therefore, the court will consider the request as admittance by the debtor that it is insolvent and will deal with the request in a formal manner. In this case, the court will normally open the insolvency proceedings (the debtor is declared insolvent) within 3 (three) working days from the filing of the request.

Where the request is filed by a creditor or other third party and no reason for the immediate rejection of that request exists, the court will notify the debtor of the petition within 10 (ten) days from the filing of the request. The debtor then has the choice to either oppose or not the petition. If the debtor does not oppose the petition, the debtor is deemed to have admitted its insolvency and the debtor will be declared insolvent. In case the debtor opposes the petition, the court must schedule the hearing to consider the insolvency request within 5 (five) days from receiving the debtor's opposition. After the hearing, the court will, within 5 (five) days, either declare the insolvency or order the closing of the proceeding; the court's decision may be appealed by the applicant or debtor.

Where the court concludes that an application to commence corporate insolvency proceedings is unfounded or deceitful, the applicant (debtor or third party) may be liable for any losses and damages to the debtor or to any of its creditors which were caused by the application.

Where the court declares the debtor insolvent and opens corporate insolvency proceedings, the court must, among other actions prescribed by law, also:

- (a) appoint an insolvency administrator;
- (b) serve a notice on the creditors to file their proofs of debt within a period up to 30 (thirty) days from the date the opening of the corporate insolvency proceedings is notified to certain creditors or, for those creditors not directly notified, the date on which the opening of the corporate insolvency proceedings is published; and
- (c) except in certain specific circumstances, order that the company's assets be transferred to the insolvency administrator.

Although the competence to appoint the insolvency administrator is of the court, an insolvency administrator may be recommended by the creditor in the insolvency request (in particular when a specific know-how is necessary to understand the business or to manage the assets).

The first creditors' meeting

At the first creditors' meeting a decision must be made on whether the debtor's activities (including establishments forming part of the assets of the insolvent estate) should be continued or should be closed down. No specific quorum requirements apply to this meeting and a simple majority is required for the approval of the decisions.

If the creditors decide that the debtor should be closed down and that it is not appropriate to propose an insolvency plan to deal with the debtor's liquidation or the rescue of the debtor, then the company will be liquidated in accordance with the statutory regime in the CIRE. If an insolvency plan is proposed and then not approved the liquidation procedure in the CIRE will also be followed. The aim of liquidation proceedings is for the liquidator to collect in and sell the assets of the company in order for distributions to be made to the company's creditors.

If the creditors decide that the debtors' activities should be continued then an insolvency plan to rescue the debtor needs to be prepared and approved.

Insolvency plan (“plano de insolvência”)

The settlement of creditors' claims, the liquidation of the insolvent estate and its distribution among the creditors, as well as the status of the debtor's liabilities after the closure of the insolvency proceedings, may be determined by an insolvency plan. The insolvency plan may provide for different solutions than provided for under the statutory liquidation regime. In addition, an insolvency plan may be used to reach a compromise with creditors so that the company can be rescued and continue in business.

An insolvency plan may be prepared by any party to the insolvency proceedings (the insolvency administrator, the company or a creditor or a group of creditors). While the insolvency plan is being prepared the liquidation of the company is suspended. The insolvency plan must include all existing creditors and specify the purpose of the plan and how it will be implemented. The insolvency plan must also contain a payment plan, which will include all claims submitted by creditors that have been approved by the insolvency administrator.

The insolvency plan must provide for creditors to be treated equally (unless differences are justified by objective circumstances or creditors agree to be treated differently) and the content of the insolvency plan may be freely proposed by the party preparing the plan.

Any agreement by which the administrator, the company or any third person grants any advantage to a creditor that is not set out in the insolvency plan is null and void.

The insolvency plan will be debated and approved at a creditors' meeting. In order for a creditors' meeting to be quorate it must be attended in person or by proxy by creditors holding at least one-third by value of the total number of claims with voting rights. The insolvency plan is binding on all creditors once it has been approved in accordance with the majorities stated in the CIRE (votes in favour of the plan of creditors representing two-thirds of the issued votes (one euro of claim corresponds to one vote) and more than half of the issued votes must correspond to non-subordinated claims). Creditors whose rights are not affected by the plan and creditors with subordinated claims below a certain level do not have voting rights.

After the corporate insolvency proceedings are opened and until the proceedings are closed any secured party may only enforce its rights against the insolvent debtor by filing a claim within the insolvency proceedings. Once an insolvency plan has been approved it will not be possible for any party to enforce its security (unless such enforcement is contemplated by the plan).

Ranking of claims

The CIRE distinguishes between four categories of claims within the insolvency proceedings: secured, preferential, unsecured and subordinated. Such claims are paid in the following order.

Secured claims. Those with security in rem over assets which are part of the insolvent estate (up to the value of those assets). Secured claims also include special creditors' preferential claims, such as the preferential right employees benefit from over the specific company premises where they carry out their activity. This category of claim not only covers the principal claim but also the interest arising on that claim. If the secured claim exceeds the value of the secured creditor's security, any shortfall will be an unsecured claim in the insolvency proceedings.

Prior Ranking claims. These are the general creditors' prior ranking claims over the assets in the insolvent estate (up to the value of the assets over which such preferential claims exist), and where the claims are not extinguished as a consequence of the declaration of insolvency. Prior ranking claims include certain debts to tax and social security authorities. The priority granted to the party that applied for the opening of the corporate insolvency proceedings is ranked as a prior ranking claim. Funds provided to a debtor in the special recovery proceedings (i.e. pursuant to the recovery plan) are also ranked as preferential claims and no time limit applies to this priority.

Unsecured claims. Those not covered by any of the above categories (and which are not subordinated). These will generally be the majority of the claims in the insolvency proceedings.

Subordinated claims. The following claims are subordinated and will be paid after all other claims in the insolvency proceedings (except where they carry general or special creditors' preferential rights, or are secured by legal mortgages which are not extinguished as a result of the declaration of insolvency):

- (a) The claims of persons with a special relationship with the debtor; these include shareholders, partners, persons who have been in a position of control over the debtor, other group companies and persons to whom such claims have been transferred in the two years prior to the commencement of the corporate insolvency proceedings;
- (b) Interest on non-subordinated claims arising after the commencement of the insolvency proceedings, except for those covered by security in rem and by general creditors' preferential rights up to the value of the assets in question;
- (c) Claims which are subordinated by agreement between the parties (i.e. contractual subordination is valid and effective as a matter of Portuguese insolvency law);
- (d) Claims arising from obligations of the debtor in which it receives no consideration in return;
- (e) Claims against the insolvent estate which, as a result of decisions benefiting the estate itself, are held by a third party not acting in good faith;
- (f) Claims for interest on subordinated claims arising after the commencement of the corporate insolvency proceedings; and
- (g) Claims in respect of shareholders' loans.

Upon the opening of corporate insolvency proceedings, the priority of the following claims ceases:

- (a) General creditors' preferential rights attached to claims against the insolvent estate held by the State, local authorities and social security institutions, which arose more than 12 months prior to the commencement of the corporate insolvency proceedings;
- (b) Special creditors' preferential rights attached to claims against the insolvent estate and held by the State, local authorities and social security institutions, and which were due and payable more than 12 months prior to the commencement of the corporate insolvency proceedings;
- (c) Legal mortgages for which an application for registration was made in the two months prior to the commencement of the corporate insolvency proceedings, which secure claims against the insolvent estate and in respect of which the mortgagee is the State, local authorities or social security institutions;

- (d) If dependent on registration, security in rem over registrable real or movable property forming part of the insolvent estate, which support claims against the insolvent estate which are already in existence but not yet registered or where registration has not yet been applied for; and
- (e) Security in rem over assets forming part of the insolvent estate to the extent they are securing claims judged to be subordinated.

The costs and expenses of the corporate insolvency proceedings take priority over all claims and will be paid from the proceeds of the insolvent estate (or from the company's income if its operations are continued after the approval of an insolvency plan) and, if these are not sufficient, the costs will be met by the sale of assets which are subject to security interests up to a limit of 10 (ten) per cent. of the proceeds of such sale.

Credits secured by mortgage assets

Accordingly, when the creditor has a mortgage or other in rem security over assets in the insolvency estate, the creditor is paid with the proceeds of the sale of the relevant mortgaged asset, provided that no privileged creditor ranks with priority over it. The costs and expenses of the insolvency proceedings (including court costs, insolvency administrator's costs and fees, certain liabilities which arise after the commencement of insolvency proceedings, etc.) take priority over all claims and will be paid from the proceeds of the insolvent estate and, if these are not sufficient, the costs will be met by the sale of assets which are subject to security interests up to a limit of 10% (ten per cent.) of the proceeds of such sale.

It shall be noted that the sale in an insolvency proceeding follows the rules mentioned above applicable to the enforcement proceedings except when the insolvency administrator opts for an alternative proceeding he considers more appropriate.

Where an insolvency plan is approved by the creditors and in the absence of any provision to the contrary in the insolvency plan, any right in rem or preference is not affected by the insolvency plan (it should in any case be noted that, even if the mortgage itself, for example, cannot be affected, the amount of the credit may have been reduced as per the agreed insolvency plan).

The insolvency plan is binding on all creditors once it has been approved in accordance with the majorities stated in the CIRE and then confirmed by the insolvency judge.

Once an insolvency plan has been approved it will not be possible for any party to enforce its security (unless such enforcement is contemplated by the plan).

If an insolvency plan is adopted and the company does not comply with the measures identified, the moratorium and creditors forgiveness cease their effects and new insolvency proceedings may start.

Credits secured by pledges

In case the creditor is secured by pledges the insolvency proceedings follow the same process explained above with the exception of financial pledges, constituted under Decree-Law no. 105/2004, of 8 May, as amended, in respect of which the commencement of insolvency proceedings shall not affect out-of-court enforcement provisions.

OVERVIEW OF PROVISIONS RELATING TO INTERBOLSA

General

Interbolsa manages a centralised system (sistema centralizado) composed of interconnected securities accounts, through which such securities (and inherent rights) are held and transferred, and which allows Interbolsa to control at all times the amount of securities so held and transferred. Issuers of securities, financial intermediaries, the Bank of Portugal and Interbolsa, as the controlling entity, all participate in such centralised system.

The centralised securities system of Interbolsa provides for all the procedures required for the exercise of ownership rights inherent in notes held through Interbolsa.

In relation to each issue of securities, Interbolsa's centralised system comprises, inter alia, (i) the issue account, opened by the relevant issuer in the centralised system and which reflects the full amount of issued securities; and (ii) the control accounts opened by each of the financial intermediaries which participate in Interbolsa's centralised system, and which reflect the securities held by such participant on behalf of its customers in accordance with its individual securities accounts.

Securities held through Interbolsa will be attributed an International Securities Identification Number (“ISIN”) code through the codification system of Interbolsa and will be accepted for clearing through LCH.Clearnet, S.A. as well as through the clearing systems operated by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and settled by Interbolsa's settlement system. - 8.4. Notifications etc.: All notifications, opinions, determinations, certificates, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of this Condition by the Transaction Manager will (in the absence of manifest error) be binding on the Issuer, the Transaction Manager, the Principal Paying Agent, the Portuguese Paying Agent, the Common Representative, the Noteholder and (subject as aforesaid) no liability to any such person will attach to the Transaction Manager in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of its powers, duties and discretions for such purposes in accordance with the terms of the Transaction Documents, other than by reason of its own negligence, bad faith, wilful default or fraud.
- 8.5. Interpretation: In these Conditions, “Business Day” means any day on which the Trans-European Automated Real-Time Gross Settlement Express Transfer System (“TARGET 2”) is open for settlement of payments in Euro (a “TARGET 2 Day”) or, if such TARGET 2 Day is not a day on which banks are open for business in London, Lisbon and Frankfurt, the next succeeding TARGET 2 Day on which banks are open for business in London, Lisbon and Frankfurt.
- 8.6. Failure of Transaction Manager: If the Transaction Manager fails at any time to determine the Interest Amount, the Common Representative may, or will use commercially reasonable endeavours to appoint a person (at the expense of the Issuer which for the avoidance of any doubt shall be considered as an Issuer Expense) who will, calculate such Interest Amount. - 8.7. Interest Period: Each period beginning on (and including) the Closing Date or any Interest Payment Date (as applicable) and ending on (but excluding) the next Interest Payment Date is an “Interest Period”. Interest accrues on the Notes on a daily basis irrespective of whether such day is a Business Day.
- 9. *Final Redemption, Mandatory Redemption in Part and Optional Redemption
- 9.1. Mandatory Redemption in part of the Notes: On each Interest Payment Date, subject to the relevant Payments Priorities, the Issuer will cause any Available Distribution Amount to be applied in or towards payment of the Principal Amount Outstanding of the Notes in each case in an amount rounded down to the nearest 0.01 euro and as determined on the related Calculation Date.
- 9.2. Optional Redemption in Whole for Taxation Reasons: The Issuer may redeem all (but not some only) of the Notes at their Principal Amount Outstanding together with accrued interest on any Interest Payment Date:

- (a) after the date on which, by virtue of a change in Tax law of the Issuer’s Jurisdiction (or the application or official interpretation of such Tax law), the Issuer would be required to make a Tax Deduction from any payment in respect of the Notes (other than by reason of the relevant Noteholder having some connection with the Portuguese Republic, other than the holding of the Notes); or
- (b) after the date on which, by virtue of a change in the Tax law of the Issuer’s Jurisdiction (or the application or official interpretation of such Tax law), the Issuer would not be entitled to relief for the purposes of such Tax law for any material amount which it is obliged to pay, or the Issuer would be treated as receiving for the purposes of such Tax law any material amount which it is not entitled to receive under the Transaction Documents; or
- (c) after the date of a change in the Tax law of the Issuer’s Jurisdiction (or the application or official interpretation of such Tax law) which would cause the total amount payable in respect of any of the Notes to cease to be receivable by the Noteholders including as a result of any of the Borrowers being obliged to make a Tax Deduction in respect of any payment in relation to any Receivables or the Issuer being obliged to make a Tax Deduction in respect of any payment in relation to any Note,
- (d) subject to the following:
 - (A) that the Issuer has given not more than 60 (sixty) nor less than 30 (thirty) days’ notice to the Noteholders and the Common Representative (and copying the Cap Counterparty), in accordance with the Notices Condition of its intention to redeem all (but not some only) of the Notes; and
 - (B) that the Issuer has provided to the Common Representative:
 - (1) a legal opinion (in form and substance satisfactory to the Noteholders) from a firm of lawyers in the Issuer’s Jurisdiction (approved in writing by the Noteholder), opining on the relevant change in Tax law; and
 - (2) a certificate signed by two directors of the Issuer to the effect that the obligation to make a Tax Deduction cannot be avoided; and
 - (3) a certificate signed by two directors of the Issuer to the effect that it will have the funds on the relevant Interest Payment Date, not subject to the interest of any other person, required to redeem the Notes pursuant to this Condition and meet its payment obligations of a higher priority under the relevant Payment Priorities,
- (e) provided that if on such Interest Payment Date the funds available to the Issuer are not sufficient to redeem the Class J Notes at their Principal Amount Outstanding, the Class J Notes shall be deemed to be redeemed in full and all the claims of the relevant Noteholder for any shortfall in the Principal Amount Outstanding of such Class J Notes shall be extinguished.
- (f) Redemption in whole of the Notes by the Issuer referred to in any of the items above may only occur provided that the relevant assignment of credits by the Issuer under article 45 of the Securitisation Law fully complies with the Bid Process and is monitored by the Monitoring Agent and approved by the Servicing Committee.

9.3. Junior Noteholder Put Option: Subject to the provisions of the Securitisation Law in force, the Issuer may redeem all (but not some only) of the Notes in each Class at their Principal Amount Outstanding together with accrued interest on any Interest Payment Date, provided that the following conditions are met (the “Put Option Conditions”):

- a) the Issuer has received from the majority of the Class J Noteholders a written resolution confirming that the Class J Noteholders are exercising their option (the “Junior Noteholder Put Option”) to decide to have all (but not some only) of the Notes redeemed at their Principal Amount Outstanding; and

- b) the Issuer has received confirmation from the Transaction Manager that it will have the necessary available funds in the Available Distribution Amount to discharge all its outstanding liabilities in respect of the Notes and all amounts required under the relevant Payment Priorities to be paid in priority or pari passu with the Notes; and
- c) such confirmation from the Transaction Manager as described in item (b) above is evidence acceptable to the Common Representative that the Available Distribution Amount is sufficient to redeem all (but not some only) of the Notes in accordance with the relevant Payment Priorities; and
- d) the Class J Noteholders exercising the Junior Noteholder Put Option have established to the satisfaction of the Issuer that they hold the relevant Class J Notes on the date on which the Junior Noteholder Put Option is exercised and that they will be the holders of such Class J Notes on the Put Option Date; and
- e) the exercise of the Junior Noteholder Put Option by the Class J Noteholder is valid to discharge all of the Issuer’s obligations under or in connection with the Notes towards the Noteholders and the Transaction Creditors and confirmation that funds are available to the Issuer to meet its payment obligations of a higher or equal priority; and
- f) the exercise of the Junior Noteholder Put Option satisfies all the applicable legal requirements, including the ones arising under the Securitisation Law, notably under article 45 thereof; and
- g) the assignment of the Receivables Portfolio for the purposes of the exercise of the Junior Noteholder Put Option complies with the Bid Process and is monitored by the Monitoring Agent and approved by the Servicing Committee,

It is expressly stated and agreed that the exercise of the Junior Noteholder Put Option by the Class J Noteholder shall be conditional upon there being sufficient funds to redeem the Notes, and the Issuer shall have no obligation whatsoever to actually redeem the Notes in the event that there are no such sufficient funds, and the Issuer shall not be obliged to use any efforts to procure that such sufficient funds are made available to it. In case the Notes will be not redeemed on the relevant Interest Payment Date, the exercise of the Put Option will become ineffective, which shall not affect the Class J Noteholders’ right to exercise further Junior Noteholder Put Options in accordance with the terms of this Condition.

The Class A Noteholders and the Class B Noteholders acknowledge, agree and confirm that, subject to the satisfaction of the Put Option Conditions, the Issuer may redeem all (but not some only) of the Notes upon the exercise of the Junior Noteholder Put Option.

- 9.4. Redemption in Whole at the Option of the Issuer (10% clean-up call): The Issuer may redeem all (but not some only) of the Notes at their Principal Amount Outstanding together with accrued interest on any Interest Payment Date when, on the Calculation Date immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date, the Adjusted Aggregate Principal Outstanding Balance of the Receivables is equal to or less than 10% (ten per cent.) of the Adjusted Aggregate Principal Outstanding Balance of all of the Receivables as at the Collateral Determination Date.

For the purposes above, “Adjusted Aggregate Principal Outstanding Balance” means the Aggregate Principal Outstanding Balance multiplied by the Discount Factor; “Discount Factor” means the result of the division of the Purchase Price by the Aggregate Principal Outstanding Balance of the Receivables as at the Collateral Determination Date.

The redemption of the Notes under this Condition is subject to the following:

- (A) that the Issuer has given not more than sixty (60) nor less than thirty (30) days’ notice to the Noteholders and the Common Representative (and copying the Cap Counterparty), in accordance with the Notices Condition of its intention to redeem all (but not some only) of the Notes; and
- (B) that the Issuer has provided to the Common Representative a certificate signed by two directors of the Issuer to the effect that it will have the funds on the relevant Interest Payment Date, not subject to the interest of any other person, required to redeem the Notes pursuant to this Condition and meet its payment obligations of a higher priority under the relevant Payment Priorities, provided that if on such Interest Payment Date the funds available to the Issuer are not sufficient to redeem the Class J Notes at their Principal Amount Outstanding, the Class J Notes shall be deemed to be redeemed in full and all the claims of the relevant Noteholder for any shortfall in the Principal Amount Outstanding of such Class J Notes shall be extinguished.

Redemption in whole of the Notes by the Issuer referred to in any of the items above may only occur provided that the relevant assignment of credits by the Issuer under article 45 of the Securitisation Law fully complies with the Bid Process and is monitored by the Monitoring Agent and approved by the Servicing Committee.

- 9.5. Final Legal Maturity Date: Unless previously redeemed and cancelled, the Notes will be redeemed at their Principal Amount Outstanding, together with accrued interest (if any), on the Interest Payment Date falling on November 2037 (the “Final Legal Maturity Date”).

The actual final redemption date of the Notes may be earlier, and could be substantially earlier, than their Final Legal Maturity Date. If the Notes will be redeemed on the Final Legal Maturity Date pursuant to these Conditions, any payments in respect of the Principal Amount Outstanding as of the relevant Final Legal Maturity Date, and of interest in respect of the Notes shall be made in accordance with the Payment Priorities set out in Condition 8 (Payment Priorities) above.

Enforcement), an Extraordinary Resolution of the holders of the Most Senior Class of Notes resolve to request the Issuer to sell all (or part only) of the Receivables Portfolio to one or more third parties, the Issuer will be authorised to search for potential purchasers of all (or part only) of the Receivables Portfolio, in order to enable the relevant Notes to be redeemed. For the sake of clarity, the foregoing is without prejudice to any disposals of Receivables to the Asset Manager in accordance with the Asset Management Agreement.

Without prejudice to the above, and following the Class A Notes having been redeemed in full, if any of the circumstances (i) to (iv) above apply, the Issuer, assisted by the Servicers and upon direction of the Monitoring Agent, will organise a competitive bid process in order to sell the Receivables Portfolio (the “Bid Process”). The Bid Process procedure shall be carried out in compliance with the best practices of the industry and in line with transparency standards, in order to maximize the purchase price of the Receivables Portfolio and the Issuer will be able to sell the Receivables Portfolio to the selected party only if the proceedings deriving from the sale of the Receivables Portfolio shall be sufficient to allow the Issuer, on the following Interest Payment Date, to redeem:

- (i) the Class B Notes in whole (but not in part) at their Principal Amount Outstanding (together with any interest accrued and unpaid thereon until the date on which such redemption occurs) and (b) the Class J Notes in part (together with any interest accrued and unpaid thereon until the date on which such redemption occurs) provided that as a result of their partial redemption their Principal Amount Outstanding is not higher than Euro 5,000, or
- (ii) with the prior written consent of a majority of the Class J Noteholders, the Class B Notes in whole and the Class J Notes in part (together with any interest accrued and unpaid thereon until the date on which such redemption occurs), and in any case to allow the Issuer to pay any amounts required under the Conditions to be paid in priority to or pari passu with such Class of Notes to be redeemed and any amounts required under the Conditions to be paid in priority to or pari passu thereto.

12.3. Conditions to delivery of Enforcement Notice: Notwithstanding Condition 12.2 (Delivery of Enforcement Notice) above, the Common Representative shall not be obliged to deliver an Enforcement Notice unless:

12.4. Consequences of delivery of Enforcement Notice: Upon the delivery of an Enforcement Notice, the Notes of each Class shall become immediately due and payable without further action or formality at their Principal Amount Outstanding together with any accrued interest and deferred interest, in accordance with Condition 8.2.2 (Post-Enforcement Payment Priorities).

TAXATION

The following is a summary of the current Portuguese tax treatment at the date hereof in relation to certain aspects of the Portuguese taxation of payments of principal and interest in respect of, and transfers of, the Notes. The statements do not deal with other Portuguese tax aspects regarding the Notes and relate only to the position of persons who are absolute beneficial owners of the Notes. The following is a general guide, does not constitute tax or legal advice and should be treated with appropriate caution. This summary is based upon the law as in effect on the date of this Prospectus and is subject to any change in law that may take effect after such date. Noteholders who may be liable to taxation in jurisdictions other than Portugal in respect of their acquisition, holding or disposal of the Notes are particularly advised to consult their professional advisers as to whether they are so liable (and if so under the laws of which jurisdictions). In particular, Noteholders should be aware that they may be liable to taxation under the laws of Portugal and of other jurisdictions in relation to payments in respect of the Notes even if such payments may be made without withholding or deduction for or on account of taxation under the laws of Portugal.

The reference to “interest” and “capital gains” in the paragraphs below mean “interest” and “capital gains” as understood in Portuguese tax law. The statements below do not take any account of any different definitions of “interest” or “capital gains” which may prevail under any other law or which may be created by the Conditions or any related documentation.

The present transaction qualifies as a securitisation transaction (operação de titularização de créditos) for the purposes of the Securitisation Law. Portuguese tax-related issues for transactions which qualify as securitisation transactions under the Securitisation Law are generally governed by the Securitisation Tax Law. Under article 4(1) of Securitisation Tax Law and further to the confirmation by the Portuguese Tax Authorities pursuant to Circular no. 4/2014, the tax regime applicable on debt securities in general, foreseen in Decree-Law 193/2005 also applies on income generated by the holding or the transfer of Notes issued under the Securitisation transactions.

Noteholders' income tax

Income generated by the holding (distributions) or transfer (capital gains) of the Notes is generally subject to the Portuguese tax regime established for debt securities (obrigações).

Any payments of interest made in respect of the Notes to Noteholders who are not Portuguese residents for tax purposes and do not have a permanent establishment in Portugal to which the income is attributable will be, as a rule, exempt from Portuguese income tax under Decree-Law 193/2005. Pursuant to Decree-Law 193/2005, interest paid on, as well as capital gains derived from a sale or other disposition of the Notes, to non-Portuguese resident Noteholders will be exempt from Portuguese income tax provided the debt securities are integrated in (i) a centralised system for securities managed by an entity resident for tax purposes in Portugal, or (ii) an international clearing system operated by a managing entity established in a member state of the EU other than Portugal (e.g. Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg) or in a European Economic Area Member State provided, in this case, that such State is bound to cooperate with Portugal under an administrative cooperation arrangement in tax matters similar to the exchange of information schemes in relation to tax matters existing within the EU Member States or (iii) integrated in other centralised systems not covered above provided that, in this last case, the Portuguese Government authorises the application of the Decree-Law 193/2005, and the beneficiaries are:

- (a) central banks or governmental agencies; or
- (b) international bodies recognised by the Portuguese State; or
- (c) entities resident in countries or jurisdictions with whom Portugal has a double tax treaty in force or a tax information exchange agreement in force; or
- (d) other entities without headquarters, effective management or a permanent establishment in the Portuguese territory to which the relevant income is attributable and which are not domiciled in a blacklisted jurisdiction as set out in the Ministerial Order (Portaria) no.

150/2004, of 13 February, as amended by Ministerial Order (Portaria) no. 292/2011, 8 November 2011, by Ministerial Order (Portaria) no. 345-A/2016, 30 December 2016 and by Law no. 114/2017, 29 December 2017 (the “Ministerial Order 150/2004”).

For purposes of application at source of this tax exemption regime, Decree-Law 193/2005 requires completion of certain procedures aimed at verifying the non-resident status of the Noteholder and the provision of information to that effect. Accordingly, to benefit from this tax exemption regime, a Noteholder is required to hold the Notes through an account with one of the following entities:

- a) direct registered entity, which is the entity with which the debt securities accounts that are integrated in the centralised system are opened;
- b) an indirect registered entity, which, although not assuming the role of the “direct registered entities”, is a client of the latter; or
- c) an international clearing system, which is an entity that proceeds, in the international market, to clear, settle or transfer securities which are integrated in centralised systems or in their own registration systems.

Domestic cleared notes – held through a direct registered entity

Direct registered entities are required to register the Noteholders in one of two accounts: (i) an exempt account or (ii) a non-exempt account. Registration in the exempt account is crucial for the tax exemption to apply upfront and requires evidence of the non-resident status of the beneficiary, to be provided by the Noteholder to the direct registered entity prior to the relevant date for payment of interest and to the transfer of Notes, as follows:

if the beneficiary is a central bank, an international body recognised as such by the Portuguese State, or a public law entity and respective agencies, a declaration issued by the beneficial owner of the Notes itself duly signed and authenticated, or proof of non-residence pursuant to (iv) below. The respective proof of non-residence in Portugal is provided once, its periodical renewal not being necessary and the beneficial owner should inform the direct register entity immediately of any change in the requisite conditions that may prevent the tax exemption from applying;

if the beneficiary is a credit institution, a financial company, a pension fund or an insurance company domiciled in any OECD country or in a country with which Portugal has entered into a double taxation treaty, certification shall be made by means of the following: (A) its tax identification official document; or (B) a certificate issued by the entity responsible for such supervision or registration, or by tax authorities, confirming the legal existence of the beneficial owner of the Notes and its domicile; or (C) proof of non-residence pursuant to (iv) below. The respective proof of non-residence in Portugal is provided once, its periodical renewal not being necessary and the beneficial owner should inform the direct register entity immediately of any change in the requisite conditions that may prevent the tax exemption from applying;

if the beneficiary is an investment fund or other collective investment scheme domiciled in any OECD country or in a country with which the Portuguese Republic has entered into a double tax treaty in force or a tax information exchange agreement in force, it must provide (a) a declaration issued by the entity responsible for its supervision or registration or by the relevant tax authority, confirming its legal existence, domicile and law of incorporation; or (b) proof of non-residence pursuant to the terms of paragraph (iv) below; The respective proof of non-residence in Portugal is provided once, its periodical renewal not being necessary and the beneficial owner should inform the direct register entity immediately of any change in the requisite conditions that may prevent the tax exemption from applying; other investors will be required to prove their non-resident status by way of: (a) a certificate of residence or equivalent document issued by the relevant tax authorities; (b) a document issued by the relevant Portuguese Consulate certifying residence abroad; or (c) a document specifically issued by an official entity which forms part of the public administration (either central, regional or peripheral, indirect or autonomous) of the relevant country. The beneficiary must provide an original or a certified copy of such documents and, as a rule, if such documents do not refer to a specific year and do not expire, they must have been issued within the three years prior to the relevant payment or maturity dates or, if issued after the relevant payment or maturity dates, within the following three months. The Beneficiary must inform the direct registering entity immediately of any change in the requirement conditions that may eliminate the tax exemption.

Internationally cleared notes – held through an entity managing an international clearing system

Pursuant to the requirements set forth in the tax regime, if the Notes are registered in an account held by an international clearing system operated by a managing entity, the latter shall transmit, on each interest payment date and each relevant redemption date, to the direct register entity or to its representative, and with respect to all accounts under its management, the identification and quantity of securities, as well as the amount of income, and, when applicable, the amount of tax withheld, segregated by the following categories of beneficiaries:

entities with residence, headquarters, effective management or permanent establishment to which the income would be imputable and which are non-exempt and subject to withholding;

entities which have residence in country, territory or region with a more favourable tax regime, included in the Portuguese “blacklist” (countries and territories listed in Ministerial Order no. 150/2004) and which are non-exempt and subject to withholding;

entities with residence, headquarters, effective management or permanent establishment to which the income would be imputable, and which are exempt or not subject to withholding;

other entities which do not have residence, headquarters, effective management or permanent establishment to which the income generated by the securities would be imputable.

On each interest payment date and each relevant redemption date, the following information with respect to the beneficiaries that fall within the categories mentioned in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) above, should also be transmitted:

- a) name and address;
- b) tax identification number (if applicable);
- c) identification and quantity of the securities held; and
- d) amount of income generated by the securities.

If the conditions for the exemption to apply are met, but, due to inaccurate or insufficient information, tax was withheld, a special refund procedure is available under the special regime approved by Decree Law 193/2005. The refund claim is to be submitted to the direct register entity of the Notes within 6 months from the date the withholding took place. Following the amendments to Decree-Law 193/2005, introduced by Law no. 83/2013, of 9 December, a new special tax form for these purposes was approved by Order (Despacho) no. 2937/2014, published in the Portuguese official gazette, second series, no. 37, of 21 February 2014 issued by the Secretary of State of Tax Affairs (Secretário de Estado dos Assuntos Fiscais).

If the above exemption does not apply, interest payments on the Notes are subject to a final withholding tax at the current rate of 25% (twenty-five per cent.) whenever made to non-resident legal persons or to a final withholding tax at the current rate of 28% (twenty-eight per cent.) whenever made to non-resident individuals.

A final withholding tax rate of 35% (thirty-five per cent.) applies in case of interest payments to individuals or legal persons domiciled in countries and territories included in the Portuguese “tax haven” list approved by Ministerial Order no. 150/2004. Interest paid or made available to accounts opened in the name of one or more accountholders acting on behalf of one or more unidentified third parties is subject to a final withholding tax rate of 35% (thirty-five per cent.), unless the relevant beneficial owner(s) of the income is/are identified, in which case, the withholding tax rates applicable to such beneficial owner(s) will apply.

Under the double taxation conventions entered into by Portugal which are in full force and effect on the date of this Prospectus, the withholding tax rate may be reduced to 15 (fifteen), 12 (twelve), 10 (ten) or 5 (five) per cent., depending on the applicable convention and provided that the relevant formalities and procedures are met. In order to benefit from such reduction, Noteholders shall comply with certain requirements established by the Portuguese Tax Authorities, aimed at verifying the non-resident status and entitlement to the respective tax treaty benefits. The reduction may apply at source or through the refund of the excess tax withheld (currently by way of submission of tax form 21 RFI or tax form 22 RFI, respectively).

Interest derived from the Notes and capital gains obtained with the transfer of the Notes by legal persons resident for tax purposes in Portugal and by non-resident legal persons with a permanent establishment in Portugal to which the interest or capital gains are attributable are included in their taxable income and are subject to a corporate tax at a rate of (i) 21% (twenty-one per cent.) (16.8% sixteen point eight per cent. in the Autonomous Region of Azores) or (ii) if the taxpayer is a small or medium enterprise as established in Decree-Law no. 372/2007, of 6 November 2007, 17% (seventeen per cent.) (13.6% (thirteen point six per cent.) in the Autonomous Region of Azores) for taxable profits up to €15,000.00 (fifteen thousand euros) and 21% (twenty one per cent.) (16.8% (sixteen point eight per cent.) in the Autonomous Region of Azores) on profits in excess thereof, to which may be added a municipal surcharge (derrama municipal) of up to 1.5% (one point five per cent.) of its taxable income before the deduction of tax losses. Corporate taxpayers with a taxable income of more than €1,500,000.00 (one million five hundred thousand euros) are also subject to State or Regional surcharge (derrama estadual ou regional) of (i) 3% (three per cent.) on the part of its taxable profits exceeding €1,500,000.00 (one million five hundred thousand euros) up to €7,500,000.00 (seven million five hundred thousand euros), (ii) 5% (five per cent.) on the part of the taxable profits that exceeds €7,500,000.00 (seven million five hundred thousand euros) up to €35,000,000.00 (thirty five million euros), and (iii) 9% (nine per cent.) on the part of the taxable profits that exceeds €35,000,000.00 (thirty five million euros).

Withholding tax at a rate of 25% (twenty-five per cent.) applies to legal persons on interest derived from the Notes, which is deemed to be a payment on account of the final tax due. Financial institutions resident in Portugal for tax purposes or branches of foreign financial institutions located herein, pension funds, retirement and/or education savings funds, share savings funds, venture capital funds and collective investment undertakings incorporated under the laws of Portugal and certain exempt entities are not subject to Portuguese withholding tax. Nevertheless, interest paid or made available to accounts opened in the name of one or more accountholders acting on behalf of one or more unidentified third parties is subject to a final withholding tax rate of 35 (thirty-five) per cent., unless the relevant beneficial owner(s) of the income is/are identified and as a consequence the tax rate applicable to such beneficial owner(s) will apply.

Interest payments on the Notes to Portuguese tax resident individuals are subject to final withholding tax for personal income tax purposes at the current rate of 28% (twenty-eight per cent), unless the individual elects for aggregation to his taxable income, subject to tax at progressive rates of up to 48% (forty eight per cent.). In the latter circumstance an additional income tax will be due on the part of the taxable income exceeding €80,000.00 (eighty thousand euros) as follows: (i) 2.5% (two point five per cent.) on the part of the taxable income exceeding €80,000.00 (eighty thousand euros) up to €250,000.00 (two hundred and fifty thousand euros) and (ii) 5% (five per cent.) on the remaining part (if any) of the taxable income exceeding €250,000.00 (two hundred and fifty thousand euros).

Interest paid or made available to accounts opened in the name of one or more accountholders acting on behalf of one or more unidentified third parties is subject to a final withholding tax rate of 35% (thirty-five per cent.), unless the relevant beneficial owner(s) of the income is/are identified and as a consequence the tax rate applicable to such beneficial owner(s) will apply.

Capital gains arising from the transfer of the Notes obtained by Portuguese tax resident individuals will be taxed at a special rate of 28% (twenty-eight per cent.) levied on the positive difference between such gains and gains on other securities and losses on securities, unless the individual elects for aggregation to his taxable income, subject to tax at the current progressive rates of up to 48% (forty-eight per cent.). In the latter circumstance an additional income tax will be due on the part of the taxable income exceeding €80,000.00 (eighty thousand euros) as follows: (i) 2.5% (two point five per cent.) on the part of the taxable income exceeding €80,000.00 (eighty thousand euros) up to €250,000.00 (two hundred and fifty thousand euros) and (ii) 5% (five per cent.) on the remaining part (if any) of the taxable income exceeding €250,000.00 (two hundred and fifty thousand euros).

Payments of principal on Notes are not subject to Portuguese withholding tax. For these purposes, principal shall mean all payments carried out without any remuneration component.

Stamp tax

An exemption from stamp tax will apply to the assignment for securitisation purposes of the Receivables by the Originator to the Issuer or on the commissions paid by the Issuer to the Servicer pursuant to the Securitisation Tax Law.

Value added tax

An exemption from VAT will apply to the servicing activities referred to in the Securitisation Tax Law.

FATCA

The United States has entered into a Model 1 intergovernmental agreement with Portugal (“IGA”), signed on 6 August 2015 and ratified by Portugal on 5 August 2016. In view of the abovementioned regime, all information regarding the registration of the financial institution, the procedures to comply with the reporting obligations and the forms to use for that end were provided by the Ministry of Finance through Order No. 302-A/2016, of 2 December 2016, and Order No. 302-D/2016, of 2 December 2016, amended by Order No. 255/2017, of 14 August 2017. Common Reporting Standard

On 9 December 2014, Council Directive 2014/107/EU, amending Council Directive 2011/16/EU, introduced the CRS among the EU Member States. This Directive was transposed to Portuguese national law on October 2016, via Decree-Law no. 64/2016, of 11 October 2016, amended by Law no. 98/2013017, of 24 August 2017 (the “Portuguese CRS Law”), which amended Decree-Law no. 61/2013, of 10 May 2013, which transposed Directive 2011/16/EU. In view of the abovementioned regime, all information regarding the registration of the financial institution, the procedures to comply with the reporting obligations and the forms to use for that end were provided by the Ministry of Finance through Order No. 302-A/2016, of 2 December 2016, Order No. 302-B/2016, of 2 December 2016, Order No. 302-C/2016, of 2 December 2016, Order No. 302D/2016, of 2 December 2016, amended by Order No. 255/2017, of 14 August 2017, and Order No. 302-E/2016, of 2 December 2016, and may be available for viewing and downloading at www.portaldasfinancas.gov.pt

The Proposed Financial Transaction Tax

The European Commission has published a proposal for a Directive for a common financial transaction tax (“FTT”) in Belgium, Germany, Estonia, Greece, Spain, France, Italy, Austria, Portugal, Slovenia and Slovakia (the “participating Member States”).

The proposed FTT has very broad scope and could, if introduced in its current form, apply to certain dealings in Notes (including secondary market transactions) in certain circumstances. The issuance and subscription of Notes should, however, be exempt.

Under current proposals the FTT could apply in certain circumstances to persons both within and outside of the participating Member States. Generally, it would apply to certain dealings in Notes where at least one party is a financial institution, and at least one party is established in a participating Member State. A financial institution may be, or be deemed to be, “established” in a participating Member State in a broad range of circumstances, including (a) by transacting with a person established in a participating Member State or (b) where the financial instrument which is subject to the dealings is issued in a participating Member State.

The FTT proposal remains subject to negotiation between the participating Member States and is the subject of legal challenge. It may therefore be altered prior to any implementation, the timing of which remains unclear. Additional EU Member States may decide to participate. Prospective holders of Notes are advised to seek their own professional advice in relation to the FTT.

DISTRIBUTION AND SALE

On the Issue Date, CEMG subscribed for all of the Notes and the Class R Note. On 3 November 2017, CEMG sold the Class B Notes and the Class J Notes to institutional investors.

The Lead Manager has, pursuant to a placement agreement dated on or about the date of this prospectus between CEMG, the Issuer and the Lead Manager (the “Placement Agreement”), agreed with CEMG (subject to certain conditions) to use its reasonable efforts to procure investors to acquire from CEMG the Class A Notes.

Except with the express written consent of CEMG in the form of a U.S. Risk Retention Consent and where such sale falls within the exemption provided by Section 20 of the U.S. Risk Retention Rules, the Notes may not be purchased by any person except for persons that are not Risk Retention U.S. Persons.

For the avoidance of doubt, under the Placement Agreement above, the distribution and sale restrictions below have been agreed by CEMG only in respect of the Class A Notes.

This Prospectus does not constitute, and may not be used for the purpose of, an offer or a solicitation by anyone to subscribe for or purchase any of the Notes in or from any country or jurisdiction where such an offer or solicitation is not authorised or is unlawful.

UNITED STATES

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or the state securities laws or “blue sky” laws of any state or any other relevant jurisdiction of the United States and therefore may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S) except pursuant to an exemption from registration requirements. Accordingly, the Notes are being offered and sold in offshore transactions in reliance on Regulation S.

CEMG has agreed that it will not offer, sell or deliver the Notes (a) as part of its distribution at any time or (b) otherwise until 40 days after the later of the commencement of the offering and the Closing Date (the “Distribution Compliance Period”) within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons, and it will have sent to each affiliate or other dealer (if any) to which it sells Notes during the Distribution Compliance Period a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Notes within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act.

In addition, until 40 days after the commencement of the offering, an offer or sale of Notes within the United States by any dealer that is not participating in the offering may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

In addition to the foregoing, each purchaser of the Notes during the initial syndication will be deemed to have represented and agreed as follows: it (1) is not a Risk Retention US Person, (2) is acquiring such Note or a beneficial interest therein for its own account and not with a view to distribute such Notes and (3) is not acquiring such Note or a beneficial interest therein as part of a scheme to evade the requirements of the US Risk Retention Rules.

UNITED KINGDOM

CEMG has represented to and agreed with the Issuer that:

- a) it has only communicated or caused to be communicated, and will only communicate or cause to be communicated, an invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of section 21 of the FSMA) received by it in connection with the issue or sale of any Notes in circumstances in which section 21(1) of the FSMA does not apply to the Issuer; and
- b) it has complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the FSMA with respect to anything done by it in relation to the Notes in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom.

CEMG has acknowledged that no further action has been or will be taken in any jurisdiction by CEMG that would, or is intended to, permit a public offering of the Notes, or possession or distribution of this Prospectus or any other offering material in relation to such Notes, in any country or jurisdiction where such further action for that purpose is required.

PORTUGAL

The Notes may not be and will not be offered to the public in Portugal under circumstances which are deemed to be a public offer under the Portuguese Securities Code (Código dos Valores Mobiliários) enacted by Decree Law no. 486/99 of 13 November 1999, as amended and restated from time to time. Accordingly, no actions, offers, advertising, marketing, invitations to subscribe, gathering of investment intentions, sales, re-sales, re-offers or deliveries may be made in respect of the Notes in circumstances which could qualify as a public offer (oferta pública) of securities pursuant to the Portuguese Securities Code, notably in circumstances which could qualify as a public offer addressed to individuals or entities resident in Portugal or having permanent establishment located in Portuguese territory, as the case may be.

PROHIBITION OF SALES TO EEA RETAIL INVESTORS

The Notes may not be and will not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area. For the purposes of this provision:

- (a) the expression “retail investor” means a person who is one (or more) of the following:
 - (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of MiFID II; or
 - (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive 2002/92/EC (as amended, the “Insurance Mediation Directive”), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or
 - (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive; and
- (b) the expression "offer" includes the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the Notes.

PUBLIC OFFER SELLING RESTRICTION UNDER THE PROSPECTUS DIRECTIVE

In relation to each Member State of the European Economic Area which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a “Relevant Member State”), CEMG has represented and agreed that with effect from and including the date on which the Prospectus Directive is implemented in that Relevant Member State (the “Relevant Implementation Date”) it has not made and will not make an offer of Notes to the public in that Relevant Member State other than:

- (a) to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive;
- (b) to fewer than 150 natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors as defined in the Prospectus Directive), subject to obtaining the prior consent of the relevant dealer or dealers nominated by the Issuer for any such offer; or
- (c) in any other circumstances falling within Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive, provided that no such offer of Notes shall require the Issuer or CEMG to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 16 of the Prospectus Directive.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an “offer of Notes to the public” in relation to any Notes in any Relevant Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the Notes, as the same may be varied in that Member State by any measure implementing the Prospectus Directive in that Member State, the expression “Prospectus Directive” means Directive 2003/71/EC (as amended, including by Directive 2010/73/EU), and includes any relevant implementing measure in the Relevant Member State.

GENERAL

No action has been taken by the CEMG that would, or is intended to, permit a public offer of the Notes in any country or jurisdiction where any such action for that purpose is required. Accordingly, the CEMG has undertaken that it will not, directly or indirectly, offer or sell any Notes or have in its possession, distribute or publish any offering circular, prospectus, form of application, advertisement or other document or information in respect of the Notes in any country or jurisdiction except under circumstances that will, to the best of its knowledge and belief, result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations and all offers and sales of Notes by it will be made on the same terms.
